

---

Colonnade

Special Collections

---

12-6-1930

Colonnade December 6, 1930

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: <https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Colonnade, "Colonnade December 6, 1930" (1930). Colonnade. 62.
<https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/62>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.

The Colonnade

Volume VI

Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga., December 6, 1930

NUMBER 9

Journalism Class Helps Edit Macon Telegraph

The Journalism class of the Georgia State College for Women were the guests of the Macon Telegraph Monday, December 1st, in order to help edit the Tuesday morning paper. The class left the campus at 12:30 in a special bus chartered by the school and arrived in Macon at 2 after enjoying en route a picnic lunch prepared by Mrs. J. M. Hall and Miss Effie Pirrat. Immediately on arrival assignments were made by the city editor, Mr. Mitchel, for both afternoon and night duties. Several girls went with the reporters on their beats, others covered beats by themselves, while some others covered the various plays, banquets, and socials occurring that afternoon and night. At 10:30 the students saw the first edition of the paper come off the press and then they began an inspection tour of the plant. At midnight the class were the honor guests at a banquet at the Paramount given by the staff of the Telegraph. The staff was introduced by Mr. Mark Etheridge, the managing editor of the paper, while the girls were introduced by Dr. W. T. Wynn. Miss Elizabeth Millikin, the only girl in the banquet the class reluctantly man, gave the speech of appreciation on behalf of the class. After the banquet the class reluctantly entered the bus to return to the campus.

Dr. Wynn is quoted as saying, "The Journalism class did well in Macon and I am proud of them" while all the members declared that it was great to be a newspaper woman.

The members of the class are Norma Dunaway, Americus; Mary Bell Gibson and Marguerite Arthur, Quitman; Virginia McLaughlin, Greenville; Era Jean Hiers, Berlin; Sara Jo Barron, Round Oak; Margaret Trapnell, Newnan; Elizabeth Millikin, Jesup; Fannie Wortham, Roopville; Marion Jones and Emily Sanders, Atlanta; Marion Power, Woodstock; Anna B. Cooper, Lawrenceville; Maymie Norwood, Milledgeville; and Virginia Lanier, Dublin.

Dr. and Mrs. Wynn and Miss Edith Ivey accompanied the group on their trip.

TELEGRAPH EDITOR TO SPEAK BEFORE A. A. U. W.

World Peace to Be Subject of Address of Mr. Mark Etheridge on Next Monday Evening

Mr. Mark Etheridge, editor of the Macon Telegraph, will speak before the American Association of University Women at their meeting on next Monday evening at eight o'clock.

Mr. Etheridge will speak on World Peace. The meeting will be held in the college tea room.

TWO INTERESTING LYCEUM NUMBERS AT G. S. C.

The Adanic Male Quartet Friday Night. The Princes Der Ling Tuesday Night

The Lyceum numbers listed for December are The Adanic Male Quartet in a Recital Program and Her Imperial Highness, Princess Der Ling of the Manchu Court of the Late Empress Dowager Tzu Hsi of China.

The Adanic Male Quartet is under the management of the Bureau of Fine Arts located in Asheville, N. C. Critics have endorsed the singing of this company, praising it highly on the excellent individual artistry and organational quality.

Her Imperial Highness, the Princess Der Ling is the daughter of a Manchu of first rank who was Minister to Japan. While her father was minister there, the Princess studied Japanese, flower decoration, and English. Later her father was Chinese Minister to Germany, Italy, Spain and France, and was sent on three diplomatic missions to the United States. In all these countries the Princess received parts of an unusual and varied education.

She will tell us either about the Modern Women of China, at the Manchu Court or Chinese Politics of today. Both of these subjects are equally interesting to us from a World Fellowship view point. Both the Adanic Male Quartet and the Lectures of the Princess Der Ling are well worth seeing and should not be missed.

NEW METHODIST MINISTER SPEAKS TO STUDENT BODY

Rev. Frank Quillian, from Dalton, Georgia, recently appointed to Milledgeville Methodist church, spoke to the students Tuesday morning in chapel on "Finding What You Look For," taking as his scripture reading a portion of the fourth chapter of Philippians in which Paul tells us what to think on.

Mr. Quillian's message to us was "to look for the good things in people and in life and we will find them," illustrated by [two short] stories.

come Mr. Quillian and wish for him come Mr. Juillian and wish for him the greatest of success in his pastorate here.

