

3-30-1935

Colonnade March 30, 1935

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: <https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

Colonnade, "Colonnade March 30, 1935" (1935). Colonnade. 193.
<https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/193>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.

The Colonnade

VOL. X

GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, MILLEDGEVILLE, GA., MARCH 30, 1935.

NUMBER 18.

Commencement Plans Are Announced

Winter Quarter Dean's List Includes 154 Students

JUNIORS PLACE FIRST IN CLASS SCHOLARSHIP

Dean Hoy Taylor announced the dean's list for the winter quarter on Monday. There were 154 students making the honor roll during the past term as compared with 193 for the fall term. The juniors led the list with forty-five from that class making the high average; the seniors, freshmen, and sophomores ranked almost together in the number of students making the necessary 85 average for dean's honors, having thirty-eight, thirty-seven, and thirty-four students, respectively, on the list.

The dean's list includes: seniors, Anne Lee Arnett, Dorothy Brewton, Mildred Brinson, Helen Burns, Josephine Calhoun, Viola Carruth, Susan D. Colquitt, Pauline Derrick, Inez Dolvin, Helen Doster, Mary Louise Dunn, Louise Durham, Celia Freeman, Vonnelle Garrison, Mary Goldstein, Nina Mae Hansen, Evans Harrell, Bartha Barr Hopkins, Katie Israels, Elizabeth Jamison, Rosalind Leaptrott, Beatrice McCarthy, Mrs. Bessie McGrew, Elizabeth Maness, Doris Nichols, Virginia Oliver, Helen Paschal, Marie Pinkerton, Mary Frances Sawyer, Wilda Slappy, Elizabeth T. Smith, Mary Agnes Stapleton, Marjorie Sykes, Dorothy Thomas, Dorothy Turner, Ruth Vinson, Mary Jim Williams, Linda Ewing.

(Continued on page 3)

MISS JANE CASSELS
State Y Vice-President

Cassels Elected State Y Officer At Conference

Jane Cassels, Americus, Ga., was elected vice president of the state Y. M. C. A. for the coming year at the conference held on the Wesleyan campus March 22-24.

As representative of the Y. W. C. A. organization of the Georgia State College for Women, Miss Cassels made a very favorable impression in the conference. Her duties in this new office will include the initiating and planning of Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. programs and projects

(Continued on page 4)

WELTNER QUILTS AS CHANCELLOR OF UNIVERSITY

Chancellor Philip Weltner, of the University System of Georgia, announced Tuesday that he had submitted his resignation to the board of regents, to become effective June 30.

Mr. Weltner, who gave up his law practice two years ago when he was appointed chancellor, gave as the reason for resigning the fact that he was tired and needed a rest. His resignation was addressed to the members of the board of regents, who appointed him chancellor. Governor Talmadge Tuesday declined to comment on Mr. Weltner's decision.

Mr. Marion Smith, chairman of the board of regents, who found the letter of resignation on his desk Tuesday morning, said that he hoped Chancellor Weltner could be prevailed upon to change his mind. A meeting of the board of regents will be held next month to reject or accept Mr. Weltner's resignation.

"The loss of Chancellor Weltner would be a calamity to the University system," Mr. Smith said. "I still hope we can induce him to withdraw his resignation."

"He has been serving at a great sacrifice to himself, but has continued as chancellor because of his deep interest in the University system."

Chancellor Weltner, long a prominent figure in social work and in educational activities in Georgia, was in a large measure responsible for the organization of the board of regents to help incorporate the state schools in Georgia.

At one time, without committing any offense, he voluntarily served for a few days on a chain gang to get an idea of the opportunities of prisoners to mend their ways in prison and get off to a good start after completing their sentences. After his study, he said such opportunities were "pretty slim."

Weltner said there was no political significance in connection with his resignation.

"The University system is in excellent condition," Mr. Weltner said Tuesday. "But, of course, there are several things we need badly."

"One of the things of course that I regard is the inability of the state of Georgia to adequately support the system. I would like very much indeed to be in a position where matriculation and other fees could be lowered, making it possible for many more young people to take advantage of an education."

New buildings are very sadly needed. The state hasn't done much in supplying adequate plants for the university system. A million dollars will go a long way toward meeting the need."

Myra Jenkins, who was elected second vice-president of the Y, will be the adviser of sophomore com-

(Continued on page 3)

Mikell and Sutton to Speak On Commencement Program

MISS BILLIE HOWINGTON
Senior Class President

Georgia Glee Club To Give Program Wednesday Night

The Glee club of the University of Georgia which is scheduled to be here on Wednesday night, April 3, marks the first appearance of the college glee clubs on the campus this year. The Georgia boys are on their annual tour, and as is their custom will present their opening performance at G. S. C. W.

The group which is made up of about thirty-five boys will be accompanied by High Hodgson, their

(Continued on page 4)

PLANS FOR 1935 SENIOR CLASS MADE PUBLIC

The Right Reverend H. J. Mikell, D. D., L. L. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta of the Episcopal church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the 1935 graduating class on Sunday, June 9, at 11:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made by Dr. Guy H. Wells.

