

2-18-1939

Colonnade February 18, 1939

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: <https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

Colonnade, "Colonnade February 18, 1939" (1939). Colonnade. 282.
<https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/282>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.

THESE PEOPLE MAKE NEWS

With the word "charm" ringing through the reporters brain in all its meanings, definitions, and examples, it was not surprising that the first question she asked Carolyn Stringer was "What is your definition of charm?" The answer she gave, however, was definitely surprising. "I don't know that I can compete with others, but, to me, charm varies as to definition. At the present it is Mrs.

Carolyn Stringer Hines' substance of life, Betty Lott's smile, pangles on a bracelet, rabbit feet, and the ability to make a snake sway."

It was probably taking unfair advantage of Norine Holbrook for, after all, she is still recovering from an appendectomy and was lying helplessly flat on her back, but the interviewer heartlessly snapped the picture and popped a question.

Norine Holbrook

"Do you agree with the Atlanta boy who said in Sunday's Atlanta Journal interviews that the days of parlor-tricks are over?"

"Perhaps I'm a bit prejudiced, since parlor-tricks are my best methods for expressing my personality—in short, I dote on them. But if the boy in question ever came to GSCW, he would see that of a necessity, parlor-tricks are still in existence," laughed Norine.

Maurine Brown had quite a good word to say for the freshmen when she was asked if she thought it possible to spot a freshman by that green look.

"As a freshman myself, I think all freshmen have "that certain look" at least when the mail comes. It seems that the Freshmen are the only ones who get mail. Freshmen, too, seem to be the jolliest, upper classmen are too serious about themselves and life in general."

CALLS FOR PETITIONS FOR CLASS OFFICERS

Student petitions for class officers and town girl officers of 1939-40 must be handed to Student Council by Thursday, February 23, at five P. M.

Petitions must be signed by fifteen students.

Vol XIII Z122

Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga., Saturday, February 18, 1939 Number 17

The Colonnade

Final Elections Polled Thursday Complete Roster of 1939-40 CGA Officers

PANKE KNOX—elected secretary of C. G. A. over opponent Martha Fors in the election held Thursday.

MARION BENNETT—elected Thursday as Chairman of the Judiciary of College Government Association for 1939-40.

(Left) LOU ELLA MEADERS—recently elected vice-president of C. G. A. over opponent Katherine Kirkland.

Marion Bennett, Lou Ella Meaders, Panke Knox, Jane Melton, and Madeleine Blackwelder defeated the opposing candidates for College Government Association offices to complete the roster of officers of 1939-40 in the run over election held Thursday.

Marion Bennett was elected Chairman of the Judiciary over Hortense Fountain by a 29 vote margin. Lou Ella Meaders was victorious over Katherine Kirkland for vice-presidency of C. G. A.

Panke Knox was chosen secretary of C. G. A. over Martha Fors. Jane Melton defeated opponent Elizabeth Ledbetter for the position of corresponding secretary by a substantial margin. Madeleine Blackwelder received a sixty eight vote majority over Virginia Stripling.

The complete roster of 1939-40 C. G. A. officers resulting from the primary held February 9 and the run over election held February 16 follows: Harriet Hudson, president; Marion Bennett, (Continued on Page Six)

"Mozart Would Swing It," Thor Johnson Believes

FRED BIRCHMORE, young Georgia author, who talked to several Milledgeville groups including the G. S. C. W. student body while he was here Thursday and Friday. Mr. Birchmore is widely known for his bicycle trip around the world.

"Mozart would probably write swing tunes as well as heavier music," answered Thor Johnson, conductor of the Michigan University Little Symphony, when he was asked what sort of musical career his favorite composer, if living today, would lead.

He explained his reply by saying that Mozart wrote music in more veins than any other composer, and as waltzes were the order of the day, Mozart composed numbers of them.

"I am very much interested in swing as a passive type of music," he added.

The blond, young orchestra conductor began his orchestral leadership at the age of fourteen. After serving as director of a chamber orchestra composed of students at the University of North Carolina, he became the associate conductor of the North Carolina Symphony.

Highlights of his career have been the organization and direction of the orchestra.

(Continued on Page Seven)

BETH LEWIS AND MAJOR OWEN SILVEY—leading the lead out of the Residential Project dance held on the campus February 11. Beth Lewis was selected "Queen" of the dance.