CHAPEL PROGRAM SPONSORED BY HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

December 3 being the birthday of Mrs. Ellen Richards, the Home Economics club put on an interesting chapel program in celebration of her birthday.

Life of Mrs. Richards was given by Dixie Neal. History of Home Economics at G. S. C. W. was given by Elvyn Poole.

The program was directed by: Hannah Forehand, Vasta Smith and Mabel Underwood.

OFFICIALS OF COLLEGE ATTEND MEETING

Report is Made to Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools

Dr. Edwin H. Scott, Dean of Teachers College, left November 28, and was joined by president Beeson on December 3, to attend the 1930 meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, which was held in Atlanta.

At this meeting, which is attended by president, registrars, and deans of nearly all the southern colleges, a report is made by each college concerning improvements, additions to the faculty, increase of student body, and other interesting facts.

Dr. Beeson and Dean Scott will return Saturday or Sunday night, depending on the importance of Saturday's meetings.

RAYMOND P. CURRIER VISITS G. S. C. W.

Raymond P. Currier, Educational Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions and Editor of "Far Horizons", will speak before the students of Georgia State College for Women, Georgia School of Technology and Columbia Seminary and deputation work among the Georgia schools.

Mr. Currier has the B. A. and M. A. from Harvard, and for almost ten years he was on the staff of Judson College, Rangoan, Burma. He has served as Y. M. C. A. Secretary at Indiana State University and as Associate Professor of English at Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana.

It has been said of Mr. Currier. "A man who combines in his own experience an understanding of the problems of world Missions and of student life in our generation can make a unique contribution to American and Canadian colleges. The rich background of his own experience will make him of great value in any student center."

"Professors of History, Economics, Sociology, Philosophy, and Education have invited the traveling secretary to visit the classes and students in an attempt to relate history, present conditions, or systems of life and thought in foreign countries to our own problems of today."

GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED

Miss Tucker called a meeting of her voice pupils Nov. 14, and organized a G. S. C. W. Glee Club. The officers were elected as follows:

President—Anne Holden Grimes. Vice-President—Helen Hall. Chairma Social Committee—H. Hall.

Secretary and Treasurer—Dora Dell Downing.

Pianist—Cera Hunt.

The Glee Club will meet every Thursday afternoon at 5:30.

Freshman Council Elects Officers Installation Services Held

G. S. C. ALUMNAE HONOR DEPARTED PRESIDENTS

Wreaths Placed on Graves of Dr. Chappel and Dr. Parks Last Friday Afternoon.

A custom at G. S. C. W., that began in 1927 and increases its meaning with the years, is the annual pilgrimage to the graves of Dr. J. H. Chappell and Dr. M. M. Parks, the two former presidents of the college.

On December 1, the day before the birthday of Dr. Parks, the pilgrimage was made to the cemetery. The line led by Dr. Beeson left the campus at six o'clock.

Upon each grave wreaths of white carnations were placed and the inscriptions were read by Dr. Beeson.

The long line of students and others who marched is the pilgrimage gave expression of the love and esteem in which these two builders of the college are held.

COLLEGES MAY APPOINT RESEARCH WORKERS

The Savannah Chamber of Commerce has submitted a plan to the heads of the University of Georgia, Mercer University, Emory University, Oglethorpe University, and Georgia Tech, which, if followed by these five major colleges of Georgia, will result in the formation of a body of student associates, numbering nearly 500 young men to assist in the future commercial, agricultural, and industrial development of Georgia.

The plan specifies that each university appoint one senior and one junior from each eighty four counties in South Georgia who will study local and regional problems and will be in a position to bring to the work of the associate membership the viewpoint and research of the institutions they represent.

FRESHMAN HOBBY GROUPS MEET

The Freshman Hobby groups met Friday afternoon for organization. Plans and projects for the rest of the year were discussed.

There are ten hobby groups. Each of these groups has an advisor from the faculty of senior class and of or more members of the Freshman Council who help the advisors.

The groups and advisors are: Miss Gussie Tabb, campcraft; Dr. Hunter, dramatics; Miss Austelle Adams, kodakery; Celia McCall and Margaret Trapnell, handcraft; Miss Sara Nelson, nature study; poetry advisor to be announced later; Mable Underwood and Elvyn Poole, sewing; Miss Marie Smith, skating; Vera Hunt, singing; Mrs. Doris, Miss Perkins, Miss Thaxton, Miss Burch, hiking.