The Honorable Willis Sutton, superintendent of the Atlanta public schools, will deliver the address to the seniors at the graduating exercises which will be held on Monday morning, June 10. The exercises will begin at 10 o'clock, and Dr. Sutton's talk will precede the delivery of diplomas and conferring of the degrees.

Bishop Mikell is well known throughout the South as one of the most outstanding church leaders. He will also speak at the Episcopal church of Milledgeville on April 7.

Dr. Sutton is recognized as one of the South's leading educators. He has served as president of the National Education Association, and has held a number of responsible positions in the educational field. His appearance on the 1935 commencement program marks his second appearance at G. S. C. W. this year. He addressed the faculty

(Continued on page 3)

Joan Butler Elected Head Of Soph' Class for Next Year

Roane Is Re-elected As Student Council Representative

The sophomore class of 1935-1936 elected the following officers: Joan Butler, president; Frances Roane, representative to student council; Mary Nell Brisco, vice president; Eolyne Greene, secretary; Elizabeth Smith, treasurer. Joan Butler, the president-elect, was a member of freshman council during the past year, a member of the advertising staff of the Colonnade, and took the male lead in the French club play. She was a winner in a number of writing contests sponsored by the Corinthian.

Frances Roane was freshman representative to student council this year, a member of freshman council, a member of the Colonnade staff, and active in the Recreation association activities. She was also elected treasurer of the Recreation association for next year and sec-

(Continued on page 3)

Soph Commission Is Chosen; Jenkins To Be Advisor

The election of the eighteen members of sophomore commission to serve as sub-chairman of the committees of the Y was held at the same time as the class elections of the sophomore officers. In addition to the eighteen selected at the election, Joan Butler, as president of the sophomore class of next year will serve on commission ex officio.

The eighteen commissioners are: Margaret Fowler, Margaret Garbutt, Tommy Cooke, Elizabeth Hulsey, Dorris Lamb, Anna Lee Gasque, Sara McDowell, Mary Pritchett, Te-Coah Harner, Mary Langford, Charlotte Edwards, Bonnie Burge, Elizabeth Smith, Martha Embry, Lavert Weems, Aline Barron, Emmie Jones, and Charlie Jo Kimbrough.

Myra Jenkins, who was elected second vice-president of the Y, will be the adviser of sophomore com-

(Continued on page 3)

Seniors, Juniors Re-elect Old Presidents for 1935-36

Ridley Chosen As The Class Head For The Third Term

For the third time in as many years Caroline Ridley has been elected president of her class. She will enter her third term next fall as president of the senior class. Other officers chosen for the seniors for next year are Georgellen Walk-re, representative to student council; Josephine Fortson, vice-president; Weldon Seals, secretary; Mabelle Swan, treasurer.

Miss Ridley has served most efficiently in her office as president, as was testified by the overwhelming majority vote cast by her class mates. During her freshman year she was treasurer of her class. Since entering G. S. C. W. she has been a member of freshman council, sophomore commission, and a Y. W. C. A. executive. In the recent student government election she was chosen secretary of the student council, but was forced to resign from that of-

(Continued on page 4)

Mallory Will Also En- ter Third Year As Class President

Catherine Mallory was elected president of the junior class for 1935-1936 at the class election held on March 16. Other officers who will serve with her are Sara Ruth Allmond, representative to student council; Juliette Burrus, vice-president; Dorothy Meadors, secretary; Myra Jenkins, treasurer.

The election of the presidents of both the junior and senior classes for next year was unique in that both the leaders for the two classes will begin their third year as president of the two upper classes. Miss Mallory served as vice-president of her freshman class for a time, and then was chosen president later in the year. She has been a member of freshman council, sophomore commission, and president of the Jesters for two terms of office. She has been extremely instrumental in

(Continued on page 4)

The Colonnade

Published Weekly By Students of The GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
Milledgeville, Ga.

Corner Hancock and Clark Sts.

"Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1928, at the post office, Milledgeville, Ga., under the Act of March 3, 1879."

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor-in-Chief Betty Reed Associate Editor Evelyn Aubry
News Editors Doris Adamson, Marjorie Shuman, Sara K. Vann Feature Editor Grace Greene
"Y" Editor Jane Cassels
Club Editor Francys Cowan
Reporters:

Anna Della Brown, Elizabeth Henry,
Adelaide Jackson, Mildred Parker, Odene Peavy, Winnie Shepherd, Marjorie Smith, Sara Spier, Grace Collar, Ruth Gaston.

BUSINESS STAFF

Business Manager Anne Arnett
Advertising Editor Martha Wyatt Exchange Editor Mary Louise Dunn
Advertising Assistants Joan Butler,
Sue Thomason
Avlona Athon

Weltner Needed As University Head

The resignation of Philip Weltner as Chancellor of the University system of Georgia was indeed a shock to his many friends and admirers throughout the state. He has done much more than can be recounted for the state schools, and his absence will be felt in many ways.

Chancellor Weltner is a thinker. He was always thinking of ways and means that would benefit the students in Georgia. In this matter, at times, he was too hopeful and was unable to get others to see as far as he had seen into the future. When he was in college he was always several ahead of his fellow students in his ideals and thoughts.

Perhaps he is too idealistic for this very practical, modern machine age. He has not always been able to make the other educators of the state see as he has seen the things that would certainly benefit the youth of the state.
At all times Chancellor Weltner has been a friend to youth. He has been patient, and true and has solved many problems in the educational system of the state.

