

Georgia College Knowledge Box

Colonnade Special Collections

4-11-1933

Colonnade April 11, 1933

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

Colonnade, "Colonnade April 11, 1933" (1933). Colonnade. 160. https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/160

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.

Tech Y Singers Present Program

Cabinet, Commission and Council Entertain Visitors at Supper.

The Georgia Tech Y Singers made a depurtation visit to the G. S. C. campus Sunday evening. April 9, and entertained the students at vespers.

Miss Margaret K. Smith, president of the G. S. C. W. Y, welcomed the singers and introducea the chairman of the depuration committee, Bob Johnson, who took charge of the program. Hudson Reynolds, president of the Y singers introduced all the Tech boys to the audience. After the introduction, Mr. Robert Mell, director of the singers and a former Tech graduate, led the boys in several songs. Little Brown Church in the Wildwood" and "Large" from Dvorak's "New World Symphony," were two of these. John McFarland, newly elected Y. M. C. A. president at Tech, gave a talk on his personal relations with Christ.

At the close of the talk, the Y singers rendered several more Two negro spirituals, "Standing in the Need of Prayer" and "The Streets of Glory," the theme song of the Tech Y singers, "I Want My Life to Tell for Jesus," and two religious hymns, "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" and "He Lives On High" ended the program. The full rich harmony of the singers was splendid.

After the deputation program, the G. S. C. W. Y council commission, and cabinet entertained the Y singers at a supper in the

Freshmen Defeat Faculty In Interesting Game

The Faculty-Freshman fight for fun was a whaling success. More than five hundred spectators witnessed the defeat of the faculty after a game fight. Due to the strong guarding done by Dr. Sally, Miss Tabb, Mrs. Ireland, Miss Moye, and Miss Stone, the freshmen were only able to score 29 points, Misses Hunt, Smith, Burch, and Adams, scored 12 points for the faculty.

The game was also a financial success, the gate receipts totaling $26.90, $10. of which is to be applied on the Ina Dillard Russell portrait fund, and the remaining to be spent on equipment for the gymnasium.

HOLY WEEK IS ODSERVED BY EARLY SERVICES

Each morning before treakfast morning watch services are being held on the campus in observance of holy week. Sunday Dr. W. T. Wynn was the speaker; Monday, Miss Rogers; Tuesday, Miss Green; and Wednesday, Miss Burch will talk; Thursday, Dr. Bolton, Friday, Mr. Thaxton; Saturday Miss Miller; and Sunday, Miss Hollie Smith.

TEA WILL HONOR SENIOR CLASS

Gorham Silver Company to Eatertain Students and Exhibit Silverware in Tea Room Wednesday.

The senior class will be honor guests Wednesday afternoon at a tea given by the Gorham Silver Company in the college tea room. To every senior presenting her invitation at this time Mr. Holert, a representative of the company, will give a sterling silver teaspoon. The entire student body and faculty are invited to call from 3 to 6 o'clock. Acting as hostess at this event will be the officers of the senior class, Frances Adams, Marion Keith, Lavonia Newman, Eulaween Raley, Martha Parker and the junior and senior home economics majors, During the afternoon there will be an exhibit of the fine art in sterling by Gorham. Highlights of this display will be Arrentine ware (the original was made in 100 B. C.) the unfinished masterpiece, five thousand dollar tea service, formal and informal dinner tables, aristocratic flatware of period design, Paul Revere reproductions, and processes in making a pitcher.

Faculty Members Attend A. A. U. W. Convention

Miss Winifred Crowell, state publicity chairman, and Miss Lila Lee Riddell, president of the A. A. U. W. in Milledgeville, attended the state convention of the American Association of University Women in Valdosta, April 6 to 9, 1933. They were accompanied by Mrs. John B. Clark, president of the Macon branch of the A. A. U. W..

The 1933 meeting was held at the Georgia State Woman's Coltege. Mrs. John Morris of Atlanta was the principal speaker, Her subject "The College Woman in the 1-resent Economic Crisis, was interestingly and enlighteningly developed. The business sessions included reports from ten branches of the association in Georgia: Athens, Atlanta, Augusta, Bainbridge, Columbus, Maon, Milledgeville, Rome, Savannah, and Valdosta,

The social functions included a luncheon given by G. S. W. C., a tea by the Woman's club, Wymandausis, and after the last business session, a drive for the purpose of explaining the significance of the name, "Valdosta." This state convention is part of the South Atlantic division of the A. A. U. W. The original purpose of the association is to assist in any way in promoting interest in status of college trained women in sociological, eco nomical, and professional activi-

Junior Class Has Easter Egg Hunt

The junior class enjoyed an Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon out at Nesbit Woods. A special committee hid the eggs and the hunters came out about three-thirty. An interesting program was prepared and presented by another committee.