Members of the Freshman Council met last Tuesday night, December 2, in the "Y" room to elect officers. Miss Caroline Selman, advisor of the Freshman Council led the devotional and officiated at the election.

Those elected to serve for the year are: Miss Marion Lanier, West Point, president; Miss Marion Brown, West Point, vice-president; Miss Lucy Rebecca Hearn, Greenville, S. C., secretary; Miss Anna Everett, Brunswick, treasurer.

Thursday evening, in the auditorium a very lovely and impressive service was given in which newly elected members of the Freshman Council were installed as leaders of their class in Y. W. C. A. work. The purpose of the council was given by the president Marion Lanier. Marion Brown, vice-president read the scripture.

The light of the Y. W. C. A. was passed by the Freshman Council advisor, Caroline Selman, to the officers and they in turn to each member.

Members of the Council are: Jannette Tigner, Olivia Harris, Mary K. Smith, Louise Hatcher Sue, Mansfield, Catherine Lawrence Evelyn Turner, Elizabeth Taylor, Betty Wyatt Dorothy Smith, Marie Parker, Sarah McMillan, Bernice Johnson, Christine Goodson, Virginia Rose Marshal, Carol Reid, Mildred Connel, Virginia Tunner, Eulalie McDowell, Chan Parker, Mary Jones, Ruth Wilson, Frances Williams, Hattie Carter Armelie Burns and Evelyn Revelle.

FRESHMEN ORGANIZE FOR BASKETBALL

All interested members of the Freshman class were organized into basketball squads last Tuesday, Dec. 2nd. At this meeting it was decided that different groups of girls would meet and practice together at specified times during the next two weeks. At the end of this period, all the girls will play together, and then a team will be selected as representatives of this class for the Spectrum. However, all girls will continue to practice until March when a final selection will be made.

HIGH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CARNIVAL TO BE HELD

The Junior class of Peabody High School will give a Christmas carnival in the high school auditorium on December 15. The carnival is being directed by Miss Mae Evans, class advisor.

FACULTY MEMBERS ATTEND MEETING

The meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools which is meeting in Atlanta this week is being attended by many of the faculty members.

Among those who have gone to Atlanta besides Dr. Beeson and Dr. Scott are, Dr. Webber, Dr. Meadows, Dr. Wynn and Mr. Fowler.

THE COLONNADE

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY STUDENTS
OF THE GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN CORNER HANCOCK CLARK
STS. MILLEDGEVILLE, GA.

"Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1923, at the post office Milledgeville, Ga., under the Act of March 3, 1879."

Subscription Rate, $1.00 per year

COLONNADE STAFF 1930-31

Editor-in-Chief ..... Caroline Selman
Managing Editor ..... Kathryn Vinson

Business Managers

Bess Bell — Mary Eberhart
Monk Carrigan

News Editors

Mary Rogers — Margaret Trapnell
Caroline Russell

Editorial Staff

Bobbie Burns — Virginia Keenen
Sara Stokes

Alumni Editor

Susie Dell Reamy

Y. W. C. A. Editor

Claire Flanders

Reporters

Rebecca Markwalter, Virginia Smith, Martha Shaw,
Lillian Leadbetter, Elizabeth Cowart, Dorothy
Lowe, Mary Snow Johnson, Lavonia Newman,
Mary Bell Gibson, Marguerite Arthur, Virginia
Luke, Katherine Owen, Mary Driskell.

A FRESHMAN WRITES HOME

G. S. C. W., December 5, 1930

Dear Little Sister:
Only two more weeks! Just think of it, sister! In two more weeks I shall look once more upon the face of you and my mother. As the time for the beginning of our Yuletide holidays draws near and ever nearer, my job ceases to be joy and becomes ecstasy. As I have said previously, you who are even now under the home-shelter cannot adequately appreciate the joy of one who has left and cast her lot among strangers, so to speak, when she finds herself on the eve of returning to the familiar fireside.