The students of the state will feel the lack of his guiding hand in the state schools. He has always been so intensely interested in helping youth, that at one time he voluntarily went to prison, donned the stripes of the prisoner, and went to work in order to see if something could not be done for the youngsters who had made a mistake. He wanted to see if they would have a chance when they were released.

The chancellor passionately loved his state, and has done at all times everything he could do for its progress. He has worked unceasingly to try to give Georgia a high place in the educational ranking. He wanted to see the level of intelligence raised to a higher plane, as was evidenced by his interest in social sciences.

Mr. Weltner has proved to be a friend to everyone, and is worthy of trust. He is universally loved and respected by teachers and students alike. Even those people who do not agree with his high ideals for the youth of the state and think they are impractical, can not help but admire and respect him.

A dreamer, a thinker, a worker, a true friend—that is Chancellor Weltner. We cannot afford to lose his guiding hand in the education of the youth of Georgia.

The students and faculty of the Georgia

State college would like Mr. Weltner to reconsider his resignation. He says that he needs a rest. Most assuredly he does. But why can't he take a good, long, refreshing vacation and come back to his rightful position as Chancellor of the University system of Georgia? We need him.

Treat 'em Rough!

College presidents have been called the autocrats of the campus. Yet against their frequently expressed desire for reform in college policies are merged all the entrenched inertia of organized college tradition, the so-called vested rights of student and alumni bodies, of fraternities and athletic councils, and of all the other purple cows of the campus. These conflicting points of view have found frequent and generous expression in the columns of the collegiate press, never more so than at present. The ferment of the world at large finds eager outlet in the college mind, deprived as it is of a decent optimism in the face of its own future. Who can wonder that it is turbulent?

The fundamentals of the situation are still the same, both sides of the campus fence unchanged by depression or repression or conflict of opinion: the same benevolent God above, the same potential abundance here below. The only change registered to date is that in human thinking, whereby fear of want tends to make cowards of us all and every man an alien to his neighbor's desires.

When a person or a community gets the jitters and can't forget 'em, talk of anything or think of anything but its own wrongs and bugaboos and nightmares, the doctors call it chronic hysteria; and one wise old fellow at least says that the only prescription for such a case is
"Treat 'em rough; if you begin early enough you can cure 'em." Perhaps that is the solution.
The trouble may be that college executives did not begin early enough and have not been
"rough" enough in their trimming-down process.
And if so, what?

We have an abiding respect for the uninhabited output of the undergraduate mind, particularly when it has a healthy grouch, and we take the liberty of adding to the suggestions offered in the preceding assembly of opinion some which have come to our desk from the student press, in regard to changes in college life. Many of these suggestions have already made their dent on college programs, others are under consideration here and there; the near future may embrace them all as realities. They are as follows; and so, please you, they might all be in quotation marks.

1. Cut out ruthlessly the loafers from among both students and faculty, even though some of them are sons of high-priced alumni.
2. Cut out antiquated and nonsocial courses.
Make them all show results in the broadening of altruistic knowledge, and not alone, as so frequently at present, in merely personal satisfactions.
3. Institute courses which shall function in a working knowledge of America as it is, or is to be, under Roosevelt,—if anybody can be found competent to teach such courses. If not, do it anyhow; it will educate the faculty.
4. Do away with the execrable injustices of outgrown marking systems and their regimentation of mediocrity.
5. Trim the fraternities of their follies and see that they contribute to the sanity of the campus or go out of business.
6. Abolish Hell Week and all its slanderous publicity, even if you cut it with an ax.
7. Build buildings that look more like workshops and less like cathedrals, and put the money saved into faculty salaries. Cut out the monumental piles. The place for such is the semetary.
8. Pay the faculty "big shots" what they are worth. Keep them on the campus at any cost, even if you have to lop off a few tag-enders or other frills.

9. Trim down on non-productive research, by non-productive meaning 'without social value;
and then emphasize teaching ability.
10. Take the Ph. D. degree off its pedestal.
The lure of pure intellectualism is gone, and the college may as well accept the fact.
11. Give academic freedom to students who deserve it. Take it away when they fail to do so.
12. Abolish old-fashioned compulsory chapel.
Substitute peppy all-college assemblies with a dash, but only a dash, of the inspirational or spiritual. (Have some practical talks).
13. Abolish required military training.
What a college!—Exchange.

"By Their Marks Ye Shall Know Them—"

Six months of the school year have passed;
three more months yet remain; to a great many students the most important three months of all. This period will see the rise or the fall of probably a hundred aspirants for diplomas and degrees. A good many other students will undoubtedly meet their Waterloo in the next three months.

Two quarters of this school term have passed and we are entering the third; and still some students have made no move toward studying or getting anything out of their college careers.
Surprisingly, those students are not members of the freshman class, in the main; upper class students, having become satisfied with their status, are taking life easy. But great will be the jolt thereof when they wake up one of these days.

We have no sympathy for the loafer. But we do offer him some advice. To those who haven't cracked book one since they have been in school this year: the average mind can absorb enough knowledge in three months to pass any examination given in any of the colleges. This can be done in many instances only by dogged and undivided application to studies.