Dr. Robert Roth Gives Lecture On South America

Travelogue in Pictures and Story Is Presented Friday Night.

Dr. Robert E. Roth, world traveler, presented the "Wonderlands of South America" in new artistic travelogue in picture and story Friday evening in the G. S. C. W. auditorium,

In his lecture Dr. Roth pictured to his audience the interesting places in South America and unusual facts about that country and its inhabitants. His lecture was illustrated throughout by colorful photographs which he took himself. These illustrated his entire trip to South America, beginning with the sailing from New York and concluding with the homeward journey. Climbing the Andes to Tuits, houses built on stilts, a fleet of "Balsas" on Lake Titicaca, Buesnos Airesthe Paris of South America, Rio de Janeiro-the city beautiful ant eaters and ants, and in the illustrations shown.

The travelogue was both interesting and educational. Dr. Roth carried his listeners into the countries he discussed by his vivid portrayals of places, customs, and peoples. His descriptions were not an array of dry statistics or theories but alert discussions drawn from a fund of knowledge personally acquir-

Plans Made For Commencement

W. T. Anderson, Editor of Telegraph, and Dr. and Preach.

Dr. J. E. Sammons, president of the Georgia Baptist convention and well known as a Macon minister, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Georgia State College for Women, and W. T. Anderson, editor and publisher of the Macon Telegraph, will deliver the literary address. Announcement to this effect was made by Dr. J. L. Beeson, president of the institution, this week.

The graduating exercises will be held Sunday, June 4, and Monday June 5, with elaborate programs featuring the ceremonies. The work of the college students will constitute quite a display and will be on exhibition all day Monday. It is expected that a large number of visitors from all parts of the state will be here for the occie Leath 120 students receiving degress and 197, normal diplomas.

EASTER PAGEANT TO BE PRESENTED

Class in Auditorium Activities Will Dramatize, Manage, and Stage Presentation of Easter Story.

An original dramatization of the Easter story will be presented in the auditorium at the Vesper hour Easter Sunday evening by the class in auditorium activities under the direction of Miss Ruth Stone and sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

The pageant will consist of six scenes, interspersed with special vocal and violin music by members of the music department and three choruses by the entire freshman class, who are being coached by Miss Tucker. Father McNamara, of the Catholic Church, will serve as reader or the dramatization.

The first scene, "The Passover," will present a tableau of Leonardo de Vinci's "Last Supper," Scene II is "In the Garden of Gethesmane,; Scene III, "Peter's Denial;" Scene IV, "The Cross;" Scene V, "At the Tomb," and Scene VI, "The Great Commission." Some of the principle characters portrayed in the pageant will be the twelve discipies, Mary, the Mother of Carist, Mary Magdalene, and Nicodemus. Among the outstanding choruses will be "Into the Woods land of rubber were some of the My Master Went," "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone," 'Christ the Lord Is Risen."

The story has been dramatized. managed, costumed, and stage. by the students of the auditorum activities course as clas. work. Members of the Short story and Dramatic Groups or the Activity Council will act as usners and stage assistants.

Mrs. Hines Writes Of Freshman Class

LEMON PIE IS PREFERRED DISH-MARY AND SMITH ARE FAVORITE NAMES.

By NELLE WOMACK HINES When the election of officers for the freshman class of the Georgia State College for Women J. E. Sammons to Speak, was over the girls from Fulton and DeKalb Counties surely had omething to write home about When the announcement wa... hade that four of the officers, president; first vice-president, secretary and treasurer came from these two places (two from each) -did the girls from the old home counties raise a merry hurrah? They did.

> having had four and a half months (the first semester) to learn each other, this freshman class went about the election with a determination to select the stulents who had shown those qualities of leadership, poise, character and general "all-roundness" enough to insure them making a success of their jobs.

mvery freshman had a ballot and on that ballot she voted for the girls she thought best fitted to fill those particular jobs--(here being no nominating committee) and the result was as stated above.

The students elected were: There win Exproximately President, Madeline Provano (Fulton), daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Provano, of 42 Twenty-

Georgia Glee Club Appears Here

Burlesque, Skits, Popular and School Songs Included in Program.

An evening of entertainment was provided G. S. C. W. students and visitors by the concert of the University of Georgia Glee Club, which was given in the auditorium Monday evening, April 10. Mr. Hugh Hodson, head of the music department at the University, rendered several piano and organ numbers as a feature of the program.