Change Recommended

One of the hospital regulations that has been particularly disagreeable to students all this year is the one whereby they may not be excused from more than one class by the housemother without going to the hospital.

Formerly the students have been able to obtain excuses from their housemothers for inconsequential illnesses, and have been permitted to stay in the dormitory rooms for as much as a day at the time to recover.

There are points in favor of both arrangements, but from the point of view of the students the later seems to be, by far, the more satisfactory, as well as more practical. It is most inconvenient for a student to have to trek across to the hospital merely because of a headache or a cold that will cease to be a nuisance after a day or a half day of staying indoors. There doesn't seem to be much point in having to be incarcerated for a couple of days in the hospital when it would be much more comfortable to suffer in the dormitory for one day.

Aside from the inconvenience to the students, the hospital staff is inadequate to care for the numbers of people who have such slight illnesses. The congestion in the hospital is, inevitably, the cause of a degree of inefficiency which would probably be remedied if the staff did not have so many cases to attend.

Of course, the main point in favor of the regulation, and that which its exponents quote, is that a girl might have an illness which would result in complications if she neglected to get hospital attention because she is permitted to stay in the dormitory. The hospital, is, naturally, held responsible for a serious preventable illness and thus, is put into an unenviable position by such a situation. In all probability, however, such a situation would happen only infrequently, and the possibility that it might happen does not outweigh the countless disadvantages of the system.

Taking everything into consideration, a reversion to the old way seems to have a number of advantages over the more recent system. If it could be worked out, it would seem to be more convenient to students to have the housemothers qualified to excuse absences due to slight illnesses.

Quotable Quotes

"There is every sign that the capital of Western civilization may cross the Atlantic and find itself in another generation or two on the shores of this new land, so to speak, because that land has in its power the intelligence and moral courage to make itself the outstanding exemplar of those policies of liberty, of progress, and of human service which alone can save and develop our civilization." Columbia University's Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler points to the continued decline of cultural Europe.

"There is no such thing as a cut and dried curriculum which cannot be modified to the needs of individual students." Requirements-bound students rise up and cheer the progressiveness of Ohio State University's Dean L. L. Love.

"Democracy and its hazardous position form no basis for a new educational program. Better educational foundations are certainly needed, but they can be built steadily; no complete break with old procedures is required." Pres. Henry M. Wriston, Brown University, votes against a sweeping revision of educational policies and procedures.

Letters To The Editor

Those who contribute letters to the column Letters To The Editor are requested to sign their names. The names will not be published unless it is desired, but it is necessary to have signed letters for the files.

DEAR EDITOR:

I am bitterly disappointed that the Town Girls, who have shown such promise, should so publicly disgrace themselves by printing that last letter in the Colonnade. It was obviously the work of an unintelligent person, so wrought up with anger that she lost what point there was going to be in the letter.

If they want any more equipment or false politeness from their antagonists (whomever they may be), why not ask for their desires instead of putting them in the form of such asinine letter. It took great concentration to read through the jumble of that letter. It's point was nil. Its author was not overly equipped with information as to the best way to get favors done. In all, it was the worst "grievance" that has ever come up from the basement.

They expressed their appreciation for their room in a rudely caustic manner. With the college not paying teachers it seems that those students, who with a few notable exceptions have contributed nothing to the life of the college, would realize that there are more important things than the capitulation of the authorities to the petty demands of a very small clique.

All the efforts of the college are at present being directed toward the appeasement of the Town Girls. May they rest in peace!

A JUNIOR

Editor, Colonnade:

Let us say in beginning that we agree fully with the letter by the freshman in last week's Colonnade concerning faculty participation in student elections. We always thought that the faculty were our instructors and should be treated as such. It is an absurd idea to think of a faculty member not being permitted to "go riding at night" and allowed to go home "only with written permission." When faculty members vote they are voting for leaders who shall determine directly or indirectly such regulations. Since a form of college government is the only manner in which a student body can be governed fairly, we think it only square for those who are to be governed to elect their governors.

Signed,
Six Freshmen.

The Colonnade

Published weekly during school year except during holidays and examination periods by the students of the Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Georgia. Subscription price $1.00 per year. Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1928, at the post office, Milledgeville, Ga., under the act of March 3, 1879.