Of course, grades are not the prime factor in a college career. But "by their marks ye shall know them," and it can't be denied that marks mean something.

Check on the time you spend in pleasure;
you can nearly always find that it is far in excess of the time spent in studying. Cut down on the play activities for the rest of the year.
What is three months compared to a lifetime?
It will not be such a sacrifice, and you will find in the end that you are more than rewarded for your trouble. Get something really worthwhile during the spring term.

Criticism

There is not a person on our campus who does not have some duty. It may be upholding the scholastic record, it may be labor, or cooperation with the administration in the things that it is trying to do.

Duty is carrying on promptly, faithfully, and without being pessimistic, the tasks now before us. It is to fulfill the claims of today so the claims of tomorrow will be "cleaner and easier."

Do we feel it our duty, when we criticize unjustly and without reason the readjustments made in our school curriculum? After thinking of the change from all angles and from the standpoint of the good for the group, is there much left to criticize that is wrong in our present system where it is in our power to change it? Yet, we have some who criticize just for the sake of criticizing: "Be sure you are right and then go ahead."

Before criticizing, consider the rights of others, the grace and beauty of yourself and the school.

Ima GOSSIP

Oh, dear, oh dear, or dear! Ima Gossip ain't what she used to be.
Since the holidays she's been rundown—literally—by ye olde Colon-nade editors, and she's still dodging.
No offense meant, Ima. We'll have to hand it to you, you can run awfully fast.

But everybody seems to be keeping their mouths shut so tight since they've been back, and we just don't know a darn' thing. It's a terrible life, this chasing up dirt.
And everybody gives you glassy stares when they see you coming—if they don't see you first and get completely out of the way.

You just don't know—you haven't experienced the feeling when you find out something on somebody—particularly when it's about a teacher!

Who would ever have thought that Miss Health Teacher Smith was modest? Modest to the point of being non-plussed, and turning fiery-red (I mean she sounded like she was blushing when we were talking over the phone!) When she was asked the question, "Do you have a cut of yourself?" And guess what she answered? "Oh, dear, I don't have one! Only notorious people have those!" And do you know? She really sounded a bit wistful that she didn't have one!
Maybe we'd better look into this.

Dr. Willie T. (Volleyball Player)
Wynn is more versatile than we'd ever dreamed. He can cook like nobody's business! Or so he says.
And he also says that he can cook, eat, and put up the breakfast things in less than twenty minutes. But—he's the only one to who will vouch for it.

Our own French Teacher Sidney LaMont McKee has the cutest ways of telling little sisters from big sisters. Ask the sisters Carruth, but the funny part of it was that Tuesday he thought Little Sis was really Bib Sis. So his way of distinguishing sisters is not so reliable after all. And can he give swell definitions? You ought to ask him what his definition for civilization is. And then ask him about the agreement of the subject and the complement.

Dr. Wells must be in debt to the Colonnade staff, or something.
When he started complimenting the editorial policy of the paper, the editors all started beaming—and some of the teachers didn't. Wonder why?

We heard—now we only heard so don't dare tell it—that Wednesday night when Miss Biology Tait and Miss Physics Rogers, and Dr. Biology Nevins were riding down from Jacksonville to Daytona in all the glory of that glorious full moon—have you ever seen one any prettier?—that all they noticed was the lovely silhouettes of the blooming plants against the background of moonlight and water. Now I ask you, is that the way to enjoy nature?

Dr. Spanish Salley is too discreet for us to find out much about him, but we did hear that he reads "that" kind of literature. You know, "that" kind that even your best friend doesn't know about. We know 'cause his best friend told us so. So it must be true.

Pinch-hitting for Ima Gossip.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. T.
Terry learn with pleasure of the celebration given in "Whigham" on March 11 in honor of the fifty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Terry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jordan.

Attention, Alumnae

One of the most important events of the Alumnae annual program is to take place in the very near future. The "Hey! I'm so glad to see you" hour out of the year set aside by alumnae, faculty, and students for the renewal of friendships, happy gossip, and laughter—the G. E.
A. luncheon!

The G. E. A. meeting will be in Macon April 12, and the G. S. C. W. luncheon is going to be at the Dempsey Hotel, one o'clock, April 12th.
The brand new Macon club is sponsoring the occasion under the leadership of Mrs. R. W. Bober (Sara Stembridge), president.

Be wise and get your ticket early either from Mrs. Gober, 730 Napier Ave., Macon, or Miss Catherine Weaver, state alumnae treasurer, G.
S. C. W., Milledgeville—price 75cts.
The booth in the lobby if the Dempsey, G. S. C. W. information and general meeting place, will also carry tickets. Don't fail to visit the booth. And remember 10 o'clock, April 12th, is the last minute for reservations for the luncheon.