In addition to its regular chorus work, the Glee Club, which consists of thirty-five voices, presented a burlesque, several other skits and a series of school

Preceding the performance the senior class entertained the mempers of the club at supper in the college tea room.

Members of the club are: John Bond, Claude Broach, Sims Bray, Henry Brooks, Madison Byrd. James Cromer, A. B. Conyers.

G. W. Clarke, James Fleming, Allen Fort, A. L. Giradin, Hugh Green, Marion Gaston, Jack Ray, Julius Rosenberg, Clifford Sheffield, DeNean Stafford, Douglas Hereford, Hutchins Hodgson, Ned Hodgson, Edmund Landeau, Charles Sheldon, William Stewart, Charles Stone, Emmett Mitchell, Jack Morris.

Fraser Moore, Birch O'Neal, Charles Paine, G. B. Thompson, W. A. Wagner, L. A. Whittle, Bryan Williams, and Lustrat Winecoff.

The Savannah Morning News had this comment to make of the club performance in that city: "The chorus work, in college songs and in other numbers, is better balanced, more finished and uniform than ever, and more distinctly musical. There is a total lack of the sometimes raw edge of the amateur organization."

ith Street, Atlanta; first vice president, Mary Eubanks Faver DeKalb), daughter of Mrs. B. I. aver, of 1244 Druid Place, N. .l., Atlanta; secretary, Winifred Jarke Champion (Fulton), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Champlin, of 1439 Peachtree street, N. E., and treasurer, Carolen Hill Ridley (DeKalb), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ridley, of 923 Mead Road, Decatur, The fifth officer, second vice president, is a Baldwin County girl, Ethel Marguerite Ivey, elected by the day students to represent them on the cabinet, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ivey, of Ivey, Ga., near Milledgeville.

"Now tell me all about yourselves?" Where did you finish high school?" the writer asked soon after the election.

"At the Girls' High in Atlanta," came the chorus from four of them, and one added, "you see, we have been knowing each other for years and years."

No Small Honor

To have been selected as officers of this big class was no little honor, and five prettier (Continued on Back Page)

The Colonnade

Published Weekly By Students of The GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN Corner Hancock and Clark Sts.

Milledgeville, Ga

Entered as second-class matter October 50, 1928, at the post office Milledgeville Ga., under the Act of March 3, 1879." SUBSCRIPTION RATE

$1.00 Per Year

EDITORIAL STAFF Editor-In-Chief Dorothy Maddox Managing Editor ..Chudia Keith News Editor Alice Brim Jonibel Stevens Associate Editor

Reporters---Helen Ennis, Frances Holsenbeck, Pauline Reynolds, Virginia Tanner, Mary Louise Dunn, Althea Smith. Wilma Proctor.

Y. W. C. A. Editor "Eulalie McDowell Alumnae Editor "Lavonia Newman BUSINESS STAFF

..Marjorle Enni-Business Manager . Typists-Elizabeth Wakeford. Patty Somerour.

Exchange Editor Louise Mannheim Irene Farran Advertising Manager Katie Israel Advertising Assistant Circulation Manager Circulation Assistants-

Frances Dixon, Grace Paulk, Mildred Parker, Leona Shepherd, Agnes Me-Millan, Martha Phillips, Vivian Yates, Mary Posey.

Dr. Beeson Talks it Over

"From a bald headed Dad to a flapper daughter"-or something of that nature was enacted on last Thursday morning i chapel exercises, when Dr. Beeson engaged in a heart to heart talk with students the three upper classes. In this case, we acknowledge that the speaker was not bald headed, and that the thing he talked about was addressed not to flappers, but to (what we hope) was a thoughtful group of college students.

In short, Dr. Beeson in his brief talk did what your Dad has probably done many way in making a good impression on times when you touched him for "Mon" which he was unable to give you-He talked it over, and explained frankly how things stood as regards the "eterna" dollar." commonly known as "the root of all evil.'

In well chosen words the president outlined to the students the terrific strain unthe college is laboring to weather the storm of low funds and slashed appro-But with a note of hope and for another year he explained his meeting the situation. First. the old dormitories will be lower ed $1 and in the new $2. Second, the tuition fees will be slightly higher, but will cover the costs of two campus publications, the Spectrum and The Colonnade. Students were urged to encourage all prospective entrants to select G.S. C. W., for here (in spite of low funds) they may secure the "hest" in dormitories, faculty, library equip ment, a practice school and, as the student body exclaimed in the midst of the discussion the "best" in the way of a college president.

uniform for the first two classes followed. There will be no brown silk dresses required by thought, these are the things you can probably come next.

of a heavy polo cloth will probably adopted, as well as a new skirt which is be longer and wider than the present type. Samples and models of both are soon to be submitted, and selections will be made by the students pledge of loyalty and cooperation to Dr. Reeson, on behalf of the student body, by the sincere desire of every girl to stand by the president as he struggles against heavy odds, to keep the college on its feet finan-

Enthusiasm

"Nothing great has ever been achieved without enthusiasm."