But, little sister, these months have been well worthwhile. They have taught me many things. I suppose the most important and most valuable lesson I have learned is the ability to deny myself little pleasures for the sake of my dear room-mates, small things, to be sure, but indicative of the progress which I am endeavoring to make. Then, there have been pleasures, too. One of the most pleasurable, if I may coin a word of these pleasures has been and I fully expect to continue to be my participation in my particular hobby group.

But, as always, there is a fly in the ointment. Sister, we have to return on January 1! January 1, little sister! Well do I remember the excitement and frolic of last January 1 and it pains me to contemplate having to forego the pleasure of another New Year's Day spent with you and the family. I will be conspicuous by my absence, from the party you have planned, and I had anticipated with so much happiness. Alas, I shall have to hang my little blue dress in its accustomed place, and bid you all farewell even on the very afternoon of your party. But sister don't let thought of me cast a shadow over your evening. Even while I must return to school on New Year's Day, have your good time and do not let my absence affect your merriment.

Your Sister,

—SARA.

"Why don't you like the girls, mister?"
"They're too biased, sir."
"Biased?"
"Yes, sir, bias this and bias that until I'm broke!"

Louise Collins: "Say Maggie, are you eating again?"

Margaret McKenna: "No, I'm eating an orange."

AMBROSE AND AMARYLLIS

Amaryllis—Lawdee—if I ain't shotaired.

Ambrose—Wuts you're bin doin ta be so taird?

Amar—I'se bin over yonder in Miss Key's recepshun room' lectro-cut'n de rug.

Amb—Wut in de land ub goodness is you talkin 'bout?

Amar—Now, Ambrose, I knows dat you knows wut ea evacuator is—

Amb—Er evacuator! So hep me git er new pair er pants! I'es you gone plumb crazy?

Amar—You'se is de crazy one! I guess dat win you'se wuz er little cullud chile you mau she used er broom. Well nobody but po wite trash use er broom on dey rug eny-mo cos it don clean it plumb through.

Amb—Hmph; How you'se knows so mech 'bout it?

Amar—Ain't er wite man don tried to sell me one tother day. He says dat er long time ergo ladies use to use er broom, but now since science don disbathered er vac . . .

Amb—Who's Science?

Amar—If you'se will keep yo black mauf shet I'es gonna tell ya. Science is some man wut knows er lot mo 'bout how to run de world den you does. Now since Science don disbathered er vacuator you don use er broom no mo.

Amb—You ain't buyed no vacuator es you.

Amar—No, I isn't! But wut if I is?

Amb—I'se jes thainkin dis deployment situachun is gettin sho bad, an it taint no tellin win me or you either one's gonna be without er job.

Amar—Yes, sir, bias this and bias that until I'm broke!"

Louise Collins: "Say Maggie, are you eating again?"

Margaret McKenna: "No, I'm eating an orange."

grades under the direction of Miss Brooks and Miss Butts. For several years it has been the custom the fourth and fifth grades to produce jointly this program.

The opening number was a welcome song.

Part I.
America invites the many nations to her celebration of Thanksgiving.

As each nation entered they sing the national anthem and then offer a dance characteristic of their country.

The nations as they appeared were:

France—Marsellais—French Reel.

England—God Save the King—Folk Play.

Denmark—Chimes of Dundirk.

Spain—Music of Spain—Española.

Sweden—In Sweden — Crested Hen.

Scotland—The Blue Bells of Scotland.

Holland—A Little Dutch Garden—Folk Play.

Ireland—Wearing of the Green—Irish Lilt.

Japan—Song—Folk Play.

Part II.
America's Festival.

Indians.
Hiawatha—Longfellow.

Pilgrims.
The First Thanksgiving—Preston.

Colonial Ladies and Gentlemen.
Minuet.

America's School Children.
Songs.

The President's Proclamation.
The Stars Spangled Banner.

Part III.
The Thanksgiving offering.

Come Ye Thankful People Come.
Sing, Sing for Thanksgiving Day.

After the program Miss Burfitt made the usual announcements.

Those, who were in charge of the entertainment, are to be highly commended for the manner in which the playlet was presented. Especially should those who were in charge of the costumes, songs, and dances receive commendation for their share in helping to make the program a success.

FACULTY NOTES

Because of the illness of her mother Miss Lila Lee Riddell of the Household Science Department was recently called to her home in Richmond, Virginia. Her mother's condition has improved and Miss Riddell returned to Milledgeville Monday night, December 1.