Winter Quarter

Dean's List Has 154

(Continued from page 1)

Juniors: Dorothy Lee Allen, Maude McArva Allen, Margaret Ann Burney, Sarah C. Camp, Virginia B. Carroll, Jane Cassels, Elizabeth Daniell, Isabel C. Davis, Louise Donehoo, Dorothy Ellis, Blonde Fowler, Martha Geisler, Nan Glass, Julia B. Harper, Gladys Harris, Cathryn Hignite, Mary Dan Ingram, Minnie Ann Irwin, Marguerite Ivey, Rose Kiel Ivey, Olive C. Jordan, Elsie Kersey, Florence Knight, Dinah Lewis, Julia Lockhart, Mary Love, Mary Jo Lozier, Eleanor Carr Nixon, Sara Louise Owen, Fay Pilkenton, Natalie Pur-dom, Jeannette Rauch, Sarah Rutland, Weldon Seals, Evelyn Senn, Florence Shearouse, Alvida Shuman, Rebecca Louise Smith, Mary Brown Starr, Rosalie Sutton, Georgette Walker, Mildred Watson, Caroline Weddington, Marcia V.
Williams, Hazel Winteringham.

Sophomores: Jeannette Adams, Evelyn Aubry, Helen Louise Bennett, Ellowene Bessent, Julia Carroll Black, Arlene Carliners, Martha Cheney, Emma Elizabeth Cox, Nell Angus, Lella Frances Garrison, Margaret Hansell, Grace B. Hayes, Lucyna Heister, Jessie Rose Herndon, Edith Hodges, Emma Jeanne Hous, Maude R. Holloway, Virginia Jenkins, Frances Joseph, Mattie Lillian Klein, Bona Appes
Latimore, Sarah R. Lee, Florence
Opinger, Evelyn Quatremaux, Grace O. Russell, Sarlice Saltsman, Faiscia Stewart, Elizabeth Stucky, Elizabeth Sturgis, Peggy Van Cise.

Freshmen: Ruth Abernathy, Jean Dorothy Abersold, Mary Glenn Allaben, Lizzie Ruth Allen, Martha Jeanne Armour, Margaret Black, Dorothy M. Boldorf, Dorothy Elizabeth Brown, Gene Elizabeth Burke, Mary Joan Butler, Mary Elizabeth Chandler, Sarah Ruth Cheney, Annie Sue Coleman, Mildred B. Cooke, Jean Bass Dean, Elizabeth Donovan, Virginia Doss, Miriam Gordy, Eugenia Hall, Frances Isabel Hanna, Virginia Joiner, Martha Koebly, Mary Helen Moses, Bernice M. Newsome, Rachel W. Persons, Mary Grace Pritchett, Frances Roane, Frances Rozier, Emily Simpson, Elizabeth Louise Smith, Alice Stanford, Grace A. Talley, Anita Tennille, Holt Tharpe, Lucy Hays Wagner, Alice West, Sadie Futral, Margaret Fowler.

Summer School Faculty Will Be Increased

The first double session summer school in the history of G. S. C. W. which opens on June 12 will include among its faculty members many visiting leading educators. Outstanding leaders in education from the campuses of various Georgia institutions have been added to the regular staff for the duration of the summer term.

Mr. R. L. Ramsey, principal of Fulton High school, Atlanta, who has already made an extremely favorable impression on the student body upon the occasion of his chapel address on the value of literature will be a valuable addition to the summer school faculty. Others who will have classes are: Mr. C. B. Far-ney, superintendent of schools, Douglas; Miss Margie Seawright, supervisor of elementary schools,
Savannah; Miss Mary Jim Oliver, Brenau college, Gainesville; Dr. D.
P. Dyer, South Georgia college, Douglas.

From New college of Columbia university will come an associate of Dr. Thomas Alexander, Miss Margaret Coble, who has already visited the campus in company with Dr.
Alexander and who is familiar with the needs of the campus.

Dr. Alexander himself will be present for one or more days during the session in the capacity of a special lecturer. Others who will serve similarly include Miss Lucy Gage, Peabody college; Dr. C. B.
Glenn, superintendent of schools, Birmingham, Ala.; and Dr. Willis A.
Sutton, superintendent of schools, Atlanta.

The first session of summer school will extend from June 12 through July 20; the second term will open on July 22 and will close on August 28.

Roane Is Re-elected To Student Council

(Continued from page 1)

retary of student council, but was forced to resign the position due to the point system.

Mary Nell Brisco was a member of freshman council this year and was a dormitory officer in Terrell B.
Eolynne Greene was a member of freshman council and was the freshman Smile Queen in the contest sponsored by the Georgia Cherokees orchestra.

Libby Smith is the sister of the well-known "Casey" Smith, former president of the Y. W. C. A. She was a member of freshman council, a member of the Colonnade staff, and served as treasurer of freshman council.

Soph Commission Chosen Saturday

(Continued from page 1)

mission. She has served as president of this year's commission, so is well acquainted with the work of that group.

The new commission will be formally installed later in the quarter when the new leaders will take over the offices to which they have been elected. At that time the commissioners will be assigned to committees on which they will serve as sub-chairmen to assist the cabinet members, who are appointed as the chairmen of the various committees of the organization.

Miss Jessie Draywick attended the Georgia Academy of Science at Jac-lanta at Agnes Scott during the spring holidays.

Collegiate Prattle

According to the Hornet, a modern girl's life hinges upon pins. Here are the seven stages:

1. Safety pins.
2. Hair pins.
3. Hat pins.
4. Sorority pins.
5. Fraternity pins.
6. Rolling pins.
7. Safety pins again.

Some "Wise words" from the Technique:

Every man has his price, every co-ed her figure.