Little proof is necessary to support thi statement. One needs only to think bac over the outstanding personages and worthy achievements in the past to realize worthwhile accomplishment taken without the alert and active interest of some | States superior to the management practicleader or leaders. The great generals, ex. ed in other fields of governmental activity." plorers, statesmen, inventers, and scientists of the past are all examples of the great made in the improvement of financial propower of an all-absorbing enthusiasm in the grams in the public school systems and the in daily living, in making life mean more, high degree of skill. and in impressing one's personality upor other people. Monotony and enthusiasm do There is no surer method of the maximum amount of enthusiasm into

The "I'm not interested, what does it matter anyway" attitude is probably responsible for more failure, or rather more absence ity and opportunity combined some professor.

White Hyacinths "If I had but two loaves of bread, I would sell one of them and buy White hyacinths to feed my soul."

-Elbert Hubbard What are your white hyacinths?

ist, beauty in any form, to the real mother. pleasure for her children, to the drunkard they are drunk, to the vain they are clothes and jewels, and so on without end for they epresent what you are: they feed your

You would not question the character of The name of this new rose is President man who would do without bread to buy Franklin D. Roosevelt. This new rose is a Last night they slept—and thus ity perhaps, but even then they would have ing the most distinguished name of any respect for his inherent fineness rom being an impressive statement, the esson for us which it teaches is to make from a deep rich claret to a dark velvetry talk. He walked close to the use of the beauty that is so easily ours. You red. This rose has intense fragrance. may never have the opportunity to do without food to buy flowers but that is not the idea. Your opportunity is to find ex A brief announcement of changes in the day something levely and make it your own. assaults on electric development is about

 New uniform coats place every night on the window sill of your be soul and call your white hyacinths

RADIO CLASS

The schools of Rochester, N. Y., recently adopted education by radio, designed in part to meet overcrowded classroom conditions. The meeting was brought to a close by a Twenty-seven Rochester and three suburban schools are linked in the network, which is the outgrowth of an experiment conducted with supervised classes last summer It stated that this plan will relieve th teacher of mass instruction and permit her to center attention on individual pupils in need of help.

SCHOOL MANAGEMENT

N. L. Engelhardt, professor of education Columbia University, in speaking of the efficiency of business management of public their business programs better than private corporations. "It also appears to be true, any he said, "that public school business management is in most cities of the United In pointing out the progress that had been pace they had set superior to business man-Even though aspirations are not of the egement, he cited budgeting, accounting, world-conquering variety, enthusiasm is just auditing, building, planning and the manageas essential for achieving worthwhile goals ment of funds as being performed with a mediocre depression which does

A GOOD NAG

The sixtieth anniversary of the typewriter has brought many tributes to its inventor the late Christopher L. Shoals. He did hinks the New York Times, than did Ibsen "who made Nora walk out of the doll": house and slam the door after her." merica there are seven hundred and seenty-five thousand stenographers and type ists of Nora's gender, for whom the door By way of practical application, a little might never have opened had it not been well-cultivated and carefully exhibited en- for Mr Sholes' ingenuity. But its consequences do not end there. Grub Street and even the rarer walks of the Republic of le ters have been liberated from much toil. tynewrite is no Pegasus, but what a nag for covering ground! And from what a deal of deadly sin it spares the proof room! if not more often. Let's take When steel pens were supplanting quills a hundred years ago, James Russell lamented the effect on literature. One can not say that the typewriter has improved To the student they are books, to the art- style, but it has redeemed crabbed chirography.-The Atlanta Journal.

THE ROOSEVELT ROSE

tral Palace, New York where the Interna- On the campus—girls with gladtional Flower show is being held.

Some would question his san- new Hybrid Tea (ever-blooming) and bear-

The petals of the Roosevelt rose shade

A few years ago the folks hammered rail-A poem, a picture, a friendly smile, a kind- bear fruit. The telephone enterprise will

Campus Crusts

The juniors are getting down n the world when they start poking their knowing noses amongst the herbery of Government Square Park in search of hen fruit and other forms of nourishment in the shape of hen fruit. Looks are deceiving Ask she is going in for plastic surgery when she inherits the Gottrock millions. We hope it won't be a case of going, going, gone when she ambitionates to have her olfactory ability limited. Tsk. tsk. 'Magine being out of possession of such an importand individual go in for snoopery rather than plastic surgery.

