Biographical/Historical note

Eberhart Studio was a photographic studio that operated in Milledgeville, Ga throughout the 20th century. This studio took photographic portraits and other photographs for the Milledgeville and Baldwin County Community. Some photographs taken by this studio became postcards, but many of the subjects of the studio were students at Georgia State College for Women, now georgia college. When the studio negatives were transferred to Allied Arts in 1999, many of these negatives were distributed to the community.

Scope and Contents note

Negatives, and one photograph, dating from 1926 until the 1960's. Most of the images are portraits, with a few images of campus scenes.

Arrangement note

The collection is arranged into three series which include: College Activities, People, and Miscellaneous.

Administrative Information

Conditions Governing Access note

The collection is open for research and there are currently no restrictions governing access to this collection.

Conditions Governing Use note

Copyright status for materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials is protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Immediate Source of Acquisition note

Eberhart Studio negatives were collected by Dr. Bob Wilson, GC Department of History, when Allied Arts offered the negatives to the Milledgeville community in 1999.