Miss Elna Perkins plans to spend the Christmas holidays at her home in Pittsfield, New Hampshire.

Miss Ernestine Boineau, Assistant Registrar, spent Saturday afternoon, December 6, in Macon.

After a diligent search which occupied most of the afternoon, Misses Hazel Moore, Stella Steele, Lydia Bancroft, and Margaret Sutton found the far-famed Santa Claus in Macon Monday.

One of our newest faculty members, Dr. Beatrice Nevins will visit her home in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, during the holidays.

Miss Fyle, Miss Bigham, and Mrs. Dorris spent Monday afternoon in Macon.

THE SENIOR RECEPTION

The Senior Class was hostess at a delightful buffet supper, given in the tea room, Saturday night at 7:15, honoring the Emory Glee Club.

The tea room was beautifully decorated with mistletoe and pot plants, all of which carried out the color scheme, green and white. This offered a lovely background to the gorgeous display of colors that the Senior class presented in their dress.

The receiving line included Dr. and Mrs. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, and Mrs. Beaman.

A delicious salad course was served by members of the Senior class, while music was furnished by the college orchestra.

Conservation was the main feature of entertainment. Mr. George Monk president of the Emory Glee Club called on the outstanding members of his club for impromptu speeches, all of which afforded great amusement.

G. S. C. W. For The Alumnae

THE ALUMNAE For G. S. C. W.

Mary Farmer, A. B., '30, from Hephzibah, Georgia has recently married.

Frances Ennis, B. S. H. E., '27, is teaching Home Economics in the high school at Thompson, Ga.

Priscilla Forbes, B. S. General, '30, from McDonough, Georgia, is teaching at the A. & M. school at Carrollton, Ga.

Ruby Martin, B. S. General, '30, is teaching in the Forsyth high school, Forsyth, Ga.

Mary Bohanman, B. S., '30, is teaching in Newnan.

Louise Cannafax, B. S., '30, Zebulan, Ga., is teaching in Meansville, Ga.

Daisy Fowler, B. S., '30, is teaching in Culverton, Ga.

Alma Gladden, B. S., '30, is teaching in a Platoon System School at Dillon, S. C.

Beatrice Howard, B. S., '30, Washington, Ga., is teaching at Thompson, Ga.

Willie Leggett, B. S., '30, Unadilla, Ga., is teaching at Lurel Hill, Fla.

Dorothy Dowling, B. S., '30, Moultrie, Ga., and Emily Echols, B. S., '30, Stevens Pottery, Ga., are teaching together in South Carolina.

Lora Laine, B. S., '30, Dry Branch, Ga., is teaching Home Economics in high school at Perry, Ga.

Isabelle Tappan, B. S., '30, White Plains, Ga., is teaching at Raiford, S. C.

Nell Wier, B. S., '30 Athens, Ga., is teaching at Blythe, Ga.

Cornelia Montgomery, '30, Commerce, Ga., is teaching at Decatur, Ga.

Addie Atwood A. B., '30, Cedar Point, Ga., is teaching at Ocalo, Fla.

GONE

Leaves have fallen,
Trees are bare,
Twigs a-quiver,
Nothing there.
Day leaves heaped,
Colors gone,
Only dead grass waving—
Wind-blown.
You're gone, Autumn.
Your charm, your grace—
And winter comes
To take your place.
—M. A. T.

Mrs. J. D. Mansfield and daughter Virginia, spent Thursday with Sue Mansfield.

Misses Margo Coyne, Julia Mitchell and Carolyn Crawford spent Thanksgiving with Mary Rogers.

ADJUSTMENT

Tired and weary from the journey, And puzzled by the mob
Of similarly clad girls
Which I encountered
On the great steam locomotive,
I sadly trudged among them
To the dormitory.

A kindly woman greeted me—
But the beautifully illuminated building
And the cry of joy
On greeting friends failed to cause
A rise of spirit within me.

For thus a year I held myself apart,
Attempted to fight out my problems
for myself;
Opened my heart to no one.
The problem of adjustment
Almost o'er came me.

How different things are now!
How essential is the life on these two Squares of earth
To my existence.

The love of friends makes glad my heart,
How their lives uplift my soul,
I love it all—
For now I am a living, pulsing part,
Of this new life.