To think that a perfec'ly good baseball game should go to waste all on account of a perfec'ly not permit that we attend baseball games 'n' exciting recountations of how they do it in South America all in the same day. Le's write the Senators individually since they ain't in a body

All of which goes to remind us that Mr. Roth is certainly a capable and knows-all relater methinks I shall be a lion 'n' copard seeker when there is a call for more an' better amoeba in the jungles. All recruits stand by for further notice.

The faculty-freshman basketball game will go down in the history of G. S. C. W. sports as remarkable display of sportsmanship. Methinks it isn't every raculty that would respond to such a challenge in the manner in which ours did Rumor and evidence asserts that there was many an ache present among the members of the faculty. Tsk. tsk. Moral: The faculty should play basketball at least twice a week a vote on it.

THE CAMPUS SPRING SONG

Last night the sky sagged, wrinkled, old: Not a sullen, sad star twinkledweary world so aged. But this morn with April youth is sprinkled.

The sky is shimmering blue-gold

Sparkle gaily in youth's rich-heaven's sadness Elizabeth T. Smith

He had purchased a parrot which was rather a young bird and was trying to teach it to cage and said in a loud, clear voice. "Hello! Hello! Hello there! Hello!"

He yelled until tired, the parrot paying attention to him. But when the man stopped for breath, the parrot opened one eye and said. "Line's busy."

--Wheaton News.

G. S. C. W. FOR THE ALUMNAE

THE ALUMNAE FOR G. S. C. W.

Through the Week With the

The efforts and thoughts the girls selected for class debaters are concentrated on day of April 26, when the interclass debate will be held

As you already know, the subject of the debate is "Socialism vs. Capitalism." A more pertinent subject would be hard to All the ills, benefits and compromises of the present day can be pointed out as an outgrowth of one or the other.

anything but life in a so-called democracy, it is difficult to visualize life under a socialistic regime. Yet no daily newspaper is complete without a report of some activity of socialism in any number of countries. Although Germany and Russia do not constitute a real socialistic form of government they are not so far distant from it that they cannot be included in the category for the sake of comparhas not so deeply penetrated in return to G. S. C. W. soon. to the activities of our country as to bring forth the comment which it has in other countries; but capitalism is having its day On every hand we hear distant (and it seems the longer we live the nearer they come) cries uated from G. S. C. W. last year against the pooling of the wealth visited on the campus Sunday. of the nation within one small select group. The depression ravages of Capitalism. Yet, it seems the more probes into the subject the more. not seem to reconcile ourselves tha Tigner Sunday to the thought of eventually living in a state of virtual serfdom, trend today; no more can we reconcile ourselves to the idea of living in a state of it equally. such as the ideals of socialism

This question is probably the the illness of her mother. most moot question of the present time. No adequate remedy as yet seems forth coming, yet, every individual has his cure-all for the entire situation.

The debaters are not planning why. to settle the question in one grand sweep on the night of the the past 23 They want to present to you, new paths for thought, a new worth. avenue opened for better understanding, and most of all an example of free-thinking.

At the University of Washington, unattractive co-eds may rent frat pins for a very reasonable in her field through the professum by the courtesy of the "Fe- sional magazines. male Aid Society."

Panama hats are made not in! growing one. Panama, but in Santa Elena. Knows when to talk and when Ecuador.

—The Carolinian

Great Danes come from German of this loathsome disease Schleswig. Jerusalem Artichokes originated in America,

Miss Mable Rogers was a gues for dinner at the practice home Sunday.

PERSONALS

Miss Gladys Kimbrough wh has been giving canning demonstrations in the household science department was a dinner guest at the practice home March 30.

Mr. Arthur Maddox of Griffin, Ga., and Mr. G. L. Maddox of McComb, Miss, were the guests of Dorothy Maddox re

We are glad to welcome Miss early part of November.

Miss Lucy Herne, a former student of G. S. C. W., visited on the campus last Sunday.

Miss Josephine Peacock is Macon with her mother who was seriously injured in a wreck near Milledgeville last week guest of her sister. Miss Thelma lessness, is chairman of the ex-Williams, recently.

is convalescing at Griffin, will New York branch organizer Mrs Thomas Pollard is the guest of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pollard, this week

Miss Claire Johnson, who grad-of Miss Martha Lowe recently.