1938 Member 1939
Associated Collegiate Press

Distributor of Collegiate Digest

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.
College Publishers Representative
450 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
CHICAGO - BOSTON - LOS ANGELES - SAN FRANCISCO

Editor-in-Chief Betty Donaldson
Associate Editors—Catherine Cavanaugh, Margaret Weaver.
Business Manager Dot Howell
Assistant Business Manager .. Charlotte Howard
Editorial Assistants—Aliene Fountain, America Smith, Edwina Cox, Marion Arthur, Marion Bennett, Marguerite Jernigan, Julia Weems, Sarah Alma Giles, Panke Knox.
Circulation Manager—America Smith.

Change Commended

With the final election run-overs which were held Thursday, ended the first test of our new election system and it seems fairly important that we should attempt to evaluate it.

More than three-fourths of the student body voted in the primary elections, which is perhaps ground for feeling that the system has aroused an interest in the majority of the students as to who the officers for the following year shall be. It is a hopeful sign that three-fourths of the student body is interested in anything, especially when the interest involves walking to the polls instead of having the polls brought to them, as was true in the past. As was to have been expected, politics has arisen on the campus. Whether this is good or bad is a matter of opinion. Ideally, each candidate would have a platform in order to make the election less involved in personalities, if possible, and also as a guide to the person who does not know many of the candidates.

One fault of the system, as must be evident to everyone, is that there is no specification as to who may vote. If faculty members are to be included or not, the fact should be stated; in the constitution. Any other specifications which should be included should be worked out before complications arise.

All in all, however, we feel the system is a success.

The Editor Comments . . .

One of the members of the Colonnade staff was strolling about in Terrell a day or two ago when she spied a freshman reading a Colonnade. She sidled up to her and asked her what, if anything, she thought of the paper. The freshman considered the matter as some length, and then came out with the carefully thought out statement, "Well, it is sortier like the Atlanta Journal, but it isn't quite as balanced as the New York Times."

Judging from appearances at the Bowery Ball, the seniors have amazing potentialities.

The period immediately after elections is like the familiar post-Christmas period. To have no more free Coca-Colas, no more over-cordial waves from one end of the campus to the other, nobody eager to run an errand for you, gives the same feeling that one gets the third day after Christmas when the realization bears down that all gifts, cards, and other odds and ends have definitely been dispensed, and the only thing to be done is wait another year.

The actions of seniors forecast the coming of spring with an accuracy that puts a ground hog to shame. When they start talking up the cause, and inciting other seniors to action in the interest of night riding privileges, spring is not far in the offing.

Somebody commented, very flatteringly, that she liked the paper a tabloid and "all pictures like it is now." It is regrettable and we bemoan the fact, but a little printing will creep in every now and then on page three or four.

Official Returns From Election

OFFICIAL BALLOT

Democratic Primary
G. S. C. W.—Feb. 16, 1939
COLLEGE GOVERNMENT Association

Chairman of Judiciary
Bennett, Marion	239
Fountain, Hortense	210
Vice-President
Kirkland, Katherine	202
Meaders, Lou Ella	245
Secretary
Fors, Martha	208
Knox, Panke	243
Corresponding Secretary
Ledbetter, Elizabeth	194
Melton, Jane	252
Treasurer
Blackwelder, Madeline	278
Stripling, Virginia	170
Signed, SARA McDOWELL.

OFFICERS OF THE GEORGIA COLLEGIATE PRESS ASSOCIATION which will meet in conjunction with the Georgia Press Institute at the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism, The University of Georgia, February 24 and 25: Miss Henrietta Green, President, The University of Georgia Evening College; Mr. Dillard Munford, vice president, Georgia School of Technology; and Miss Betty Donaldson, secretary and treasurer, Georgia State College for Women.

Mugs and Molls Transpose Ennis Hall Into Bowery Dive

The seniors, camouflaged as Bowery floogies, will dance to Bowery tunes with Bowery blades, drink mock beer, and eat real pretzels at the informal Bowery Ball to-night at eight in Ennis Recreation Hall.

The Rec. Hall will be decorated in the traditional manner of a Bowery dive of the nineties. The mugs and their molls will find diversion at the realistic bar kept by bartender Harriott Smith.

The main event of the evening will be the judging of the costumes followed by a floor show.

The invited guests will include: Dr. Stokes, Dr. and Mrs. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Dewberry, Mr. and Mrs. Capel, Mr. and Mrs. Knox, Miss Maxwell, Miss Burns, Miss Iva Chandler and Dr. and Mrs. Wells.

