The Golden Years, these are the college years, filled with the dreams of glorious achievements yet to come, with the despair of momentary heartache and disappointment, crowned with a rich and overflowing sense of life to the very finger tips. These are the years when every experience is an adventure, when the thrill of discovery comes with the understanding of even the most ancient concept or with the realization of the intolerable beauty in a line of poetry. The Years of Gold, the time when to be alive and young is very heaven . . .

Dedication

You are a teacher extraordinary, endowed with the priceless gift of conveying an understanding and respect for a sometimes formidable subject, and of instilling in us a desire to reach beyond the limits of our expectations to broader and deeper areas of knowledge. Your kindness and warmth are balanced by firmness and logic. Your all-pervading sense of integrity inspires us to develop this quality within ourselves. In your quiet, unobtrusive way you lead students as if you led them not. Because you are what you are—intelligent, sincere, kind—we, with deep respect and affection, dedicate the 1963 Spectrum to you,

STUDENT LIFE

*The golden days of college bring familiar sights and new . . . .
all may one day become happy memories of a special time of life . . .*

Freshmen begin their college years . . . moving in is confusing and hectic—sometimes it seems impossible to find a place for all those odds and ends . . .

checking in, getting a name tag, and finding the way to a new room—perhaps the first meeting with an upperclassman . . .

paying the matriculation fee—an official way of becoming a college student . . .

*Anticipation of graduation . . .
a dream of freshmen which seems years in the future—an all important reality for seniors as they spend their last days on campus . . .*

Hours of work and study ... in the classroom or the privacy of our own rooms—books, lab work, term papers are a few items which consume many of our minutes ...

Traditions ... such as Slipper and Annual Hike are bright spots which are worked for and looked forward to every year ...

*Diversions . . .
extra highlights of the year
come with swimming meets, intramurals, and many new activities . . .*

*Three times a day! . . .
unaccustomed shots of a very familiar place—the dining hall offers a moment of relaxation as we rush through a busy schedule . . .*

Familiar panorama . . . whether it be snacks or a cluttered hall or a trip for the weekend we are all well acquainted with sights such as these . . .

*Lingering memories . . .
frivolous or serious,
all unite to enlighten our golden years of youth . . .*

I have yet begun to fight!

And further more, see that it never happens again.

And then he said—why don't you major in math—

But you said I could see the late show.

That's no excuse you could have phoned.

Whose idea was this any how?

Oh! I thought you said that the faculty was on strike!

I was only kidding girls, really! The test is today instead.

I don't know, he's a little young for Calculus.

Won't they be surprised?

I wasn't watching what I was doing and now it's broken.

FACULTY

Dr. Robert E. Lee, President of the Woman's College

Scholarship, friendliness, interest in the college and its studies are attributes which combine to make of Dr. Lee a most successful president. With ease and dignity he performs the difficult task of guiding the Woman's College. He is a man respected by both faculty and students.

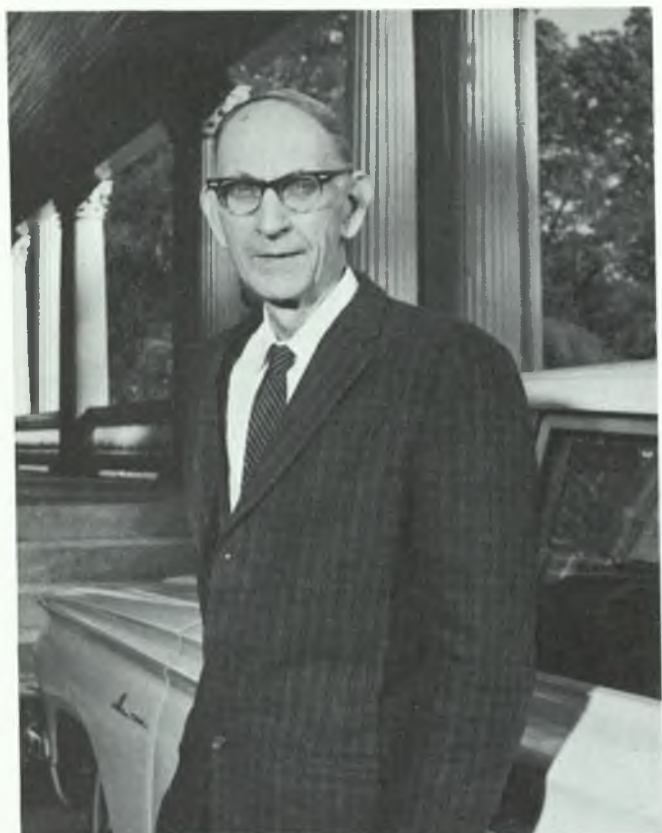

Dr. Barbara A. Chandler

Distinguished by her dynamic personality, her warm smile, Dean Chandler successfully directs student life. Her awareness of the special needs, problems, attributes of each student, and her firm kindness and sincerity are qualities which make her very effective in this challenging position.