The efficient teacher: Knows what she teaches and Knows what her services are

Knows how to recreate. Knows children. associates and executives.

sional library and possesses a Suppressed to serve as to keep silent Siamese cats come from Bur- And finally, she knows how Mortals driftwood too.

damaging is the gangrene of Drifting towards Life's river Angora cats come from Persia, gossip and avoids being a carrier . --Geo, Harris Webber

Graduates who can't find jobs, who emerge from academic groves to sleep in Bowery flops, who find a sheepskin in these depression times of less value than two good hands, are getting tired of their condition.

They've formed an organization They're going to try to influence social legislation, to win indus- When he thinks of a poet trialists over to a program of Gets a mental view planned industry, to gain unemployment insurance, to force the government to provide work, rather than charity.

This ambitious idea started in New York a few months ago | "The average person forgets with a handful of young college That King David had enough Dear Miss Mix-up, graduates would-be doctors, lawyers, engineers. They all had diplomas, but nothing else, so they met and formed the Asso- That Lord Byron's wife ciation of Unemployed College Said he played too rough

Miss Vivian Williams was the last May into a world of job-

Miss Emma Jean Kurl was the

Miss Beulah Meeks has gon. to her home in Ocilla, Georgia, this week end on account of

THE EFFICIENT TEACHER

Knows the great teachers of Knows how to give full value.

Knows how to co-operate with Bare feet upon the frozen ground. Knows the best current thought To seek driftwood on the river The PhD's still lagged behind;

Knows how to use a profes- No longer beaten by the waves

A full purse never

Jobless College Graduates Organize to Find Work

a blackhaired, earnest, fierytalking youth who was one of the editors of the Student Outlook, and who walked out of Columbia with his Master's Degree ecutive committee. Dorothy Shoemaker, a Swarthmore B. A. of Miss Martha Anne Moore, who the market crash year, is the "John Dewey sponsors our idea." Miss Shoemaker said. "and Morris Cohen and Reinhold Niebuhr. Norman Thomas and a score of other liberal thinkers. We now have about twenty branches all over the United States, chapters at Harvard, and other colleges-a few hundred members altogether. Our goal Miss Ruth Walker and Miss is 10,000 members. When we have has traced its conception among Bess Duncan, students at G. S. that many organized, articulate. other less fatal causes. to the T. C. in Athens, were the guests we can torce action. "We've written to eleven millionaires who give liberally to colleges. We've put it right up Mr. J. H. Tigner was the one becomes involved We can guest of his daughter, Miss Mar to them: You helped us win our education; now what are you! ong to do abour us? Let us starve, join the breadlines? There as a result of the capitalistic guest of Miss Margaret Edwards are 7,000 jobless engineers in New York alone, hundreds trained librarians, thousands or doctors, lawyers, architects. We never even had a chance; never could get a start at our professions: just dumped upon the

> for our training." "When we get every college man or woman in the country into our band, watch our smoke."

DRIFTWOGD

Down towards the river bank They walked, their faces seared By years of toil, Holding hands, calloused by the

Down towards the river bank

Perhaps a remnant of a ship Firewood for the poor, who try to be their age.

Always towards the river bank dark--To board the Death canoe.

-Gwen Dale

Idle folks have the least lei-Life must be a bore to those

Our Exchange Column

As their pages o'er we turn,

Letters that we ought to burn. -Vancouver Province

POETS

Of a cockeved sissy Holding a bunch of violets And lisping.

To steal another man's wife: very steep! MOST important dates for the went home to papa;

That Shelley believed in free On card games and barmaids:

That Poe spent about as much

In the gutter as he spent at his troubled weak ends. -The Cadet

FRESHMAN COLUMN POST MORTEMS By Carolyn Ansley

desk."

Out in the dust that covered me. Red as the soil from court to over the country. bleachers. thanked whatever gods may be hope some day to "tie the Knot."

In the fell clutch of circumstance They did not wince, nor cry

Save one time when "Rosie" pranced And mumbled something low but proud. In one shoe low one shoe high, O' Kelly bounced her ball away

Class" swav. world, trained, but with no call One fourth past gone, yes my

> The keeper says it is a half: So out comes White with pails of water daughter.

Twenty to four would never do: Favoring us caused them to over with my sweetheart, but he could make no suggestions. What blush. So, thinking quick, they reenter- must I do?

ed---who? That one to keep a Tabb on us. Brave attempts, but all in vain.

Then Roberts scored until our Made twelve look bad by 29.

t matters not how much they be just as engaging as possible. How charged with errors very ers for the rings.

They are our masters and our They have a part in all our marks.

