A NOTE FROM THE

PROVOST

As we celebrate the 20th anniversary of our public liberal arts designation, there is no better time to honor the scholarship and creative works of our faculty. In our inaugural celebration, we recognize more than 125 works created in 2015 which include articles, books and book chapters, works of art and literature, and musical and theatrical performances.

Additionally, there are 37 faculty who serve as editors and/or editorial board members of professional journals.

It is hoped that today we are all inspired by the many ways our Georgia College faculty express their creativity and contribute to human knowledge as we seek preeminence as a public liberal arts university.

Dr. Kelli Brown
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