The old-fashioned girl was a clinging vine. The modern girl is a rambler.

A "Who's Who" of the collegiate world will be published in April. It will consist of the most prominent students in American colleges and universities, the number being limited to one per cent in each school.

Students will be judged according to character, scholarship, leadership in politics and athletics, and possibility for future prominence.
—Technique.

And here's something that might have happened to any of us:

A V. P. I. student hitch-hiked 100 miles to see his girl friend at a neighboring college. He arrived at 10:57 p. m., just in time to say "hello" before the matron showed him the door at closing time, eleven o'clock.

Just listen to the girls from Tallahassee: Well, we're not conceited, but every time we look in the mirror, we wonder what the other six wonders of the world are!

The season of sun-bathing has arrived, and with it the crowded attendance on the arcades of the sun-tan-addicts. Since Leon county went dry to protect us college girls from the big bad bacchanal brutes, why not continue the protective attitude by having a law passed prohibiting aviators from flying over the school? If we have any menaces, they'll surely have to come from above, 'cause they can't approach us any other way.—Florida Flambeau.
A very good idea!

Columbia University reporters, questioning people on the street, discovered that five out of six persons think college students are loafers. The sixth spoke Chinese.— Polytechnic reporter of Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute.

Neatest Trick of the Week Department—Two prominent athletes of Northwestern U. (Boston) lacked the wherewithal to purchase the necessary flowers for a formal function. A violent storm being in process, they prevailed upon a student to call the girls, and in disguised voice inform them that the florist was calling, and that the flowers could not be delivered because of the storm. The gentlemen arrived, and professed indignation at the lack of flowers.—Mercer Cluster.

Lazy Man's Poem
You are a Wonderful Person
And so forth, et al.
—Mercer Cluster.

Roberts Attends 1935 Conference Of Athletic Fed.

Kathleen Roberts, president of the recreation association, attended the 1935 conference of the southern division of the Athletic Federation for College Women, during the spring holidays. The conference was held in Greenboro, N. C.

Delegates from various colleges met to discuss student problems concerning athletics and various forms of recreational activities. Many meetings and discussion groups were held at which the students were able to hear many outstanding and worthwhile speakers.

Some of the resolutions drawn up at the conference include:

- (1). Every student must have a medical examination.
- (2). To have an official bureau for major sports to prevent men from taking over women's athletics.
- (3). To encourage play days.
- (4). To promote mixed athletics as long as skill can be carried on with both sexes.
- (5). Participation in sports to be based on physical skill, rather than scholastic standing.

Among those colleges represented only two others keep records of those participating in sports. Those are Duke and Agnes Scott. G. S. C.
W. is also proud of the fact that she is a pioneer in the respect of being the only college in America to call her association the "recreational" association.

It is true that most schools have better equipment for their athletics and recreational activities but it is not true that they have a better play spirit. Even though the equipment at G. S. C. W. is limited, girls do come out to play. This proves that G. S. C. W. girls do play for the sake of play and are to be given much credit for their splendid cooperation in making the recreational program on our campus, one of which the college can be proud.

Delegates who attended the conference were entertained at several delightful social events.

Six Home Economics Majors Move to Home Management House

A number of home economics students moved to the home management house on Tuesday to stay six weeks. During the last half of the spring quarter another group of students will be assigned to the house.

The students living there now are McArva Allen, Hapeville; Lorraine
Harper, Brunswick; Avis Perdue, Alamo; Margaret Rucker, Griffin;
Nancy Sale, Sharon; Bertha Ward, Lincolnton.

VISIT OUR BEAUTY SHOPPE

We have enlarged our shop and have new equipment.
Three high class operators. No advance in prices.

If you want the Best Shop at . . .

E. E. Bell Co.

Cinema Chats

What she knew about men would fill a book—and she was just before doing just that thing, writing her biography and "telling tales out of school." It was fun for her to write of her life and her loves, but not so much for the men whose private lives she was making public property! The stars of "When Ladies Meet" unite again to make a great stage hit the season's gayest screen entertainment. Ann Harding and Robert Montgomery will be at the Campus on Monday and Tuesday in "Biography of a Bachelor Girl." If you like rapid-fire action, gorgeous mountain scenery, and swanky clothes, don't fail to see "A Bachelor Girl's Biography."

The girl you loved in "Only Yesterday"—Margaret Sullivan with Douglas Montgomery appear in "Little Man, What Now?" on Wednesday at the Campus theatre—in the epic drama of human emotion made from a book which was the sensation of two continents. It is no easy path these two youngsters travel, fighting for their right to love, life and happiness. "Little Man, What Now?" is on only one day—Wednesday.

Imagine an all-American football player as the owner of a swank Paris dress shop! Try and imagine it, and then see "Roberta" at the Campus on Thursday and Friday.
Acclaimed as the greatest musical comedy, "Roberta" comes to the screen as a three-star attraction with Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire, and Ginger Rogers. Miss Dunne sings
"Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and
"Lovely to Look At," that new sensational. And then when those dancing fools, Astaire and Rogers, let loose their magic feet in "I Won't Dance," and "I'm Hard to Handle"—well, it's just more than you can imagine without seeing it.
Don't miss it!