Lives of great men all remind us That we're apt to leave behind

"The average person in a quandary, and the sides are same week end in April, and I donnowhattaodo! Advise me about my troubled week ends. Miss Mix-up-and I'll help you sometime! That Coleridge wielded a strong

Dear Little Cutey Pie. I always advise BC headache powders or Bayers aspirin for Curingly thine,

Waitingly yours,

Cutie Pie

What-to-do! What-to-do! I'm

It seems that I have three

Lotta Mix-un Dear Miss Mix-up, I'm a darling brunette and in love with a dark strong goodlooking man who we will call Athletic Urge, because he has gotten bowlegged from long hikes

We are very much in love, and or our most conquerable teach- BUT, Miss Lotta, my problem is this—can such perfect love last?

Ever thine.

Baby Face Dear Baby Face.

Yours is a hard problem to answer As you know, one never can tell about love these days. But let me advise you that you have him in a trance, be careful to do nothing to anger him as it might crush his heart, causing it to be wrapped in cellaphane to To Cassells, who tipped to the be fresh for the next victim. This above all-keep him gues-And shot a goal with "First sing At least now—for it's only ten weeks till summer!

> Never Yours. Lotta

Dear Lotta, My room-mate and I have been chums for years and have had nothing to come between Sporting just to make us laugh, us., But now she is engaged and I am not. This makes me very jealous. I talked the matter

> Engagingly yours, Ikey

My dear Ikey, fhis has long been a problem between room-mates and friends. Kick the man you have now. He really could have been quite helpful It is good that you found out in time. I advise that you

Helplessly yours,

Lotta

It is a great ability to be able to conceal one's ability.

and soon you will not have fing-

Our life, like the toad's is a hop and a stop.

(Continued from Front Page) girls than these it would be hard to find,

Some interesting facts about this freshman class have come to light, and perhaps the most outstanding would be that it is made up of 452 members. The writer does not know for sure, but in inclined to think it is the largest iroshman class in the state. In the membership there are students from 113 countries out of the 159 which make up Georgia, with Fulton leading a to number enrolled Baldwin excepted, while Muscogee 10llow. as second and washington a thard. The Georgia girls are here from "Alabama Gap to ity bee Lagats," and they have come "our of the hits or tapershall though the tight of Hall." They are here from tafar northwest of Walker all. Charlocan, to the low corne. where Early and Decader Re, and the "marranes or Glynn" have colla their chare, it is truly an mspiring sight to glimple this bicause in a body.

Our sister states of Alabama. South Carolina and Florida have sent some one to swell the name ber, three from each or the firs. two seases, and one from the last while far-off Oklahoma Claim one. Of the 452, 54 and one hall per cent are from the high schools accredited by the South ern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

It was fun finding out what names were most popular in the class, and true to form, the inth won out as heading the ant for surnames, vame Mary ran way ahead as the given one. be when we found that there was a mary Smith (only she divides to with an E. in the middle), our hold their own. Next to Mary (with thirty) came Sara Martha with fifteen each; next chine margaret with rourteen, and Ruth with twelve. There is one Pearl, two Rubies and a Jewell, an iris, a Rose, but no Daisy or Violet,

Miss Dunn, of Fitzgerald (Ben Hill), leads with the shortest name, only seven letters, while the longest belongs to Henrietta margraves, of Waycross (Ware) with nineteen. As for the most unusual name, we might give the cake to Connydent Strout, of Edithita, while Frances X. Profumo, of Columbus, could bring up the procession as the unknown quantity.

Every letter in the alphabet in represented except Q and M. A. though Smith led, there are but three Jones, two Greens, one provn and no White or Black There are three Fountains, one Star and a Swan, while unusual names were quite a few, Louis them over and take your pick: Cilla, Wynelle, Whiona, Rumette, Norene, Verta, Mayodell, Maita, Isla and Zena, When you come to put a few together you get this: Vilda Shuman (Coolidge-Thomas County) is next in line on the list to Wilda Slappy (Albany-Loughtery County).

we could give a few dots to Liohywood as to selection of names for movie stars, for listen to these: Little Dove (Chamblee-DeKalb) Jeanno Wythe (Tate rickens), and Mary Love (Adgusta-Richmond).