B. B.

"How did you get that cut on your head?"

"His—hic, musta—hic—bit myself."

"Gwan, how could you bit your head way up there?"

"Musta stolid—hic—hic—on a chair."—Bison.

BIRTHDAY FEAST

The girls in Mansion 26 and Mansion 84, were the hostesses at a lovely surprise birthday feast for Sara Parsons last week. A delicious salad course was served, after which the guests enjoyed a cake topped with candles designating the number of "summers" the young honoree had seen. Those present were: Sara Parsons, Farise Parsons, Frances Snell, Lucy Martin, and Elizabeth Hicks.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCES 37 AND 38 ENJOY A BREAKFAST.

Early Thanksgiving morning the two Household Science classes, 37 and 38, of Miss Rachel Birch's hiked to Camel's Hump, where they prepared and enjoyed a delicious breakfast of toast, cheese, sausage, coffee and grapes.

ROBB GIVEN MENTION BY BEAUX ARTS INSTITUTE

M. L. Robb, senior in the Architectural department of Tech, received first mention in a national contest on an Archaeology problem. This problem, a Norman castle entrance and drawbridge, was sent to all the Architectural departments of schools in the country by the Beaux Arts Institute of Design in New York. The problems completed by the Tech students were judged here and sent to N. Y., where where they were entered in competition with those from the other schools. The first mention awarded to Robb is the second highest award given. All of the Tech entries received mentions.

HAVE WE YOUR PERMANENT ADDRESS?

Please send the following information to:

MISS SUSIE DELL REAMY Alumnae Editor

79 Mansion, G. S. C. W.,
MILLEDGEVILLE, GEORGIA

Your Maiden Name .....

Year Graduated or Attended .....

Occupation .....

Permanent Address .....

Your Married Name .....

DECATUR COUNTY
GIRLS AT G.S.C.W.
MILLEDGEVILLE 1930-31

MEDUFFIE COUNTY
GIRLS AT G.S.C.W.
MILLEDGEVILLE 1930-31

JOKES

"You've got an awful big mouth haven't you, ma?"

"Why no, dear, I don't think so. Why do you ask?"

"'Cause I heard pa telling nurse last night that you swallowed everything."

He: "Where did you do most of your skating when you were learning?"

She: "Oh I think you are horrid."

Counsel: "Now, where did he kiss you?"

Plaintiff: "On the lips, sir."

Counsel: "No, no, I mean where were you?"

Plaintiff: "In his arms, sir."—Richmond Collegian.

First Brother: "My girl has parrot disease."

Second Brother: "I'm sorry to hear it, old man."

First Brother: "Yes, she repeats everything she hears."—Pennsylvania Punch Bowl.

Tin: "Don't the football players ever have their suits washed?"

Lizzie: "What do you think the scrub team is for?"

Mandy: "Judge, what would you do if somebody would steal youah wife?"

Judge: "I'd cut her company, Mandy, and let it drop at that."

Mandy: "Dat's jes' what Ah did—and Ah cut him deep."

"I'll have you know —hic—hic—hic, that I'm part of the Standard Oil Company."

"And what part are you?"

"Hic—one of the tanks."

Napoleon bequeathed to the Duke of Reihstadt at St. Helena these words: "May my son study history, for it is the only true psychology, and the only true philosophy."—The Parley Voo.

Collegiate Irritation No. 398,666: "All parallel must be read before Monday."—The Gamecock.

"Hello, is this the City Bridge Department?"

"Yes, what do you want?"

"How many points do you get for a little slam?"—Puppet.

They cure Scotch people from stuttering by making them talk over the long distance telephone.—The Gamecock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Guerry spent Sunday with daughter Vaidie.

Miss Elizabeth Walker of Macon, spent the week-end with Louise Hatcher.

Miss Kay Binson and Mirian spent several days in Atlanta last week on business.

Miss Clara Gregg '29, was a guest of her sister Lida Gregg last week.

Miss Elizabeth West, of Augusta, was a recent guest of her cousin Rosabel Burch.

Miss Mary Moss spent last week-end at Sargent, Ga., visiting Lucile Scroggin.

POST MASTER SAYS SHOP EARLY

Christmas Mail Rush Can be Avoided if Early Mailing is Practiced.

Post Offices will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume this can be done only with the cooperation of the public.