A move has been started in the Iowa legislature to move the state's college of engineering from the University of Iowa to Iowa State College.

THE COLONNADE STAFF FACES A DEADLINE—members of the staff caught as they desert the embryonic paper for a game of Chinese Checkers. Reading left to right, Betty Donaldson, editor, Margaret Weaver, managing editor, Catherine Cavanaugh, associate editor, Panke Knox, office boy, and Aliene Fountain, news editor do serious work in creating this week's Colonnade.

Editors Attend G. C. P. A. This Week In Athens

Betty Donaldson, Margaret Weaver, and Catherine Cavanaugh will represent The Colonnade at the meeting of the Georgia Collegiate Press Association to be held in Athens at the University of Georgia on February 23-25. The meeting will be held in conjunction with the meeting of the Georgia Press Association.

The delegates will attend speeches and round-table discussions led by prominent journalists. Among the speakers for the Institute program will be Dr. George Gallup, New York City, founder and director of the American Institute of Public Opinion; Ham Fisher, New York City, creator of Joe Palooka, Merryll Stanley Rulseyer, Nationally syndicated writer on economic subjects; Lamdin Kay, director of Radio Stations WSB and WAGA, Atlanta Journal; Douglas C. McMurtrie, authority on typography, Arne Rae, Wells.

Dr. E. A. Purks Speaks To Chemistry Club

Dr. J. H. Purks, Jr., Dean of Emory University and connected with the Physics Department of Emory, will speak to the members of the Chemistry Club on Wednesday, February 22 at eight o'clock in the band room of the Music Building. He will give a non-technical talk on Radium and X-Ray.

Before the meeting, the quarterly banquet of the Chemistry Club will be held in the campus tea room with Dr. Purks as honor guest of the banquet.

The public is invited to the lecture at eight.

secretary of the National Editorial Association; George Fort Milton, president and editor of the Chattanooga News; and Ralph McGill, executive editor of the Atlanta Constitution.

The delegates will attend a dinner given by the publishers of the Savannah Morning News and Evening Press on the evening of February 24, after which they will attend the Military Ball.

Cotillion Club's First Formal Held Tonight

White Speaks To Student Body Here

Miss Marie White, Federal agent for the Southern Region for Vocational Home Economics education and Miss Elizabeth Mayes, State supervisor of Home Economics education, will be on the campus Monday and Tuesday. They are to visit the home economics department and hold conferences with staff members.

Monday night, Miss Mary Beth Barnett, assistant state supervisor of home economics education, and Miss Jessie McVey, director of home economics, are to entertain at a dinner in the college tea-room in honor of Misses White and Mayes. Invited guests include Dr. and Mrs. Guy H. Wells, Dr. and Mrs. Hoy Taylor, members of the home economics staff and Mrs. R. E. Cotton, local director of NYA. Following the dinner, will be a reception in the Home Economics education students have been invited.

Tuxes, dances by cards, and a floor show will constitute the main points of departure from custom in G. S. C. W. dances that the Cotillion Club is inaugurating at their formal tonight. The members of the club with their dates and several faculty guests will dance in the new gymnasium to the music of the Mercer orchestra from eight till twelve.

During intermission a floor show will be given by the members of the club. Variations of the tango, schottische, rumba, and fox trot steps will be demonstrated. During the dance punch will be served.

The members of the Club and their dates who will attend the dance are:

Alice McDonald with Perry Godry, Louise Stanley with John Thompson, Elizabeth Sitton with A. C. Celledand, Loraine Proctor with J. K. Davis, Catherine Combs with Lindsey Dennard, Frances Wilkie with Carlton Cook, Edna Fine with William Trappnell, Deesie Shockley with Ted Wallace, Nan

Continued on Back Page.

Masqueraders Choose Cast For Modern Drama "Stage Door"

The permanent cast for "Stage Door," the Masqueraders production to be given March 3, has been selected, according to a recent announcement.

Four Faculty Members Go To N. E. A.

Dr. Guy Wells, Dr. Edwin Scott, Dr. Harry Little, Mr. W. T. Knox, and others will represent the Third Zone at the annual meeting of the American Association of Teachers Colleges in Cleveland, February 22 through March 3. Miss Mildred English will join them in Cleveland. At the same time, the delegates will attend the winter meeting of the American Association of School Administrators. Dr. Wells will serve on the nominating committee for the 1939-1940 officers of the A. A. T. C.