Among the faculty members spending the week-end at Daytona Beach were Miss Mabel Rogers, Dr.
Beatrice Nevins, Miss Blanche Tait, Miss Annette Steele, and Miss Beatrice Horschburg.

2 Dresses for $1.00
ODORLESS
CLEANERS
Phone 559

Let us put your FUR COATS
and
FUR TRIMMED
COATS
on COLD STORAGE

Protect them from the moths and summer heat.

SNOW'S
LAUNDRY

Health Majors Will Attend Physical Ed Meeting in Atlanta

The members of the health and physical education faculty and a number of students in that department will leave Milledgeville on Wednesday to attend the meeting of the Southern Physical Education association which will be held in Atlanta April 3-8.

On Thursday, the majors in the health department will present a review of a complete health and physical education program entitled "Hope Triumphant." The review was written by Miss Katherine K. Scott, of the English department. Miss Mamie Padgett was in charge of the costuming of the students who will take part in the program, and Miss Beatrice Horsbrugh and a number of her violin pupils will furnish the music.

The health department is making plans now to present the same program in the G. S. C. W. auditorium as a part of the National Health Week program during the first week in May.

Mrs. Stewart Wootten, chairman of the health section of the association for this year, will be in charge of two health section group meetings, the health exhibit, and will also be a co-hostess at the luncheon and banquet to be given in honor of the delegates attending the conference.

Miss Louise Smith will make a talk on Friday morning, April 5, at the health section group meeting. Her subject will be "Health Service from the Health Education Point of View."

Among the G. S. C. W. delegates going to Atlanta will be Miss Angela Kitzinger, Miss Rosabel Burch, Miss Louise Smith, Mrs. Stewart Wootten, Misses Mary Pitts Allen, Dot Smith, Viola James, Billie Jennings, Billie Howington, Margaret Burney, Helen Hanna, Celia Freeman, Lola Dowis, Kathleen Roberts, Mary Sawyer, Kate Bryant, Elizabeth McCall, Robbie Rogers, Elizabeth Minter, Maud Shepherd, Mabel Bryant, Wilda Slappey, Marjorie Sykes, Mildred Cooke, Drewellen Gibbs, Frances Roane, Elizabeth Smith, Robbie Wilson, Jane Haddock, and Helen Wright.

Ridley Chosen Head For Third Term

(Continued from page 1)
fice due to the point system.

Georgellen Walker has served on freshman council, sophomore commission, Y. W. C. A. cabinet, and this past year was president of the Jesters. She is also a member of Y. W. C. A. cabinet for next year.

Josephine Fortson was a member of council, commission, and a dormitory officer in Ennis hall for two years.

Weldon Seals was elected vice-president of the history club for next year at the election held recently. She will also serve on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet.

Mabelle Swan was a member of sophomore commission and was a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet during the past year.

The home economics department sponsored the showing of the film, "A Day in a Nursery School," in the auditorium on Saturday prior to the regular Saturday night picture.

Have your Shoes Repaired Here
Phone 215
Harper & Harper

Senior Chemistry Majors Awarded 5 Scholarships

Matilda Otwell, Augusta, and Idell Wheeler, East Point, chemistry majors of G. S. C. W., have the distinction of receiving two of the four scholarships offered by Emory college this year. Misses Otwell and Wheeler, who are looking forward to careers as technicians, will begin work on their M. S. degree at Emory next year. Pre-requisites for entrance were a reading knowledge of French, double courses in general and organic chemistry, qualitative and quantitative analysis.

Agnes Smith, LaGrange, who finishes this year with a B. S. in chemistry, brings another scholarship offered by Duke university. Miss Smith's study will also be in preparation for technician work.

Martha Cheney, Albany, is expecting to attend Yale Graduate School of Nursing next year to begin work on her technician masters.

Nell Cooley, Sandersville, who finished here last quarter, is studying pharmacy at the University of Georgia.

Again G. S. C. W. wins distinction with the news that "Mary Jones, graduate of '33 and chemistry major, has received a fellowship at Emory.

Cassels Elected State Y Officer

(Continued from page 1)
in the state colleges, making them more integrated.

Among the colleges sending representatives to the conference were Agnes Scott, Emory, University of Georgia, Georgia State College for Women, Georgia Tech, Georgia State Teachers College, Wesleyan, West Georgia College, and Piedmont.

Other officers elected for next year included: President, Rayford Kytte, Jr., of Georgia Tech; secretary, Fred Wilson, of Emory University; treasurer, Virginia Bowers, of Wesleyan.

Mikell and Sutton To Speak On Program

(Continued from page 1)
and student body on November 7, during National Education week.

The commencement program will begin on June 7 and end on June 10 when the graduating exercises will be held. A number of entertainments to be given in honor of the senior class will be announced at a later date. The officers of the class, who will be in charge of the class day exercises and other programs, are Billie Howington, Margaret Edwards, Mary Louise Dunn, Beuna Kinney, and Marjorie Sykes.

The colorful commencement program which ends the college careers of the 1935 graduates will also bring to a close the first year that Dr. Guy H. Wells has served as president of G. S. C. W. It also brings to a close the first year in office at

The new HATS for Spring
Hats Underwear Hose
BESSIE BLAND HAT SHOP

Mary Leads Names On Dean's List

What's in a name? It seems as if there was a lot of that "something" in the name "Mary." For two quarters more "Marys" have made the dean's list at G. S. C. W. than any other name. Also, more Marys hold office here than any other name. That is, according to statistics taken in the fall.