All parcels must be securely packed and wrapped. Use strong paper and heavy twine. Fragile articles must be crated or securely wrapped, use liberal quantities of packing material and mark "Fragile." All mail matter must be fully addressed with house number, name of street, post office Box or Rural Route Number. Parcels should be addressed only on one side and if tags are used, both the tag and parcel should be addressed in order that delivery may be made if tag should come off. Postage must be fully prepaid. Full information will be gladly furnished at Stamp or Parcel post window concerning rates.

During the holiday season the volume of mail increases approximately 300 per cent. It is a physical impossibility to handle this great mass of mail efficiently and promptly within a few days. Therefore to assure delivery of Christmas presents, cards and letters by Christmas Day, the public should shop so you can mail your parcels at least a week or ten days before Christmas Day, according to distance.

On Christmas Day there will be no delivery by City Carrier or Rural Carriers and no Window Service. Special Delivery Service may be obtained on Christmas Day by mailing in time and affixing a special delivery stamp on your letters and parcels.

You can help by Buying and Mailing now. Remember to insure or register valuable mail, use Special Delivery Stamps for Speed. The cooperation of the public is earnestly solicited. Let us deliver your mail in good condition and on time.

DR. E. H. SCOTT KIWANIS PRES.

Officers to Be Elected at Meeting Thursday Night. New Board of Directors to be Named.

Officers for 1931 will be named by the Milledgeville Kiwanis club at their meeting tonight, Thursday.

The slate that will be presented for ratification will be Dr. E. H. Scott, president; L. N. Jordan, vice-president; Prof. W. T. Wynn, secretary; D. M. Rogers, treasurer; Dr. Francis Daniels, district trustee.

Rev. F. H. Harding will retire as president after a most successful year in the chair. The club has undertaken many outstanding civic movements and have met with success in seeing them to the finish. Mr. Harding has been active in the club work since coming to this city and his term as the presiding officer has been a successful one.

Dr. Scott, as the new president, will take office in January. During the past few years he has been one of the leaders of the club and has been chosen as the head in recognition of his faithful and efficient service.

The board of directors that will be named are as follows: L. C. Hall, G. H. Tunnell, J. A. Horne, W. T. Wynn, M. W. Stenbridge, George Roach and J. E. Bone.

Second Oldest Newspaper in the South

UNION-RECORDER

"Over 100 Years' Devotion to Public Interest"

R. B. MOORE, Editor
JERE N. MOORE, Business Mgr.

JAYS DEPT. STORE

Full Fashion

HOSE

59c

JAYS DEPT. STORE

If you have a headache and a quarter, come to
HARRIS HALL'S DRUG STORE
We'll Relieve you of Both

HITS OF THE WEEK EVERY THURSDAY

Christmas Problems Solved at

WILLIAMS & RITCHIE

DEAR OLD PAL:

I am not going to forget you Christmas. I am going to buy one of those beautiful gifts at WOOTTEN'S. He has the cutest doodads I have seen any where.

HONEY.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

See our Complete Line of

PRACTICAL GIFTS

COLLEGE DEPT. STORE

Cor. Hancock & Wayne Sts.

HARPER & HARPER

Shoe Shop

We stand for Service and Quality—We call for and Deliver.
Call 215

WILKINSON GROCERY CO.

Formerly M. E. Pennington

Best Sandwiches in Town.

SPECIAL This Week

Ladies Pure Silk Hose, Silk from tip to toe, Full Fashioned, $1.50 value, all the New Shades Blacks and Whites, Special $1.00

If you want the best, shopt at
E. E. BELL

Do Your Banking With
THE MERCHANTS & FARMERS BANK

The Milledgeville Banking Co.

Bank with Milledgeville's only Million Dollar Bank

MILLEDGEVILLE'S OLDEST AND STRONGEST.

Colonial Theatre

MON. - TUES. - WED., Dec. 8-9-10

"Tom Sawyer"

How unbelievably nice it is to witness a clean nice wholesome, natural picture once more. You must see this portrayal of Mark Twain's golden tale starring JACKIE COOGAN, MITZI GREEN, LUCIEN LITTLEFIELD, TULLY MARSHALL, and JUNIOR DURKIN for a few. This picture is recommended with great pleasure.

COMPLIMENTS

of the

Milledgeville Clinic