Demonstration of Canning Given For Home Ec Students

Mr. C. L. Stebbins and Mr. Lloyd F. Merrill, representatives from the H. G. Prince and Co. Canning and packing corporation, of Oakland, California, gave an illustrated lecture to Home Economics students on commercial canning last Saturday night in Peabody Auditorium. They were accompanied by Mr. Albert Wier, Sr. of Athens.

The lecture consisted of motion pictures which showed the various plants and processes used in canning their food products.

Following the film, thirty-five cans of different foods, were opened for inspection and sampling.

These lectures have been given since 1935 in all but five states of the union on to home economics students, retail merchants and wholesale distributors as an educational feature. Saturday morning the lecture was given at the University of Georgia.

Collegiate Prattle

Betty: "What's all the hurry?"
Mary: "I just bought a textbook and I'm trying to get to class before the next edition comes out."

It seems that an American film actress was applying for admission to a college and was filling in her application blank with the dean.

Dean: "Unmarried?"
Actress: "Occasionally."

Co-ed, dreamily: "Did you ever see the man in the moon?"
Snake, absent-mindedly: "No, but I've seen a lady in the sun."

"Would you like to join our football team?"
"I don't know enough about the game to play, but I'm willing to referee."

A sensible girl is not as sensible as she looks because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.

The coach had a swell scheme to get the dumb athlete to produce during the big game. He had a telegram delivered between the halves that said: "Counting on you to win. Don't fail me." It was signed by his girl.

The dumb bruiser shrugged his shoulders. "It ain't from my girl. She can't run a typewriter."

"Is it true that Sara got a job as leading lady because her skin is lovelier than yours?"
"Yes, darn her hide."

A gold digger takes her fund where she finds it.

Director: "Don't forget now. You look around, discover that some one is chasing you, then dive off the cliff."

Stunt Man: "But there's only six inches of water in the bottom!"
Director: "Sure, you don't think we want you to drown, do you?"

Collegiate Review

Dartmouth College has purchased a portable sawmill to cut the half-million feet of wood accumulated during hurricane reclamation activities.

Tufts College students are conducting a campaign to raise a loan fund for needy students.

Scientists of Cornell and Colgate Universities are making a special study of the aurora borealis.

Sarah Lawrence College has special courses for the institution's employees.

The University of California has a special course on the legal rights of women.

Football Coach Dick Harlow has been appointed curator of Oology in the Harvard University museum of Comparative Zoology. Oology is the collection and study of eggs.

More than a million words have been written and broadcast by Drake University students during the last four and a half years.

A New England College Rifle League has been formed for sharpshooting competition among institutions in those states.

Ex-President Herbert Hoover has been awarded a Doctor of Engineering degree by Stevens Institute of Technology.

Sixty-nine colleges and universities in 24 states and five foreign countries are represented by University of New Hampshire faculty members.

Research at the University of Illinois is proving that air-conditioning materially aids a patient's chances of recovery.

Coke College's new campus social center has been named "coketail lounge."

The Oregon State College museum has been given a huge stuffed moose from—of all people—the Royal Order of Moose.

Tulane University's Middle American Research Institute has initiated a campaign to raise $2,000,000 for a new museum.

Thirty U. S. colleges use crimson as their school colors.

Franklin and Marshall College has placed the four major student dances of the year in its tuition charges.

Bucknell University English teachers are having their voices tested to aid them in making their lectures more interesting.

Cornell University is conducting research into the methods of training vocational education teachers.

Union College is organizing a conference on industry and government to be held April 17.

The oldest Goethean literary society in the world, founded at Franklin and Marshall College in 1832, will hold its 3,500th meeting next month.

City planning is now offered Connecticut College students in a special course called "civil art."

New York University has instituted three courses in religion to combat the tide of persecutions "now common in the dictator-controlled nations."

Lauritz Melchior, Metropolitan Opera star, has been appointed special lecturer in the education of the handicapped at Teachers College, Columbia University.

University of Kentucky mathematicians have figured out that the average parade band member marches 160 miles in formation during the football season.

A University of Mississippi professor has been given a huge

Are You This Girl?

Seen Thursday afternoon sipping a Coca-Cola in Culver-Kidd's; wearing a light blue sweater with pearls under a dark blue coat trimmed in Persian Lamb fur. White socks and brown oxfords completed the outfit. If so, call by the Colonnade office and receive one Free pass to the Campus Theatre.

