Ben W. Howell

By Jonathan O'Brien and Davis Shaw

U.S. Army Sergeant First Class Ben Willis Howell was born in Tennille, Georgia in Washington County on July 5, 1931. Records from HonorStates.org show that Sgt. First Class Howell enlisted in the United States Army. According to the Union-Recorder, at the time of his death he had already served 18 years, and was described as a “career soldier.”

On the home front Howell married Carolyn Garrett, of Milledgeville. They had three children: “one son, Ben Keith; two daughters, Kathy Elizabeth and Gwynell Ann,” according to the Union-Recorder. Records show the family lived at 244 Park Ave. Milledgeville, Ga 31061.

During his final tour of duty in Vietnam, which began on April 13, 1968, Howell suffered a “traumatic event.” Records show he was killed by hostile small arms fire while in Quang Tri Province. He died on May 28, 1968.

His body would not return to his hometown of Milledgeville for burial until mid-June. A front page article in the Union-Recorder, reported the funeral for Howell was held at 4 p.m. on Monday, June 10 in the Church of the First Assembly of God on Irwinton Road. Howell was given "full military honors" during a graveside service at the Zeeta Cemetery in Tennille. The funeral was presided over by the Rev. D.W. Gatlyn and Rev. Billy R. Jones.

In addition to his wife and three children, Howell was survived by his father, Oscar Howell of Dublin, along with his brothers -- M.S. Howell of Tennille, Remus Howell of Swainsboro, and Melvin Howell of Sandersville -- and his five sisters: Mrs. Velvin Smith of Tennille, Mrs. Margaret West of Savannah, Mrs. W.O. Bland of Brunswick, Mrs. J.D. Walker of Longview, Texas, and Mrs. Paul Throade of California.