On the dean's list for the winter quarter which has just been published by Dr. Hoy Taylor, there are seventeen "Marys." The number is slightly lower than for the fall quarter, but so are the other names. The seniors and freshmen lead the list with six "Marys" each and the juniors follow with four.

Other names appearing with annoying frequency on the list are "Elizabeths." Of that popular name, there are fifteen, making the "Elizabeths" winning second place for the second time. The "Dorothys" came to the front for third place with ten, with the "Louises" coming up for fourth place. The "Virginias," "Frances," "Margarets," and "Marthas" tied for fifth place with six each.

Those people who cannot see their way to changing their names to "Mary" can just adopt for their middle name some moniker beginning with "B." and using only the initial. On the recent dean's list there were seven such smart gals. So what's in a name?

Georgia Glee Club To Give Program

(Continued from page 1)
director, and a twelve piece band.

In addition to the regular glee club performance, there will be an added attraction in the form of skits from the New York stage success "Thumbs Up." The skits will feature two co-eds and a tap dancer. Miss Minna Hecker, a torch singer, will accompany the glee club as guest artist. Miss Hecker will be remembered for her performance here two years ago when she appeared with the glee club.

Tentative plans for the entertainment of the glee club members are being made by the senior class.

Chicago U. History Head Will Lecture

Dr. M. W. Jernigan, head of the department of history at the University of Chicago, will visit the campus on Thursday, April 4. He will be the guest speaker at the chapel exercises on Thursday morning. His subject will be New Dealers and the Social Planning in the American Revolution.

Dr. Jernigan, who will be accompanied to G. S. C. W. by his wife, is at present on a tour of the south to study the conditions here.

G. S. C. W. of the dean and the dean of women, Dr. Hoy Taylor and Miss Ethel Adams.

Fresh Home Made Candies
... Sandwiches of all kinds
... Ice Cream—Cold Drinks
SANDWICH SHOPPE

MEET YOUR FRIENDS AT BINFORD'S DRUG STORE
Sandwiches — Ice Cream — Cold Drinks

Director Of Child Health Education To Visit Campus

Miss Louise Strachn, director of the Child Health Education division of the National Tuberculosis association, will be a guest on the campus during the early part of the week. She will give a short talk on Monday morning at chapel and will speak to a number of classes during the day and also on Tuesday.

Miss Strachn is one of the most distinguished health workers in America. She is a graduate of Vassar, and is the permanent secretary of the college of hygiene council which is sponsored by the National Health council. Her home is in New York City, but she travels a good deal, both in this country and abroad. After leaving G. S. C. W., she will attend the meeting of the Southern Physical Education association in Atlanta.

During the past week-end Miss Strachn was the house guest of Mrs. Stewart Wootten.

Mallory Enters Third Year As President

(Continued from page 1)
furthering the interest in dramatics on the campus.

Sara Ruth Allmond has been a member of sophomore commission during the past year and served as sub-chairman on the C. W. E. committee of Y. W. C. A.

Juliette Burrus was a member of freshman council, sophomore commission, a dormitory officer in Bell hall, and has been a class officer since entering G. S. C. W. She was also one of the two freshman class managers in the Recreation association last year.

Dorothy Meadors was a member of freshman council, sophomore commission, and is a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet for next year.

Myra Jenkins was a member of freshman council, president of sophomore commission during the past year, and has served as a class officer both her freshman and sophomore years at G. S. C. W. She has also been a member of the Jesters during the past two years.

Miss Sara Nelson attended the Southeastern section of the American Mathematical Society in Atlanta at Agnes Scott during the spring holidays.

Try our SKINLESS PUPPIES at— IVEY-TURNER'S

BELIEVE IT OR NOT! OUR EASTER CARDS ARE ON DISPLAY Come Early WOOTTEN'S BOOK STORE

Lyceum Programs For Spring Term Are Announced

The lyceum committee, headed by Mr. O. A. Thaxton, has made further plans for the coming entertainments of the year, and a number of excellent programs have been secured.

April 25, Glenn L. Morris will give a scientific lecture with popular scientific demonstrations. Mr. Morris is said to be a specialist in putting things within the reach of his audience, making his exhibitions comprehensible even to those who know little science. For science students the demonstrations will be a summary of modern achievements. The use of the earth inductor compass (employed by Col. Lindbergh in his flight to Paris), the electric eye, radio control mechanisms, artificial fever generator, and transmission of electricity without wires are among the things that Mr. Morris will demonstrate and explain.

April 26 the Mercer Glee Club with a band of thirty or forty members will present a program in the auditorium. The club has made one or two tours and from all accounts has one of the best entertainments in its history.

Prospective entertainments, dates of which will be announced later, are the Emory Glee club, a dancing program, and an entertainment by a famous pipe-organist.

CAMPUS THEATRE

Monday and Tuesday April 1-2

Wednesday, April 3 Margaret Sullivan in "LITTLE MAN, WHAT NOW"

Thursday and Friday April 4-5

Admission Students 15c Any Time