This Week With the "Y"

Is Christianity better than any other religion? Rev. Rufus Oakley talked to a joint meeting of Freshman Council and Cabinet last Monday night on this question. Rev. Oakley believes that Christianity is the best religion, because it has the highest conception of God and also the highest conception of man.

MACON YW

Tuesday night the members of the Industrial Y. W. C. A. of Macon came over for a meeting with the Economics and Labor Discussion group. Dr. Swearingin led the discussion on how students can help working people.

It was brought out that there are benefits which come from the co-operation of Industrial and college groups, and that these benefits are mutual—the college students can help the working people, and the working people can also help the college students. Two ways in which these groups can help each other are: first, in the exchange of knowledge. Each has a great many facts, ideas, theories which the other does not know and is not conscious of; second, by contact increasing their understanding of each other. The latter is the most fundamental and valuable benefit because understanding and tolerance are the bases of Christianity.

Aliene Fountain has only her watch, to blame for rushing into Dr. Swearingin's eight-thirty class at eight-forty-five, all out of breath and apologetic for being late. No one seemed able to impress it upon her that she was in the wrong pew and when it finally dawned on her she started shouting, "Where is my class?"

(Continued on Back Page)

Alumnae Corner

Plans for class reunions for this year are going forward. According to the Dix Reunion Plan, which is the one the GSCW Alumnae Association follows, the graduate classes listed below will have reunions this June. Following is the name and address of the secretary of each class who will be in charge of notifying the alumnae in her particular class of announcements concerning the reunion:

DIPLOMA GRADUATES

Class of 1898—Miss Agnes Gibson, Milledgeville, Ga.

Class of 1929—

Class of 1921—Burke Nicholson (Mrs. Barle) Norman, Washington, Ga.

Class of 1920—Tallu Jones (Mrs. E. A.) Fish, Barnesville, Ga.

Class of 1919—Cecile Humphrey (Mrs. W. D.) Hardy, 111 Jefferson Terrace, Macon, Ga.

Class of 1918—Evangeline Clement (Mrs. D. C.) McCay Marietta, Ga.

Class of 1902—Effie Goodman (Mrs. H. J.) Hall, Sparks, Ga.

Class of 1901—Lula Wisdom (Mrs. T. W.) Wisdom, 990 Durant Pl., Apt. 3, Atlanta, Ga.

Class of 1900—Estelle Elizabeth Russell (Mrs. D. L.) Roberts, Chattanooga, Ga.

Class of 1902—Effie Goodman (Mrs. H. J.) Hall, Sparks, Ga.

Class of 1901—Lula Wisdom (Mrs. T. W.) Wisdom, 990 Durant Pl., Apt. 3, Atlanta, Ga.

Class of 1900—Estelle Elizabeth Russell (Mrs. D. L.) Roberts, Chattanooga, Ga.

Class of 1902—Effie Goodman (Mrs. H. J.) Hall, Sparks, Ga.

Class of 1901—Lula Wisdom (Mrs. T. W.) Wisdom, 990 Durant Pl., Apt. 3, Atlanta, Ga.

Class of 1900—Estelle Elizabeth Russell (Mrs. D. L.) Roberts, Chattanooga, Ga.

Stories by Scandal-light

The following incident may appear somewhat outmoded, but it is written for the benefit of those who remember Dr. Nevins and Dr. Meadows. Miss Tait was telling her Nature Study class about a summer biologist camp she attended in South Carolina with Dr. Nevins. She related all details, showing that, since most of the campers were students rather than teachers, she and Dr. Nevins stayed together most of the time. When the camp disbanded every one went into town on the camp bus, but Miss Tait and Dr. Nevins waited together and took a Greyhound. After Miss Tait had finished with all the accounts about this trip home and various stops they made, Irene Christopher said, "I didn't know you and Dr. Meadows were such good friends."

Miss Tait says this is the second time people have understood her to say Meadows instead of Nevins, therefore she is going to stop talking about her at all.

Those who heard Dr. Bigelow were somewhat puzzled when he said that a Mrs. Cobb's cats always took the medals at all dog shows.

Dr. Salley has a particular trick question (among many) which he loves to try on his Humanities class and some one always bites. One member of his present class wrote that it was true that Milton wrote "Paradise Regained" immediately after his first wife died.