Dr. Donald H. MacMahon
Dean of Instruction

With quiet dignity and sincerity of purpose he directs the academic life at the Woman's College. His friendly concern and deep understanding of students, his genuine love of learning, serve as stimulants to all who seek a richer life through education.

FEATURES

Freshman initiation
And then the fun began . . . .

Annual Hike

Shamrocks, elephants, thunderbirds, and royalty abound—nothing can compare to it for color, madness or sound—October is the time of Annual Hike. Many students rank the comradeship, exhilaration, and bonfire as among the most precious memories of the year.

A time for joy, a time for tears, while spirits, hopes, and hearts unite to last through all the golden years as the "Lure of Our Land" beckons the "Foot-loose and Fancy-free."

Golden Slipper

From chaos

To unity

Winter Formal

*The band—excellent;
the sound—reminiscent of Glenn Miller;
the occasion—winter formal;
the theme—"Winter in Blues."*

Spring Formal

The excitement and thrill of a coronation — the flutter of hearts as Miss Aurora and her Court are presented. Royalty brings a highlight to each spring formal.

You Touched Me

College Theater's presentation of this delightful comedy was a sparkling and memorable occasion of fall quarter.

*One college,
One life,
'Twill soon be past;
Honor, truth, justice,
Integrity within,
These are the things that last.*

As convocation brings graduation near seniors realize that these golden years of college will guide them through the future.

Atlanta Symphony Orchestra

Fleeting strands of music linger long in the realms of the mind both consciously and unconsciously after the annual performance of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra conducted by Mr. Henry Sopkin.

Messiah

With great anticipation the school and community look forward to one of the most beautiful and stirring annual events on campus when Dr. Max Noah presents under his direction "The Messiah" during the joyous Christmas season.

Highlights of the

Each year the community and college look forward to what the Community Concert Series has to offer. This year we had the pleasure of being entertained by drama, song, and piano.

The Cleveland Play House

Community Concert Series

The Cleveland Play House presented us with Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest." Jorge Bolet thrilled everyone with his great power on the piano. And Hilde Gueden, soprano, delighted the audience with an evening of song.

A Cappella Choir

Enchanting voices directed by Dr. Max Noah thrill listeners everywhere—presenting home concerts, the Messiah, and choir homecoming; touring Georgia on their annual long weekend; going out of state with the highlight this year being Miami—the choir gives a polished performance at all stops, giving the college good reason to be proud of this group.

Marsha Smith, Benny Lee, Betty Anne Bailey, Frances Lyle, Sandra Dunn, Ruth Sandiford, Majorie Doak, Carolyn Adams, Joy Noah MacMillan, Georgia Darden, Pat Boterweg.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Toward the advancement of superior quality in music, locally and nationally — monthly music programs, radio broadcasts, and chapel programs are some of their activities.

Pi Gamma Mu

Social science is the field and excellence is the membership requirement. Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary fraternity open to faculty, townspeople and seniors and juniors who are qualified and interested.

Delta Phi Beta

Newly organized, Delta Phi Beta unites scientifically minded students of elementary education.

Officers: Annette Bone, Evelyn Blount, Rita Rattray (President), Emily Arrington, Ellen Corbet, LuAnn Lee.

Thank You . . .

To everyone who has put their heart and soul into the job of getting this annual out to the student body. Things have been rough at times and sometimes seemed absolutely impossible—but after all the nerve-racking moments involving disappointments with our unfulfilled dreams, we can look back, however, somewhat with pride knowing we have done the best we could.

We pay special attribute to our advisors, Miss Quillian White, Dr. Joseph Specht, and Mr. George Gaines. They have pushed and held their breath as much as we when deadlines had to be met or crisis arose.

Thank you also to all who have been patient with us and our problems and we hope you may be repaid by the enjoyment of the 1963 Spectrum.