"Did you know," asked one bright freshman, "that there are eight sets of sisters in our class? And that's not all-listen-ther. are twenty-four freshmen who have sisters here in the upper classes," And another freehman brought me this story. "Many years ago, when the old Mansion, where President Beeson now lives,

Georgia Glee Club Orchestra

Above is a picture of the University of Georgia jazz orchestra. These music-makers were in Milledgeville Monday right, April 10, and took part on the program that the Georgia Glee Club rendered at the G. S. C. W. auditorium. Other features of the entertainment included chorus singing, vecal, piano, and violin solos, a burlesque, skits, and dances by one of the Georgia co-eds.

was a dormitory for the Military can graduate ten daughters? College in the 1880's, there came to school a handsome young man and roomed in a certain room. When the Mansion was given over to G. N. I. C. (as G. S. C. W. delight was great, and she hails used to be called) there came a arona Monticeno, Jasper County. pretty young girl and she room-The Biblical names (as usual) ed in that same room, Later, these two met—and married, Thi past fall, Rachel Smith, a freshman, of Lionticello, came here to chool, and she roomed in that mine room, and it was her aunt that had married that nice young man-now that's romance, isn't it?" And I agreed,

> "Can you imagine ten sisters out of the same family, all graduating at the same school?" was another question that was popped at me. "Well, you listen to this--come on Virginia, you tell her." So I learned from Virginia McLiichael (who is here this year, also her sister Ellizabech, both freshmen; that her miles, Lectice, imished here in 1932; Lois, in 1923; Marion, ic. 1925, and Ruth in 1927. Ther: comes a break, because Warre just refused to be a gard, and they coulan't send ham notobut this year along comes madebem and virgina, and may beth say "we have three more httle; anters at home just waiting to get big enough to come along, Sara Frances, Helen and Gwendoly, and that will make ten," Can you beat it? The McMichaels hall from Jackson (Butts), and are daughters of J. E. McMichael. Isn't your hat off to a man who

PLAYING CARDS From 25c up at R. H. Wootten

REED'S DEPT. STORE

Come in and see our new line --Of---EASTER DRESSES & SHOES Lemon Pie Preferred

Erantley County was named for the great-grandfather Cynthia and Natalie Purdom, of Blackshear (Pierce); and there are four relatives of George Walton, one of the signers of the a short finish, when the writer Declaration of Independence, Ruth and Clara Hollinshead, of Laldwin County, Martha Walton, of Lumpkin (Stewart), and Nellie Burdin, of Buena Vista (Marion), Caroline Hill Ridley, of Decatur, is the great-granddaug. ter of Benjamin Harvey Hill.

Believe it or not, we also have a relative of Pocahontas, and sho lives right here in Milledgeville. Olive Jordan, daughter of Mr.

In Spring you "trip" the light fantasy. To insure "tripping," save those soles-

Harrington's

MILLER'S 5c to $1.00 Store

SHEER CHIFFON HOSE Full Fashioned-49c pair 3 pair for $1.00

Imperial Hotel Peachtree at Ivy Street ATLANTA, GA.

Atlanta's Friendly Hotel

Rates from $1.50 - Dining Room Carage Owned and Operated By Emory University

> Robert Carpenter, Manager

and Mrs. E. V. Jordan, Minnie Ann Irwin, of Sandersville (Washington), is the ricce of Governor Jared Irwin, and Weldon Seals, of Waycross (Ware), is a descendant of Elijah Clarke.

And to bring a long story to

For bigger and better hamburgers and other sandwiches. BILL APPRECIATES YOUR PATRONAGE Free Cream to Jewel Spears

Compliments Of

Piggly Wiggly

HARPER & HARPER Best place in town for Repairing Shoes

FARMER'S MARKET (Across From Campus)

For best foods to eat & Prettiest Flowers See Us had a ten-minute "interview" (after chapel one day) with the entire freshman class, she learned (by vote) that lemon pie was the "favorite food" of that body, 452 strong, but that cocoanut and chocolate ran lemon a close second. There are but fifteen "redheads"—as against fifty in the freshman class of 1924 (for the writer counted them then: and I ask you, readers, does that prove anything-does it not?

SNOW'S

It's Spring Time, so Spring Up and Clean Up.

Free Cleaning-Ida E. Green

COLONIAL

Sat. & Mon. April 15-17

Rasputin & Empress

BUSSES

EVERYWHERE

When going, Travel by Bus. Phone 351 for Information

HAYES

SPECIAL Honey & Armond Lotion 5c

Odorless Dry Cleaners

THREE DRESSES $1.00

Chandler's

Full Fashioned Hose

3 pairs99e

JOIN THE EASTER PARADE

Let us help you balance your budget. Your dollars will do almost double duty.

New arrival of Co-ed dresses $10 value, Special price $6.75.

> If you want the best, shop at E. E. BELL'S

PHONE 202

GET IT AT HARRIS HALL'S

PHONE 202