Aliene Fountain has only her watch, to blame for rushing into Dr. Swearingin's eight-thirty class at eight-forty-five, all out of breath and apologetic for being late. No one seemed able to impress it upon her that she was in the wrong pew and when it finally dawned on her she started shouting, "Where is my class?"

(Continued on Back Page)

Oh, well, it happens in the best of families. She shouldn't let it worry her.

I dislike to continue harping on Dr. Salley, but there is some thing about his technique that draws forth the queerest answers in class. For instance, in Spanish they were studying about a priest who fell in love with a girl and during a moment of weakness bestowed upon her "the kiss which branded her for life." Lorene Proctor's translation was "the kiss which scarred her for life." All I can say is "What a Man!"

You will pardon a lengthy explanation here, I hope because the end justifies the means. As you know most problems in Trigonometry deal with angles. Therefore good examples are found in ladders and posts leaning against objects. Mr. Garrett had completed this phase of the course and had started to the next which brought in interpolation. As an introduction to his subject he asked Gladys Johnson if she could interpolate. Her reply was that she could if it were not leaning against a fence.

A freshman took Miss Martin too literally recently. In lab, when the directions said test the cleaning properties of ammonium hydroxide on gold, she dropped her watch into the solution to see if it had any results.

Dot Maxwell, noted for her pre-occupation of mind on things far removed from whatever subject is on hand, astounded her roommates with the following statement as she rushed angrily into the room from the bath: "The hot water is coming in through the cold water pipe, and it isn't hot!"

They haven't figured it out to their satisfaction yet, and Dot still can't see anything contradictory about the whole statement.

(Continued on Back Page)

Mercer Glee Club To Appear Here February 23

The Mercer Glee Club will appear in Milledgeville at G. S. C. W. auditorium, on Thursday, Feb. 23. The club featuring new talent this year is under the direction of Mr. Lee Wood, who is also choir director at the First Baptist Church in Macon.

The program, which starts at 8 p. m., will include eight selections by the thirty voice chorus, three numbers by the quartet, three soloists, and thirty minutes of orchestra music. Selections by the chorus include such well known songs as "Hark, The Vesper Hymn Is Stealing," "Go Down Moses," "Pilgrims' Chorus," "Liebestraum," and "The Musical Trust."

The quartet composed of Charles Lowery, Bartow, Florida; Ed Rogers, Macon; Harold Beatty, Macon; and T. R. Smith, Vienna, will sing "Strike Up The Band" and "Rigolito Quartet."

Ed Rogers, one of the best tenors the club has ever had, will sing "Because" and "In The Luxembourg Gardens." Harold Beatty, baritone and leader of the boys Y. M. C. A. choir in Macon, will sing "The Hills of Home." Charles Lowery, tenor, will sing "La donna e mobile."

T. R. Smith will present the Mercer Collegians in thirty minutes of both popular and classical numbers. Selections to be played include "Poor Butterfly," "They Say," "Say It With A Kiss," "Roses of Piccadilly," and others.

James Rawls of Jacksonville, Florida is president of the club and R. C. Souder, Jr., of Macon is the business manager. Johnnie Reed of Gainesville, Georgia is stage manager.

The members of the G. S. C. W. faculty who will attend are: Dr. and Mrs. Wells, Dr. Edwin Scott, Mrs. J. T. Terry, Mrs. Ethel Beaman, Misses Katherine Scott, Mary Burns, Blanche Tait, Margaret Meaders, Iva Chandler, Austelle Adams, Dr. Edward Dawson, and Mr. L. S. Fowler.

late and candy were served during the party. The recreation hall was decorated in Valentine fashion with an effigy of cupid with his bow as the center of the decorations.

Dancing and games were the features of the evening. Hot choco-

McVey Speaks On Textile At NEA

Miss Jessie McVey, Professor of Home Economics, leaves Wednesday for Cleveland, Ohio to attend the Home Economics section of the National Education Association. Miss McVey has been selected to serve on a committee of the American Home Economics Association that deals with the teaching of textiles and clothing on college level.

The January 1939 issue of the Journal of Home Economics published by the American Home Economics Association carried an article entitled "Training for the Realistic Teaching of Textiles and Clothing" by Miss McVey. This was presented before the textiles and clothing division of the American Home Economics Association at its annual convention in Pittsburgh last June.

Games compatible with the nature of the party were played. Sandwiches, punch, and crackers were served.

THIS COLLEGIATE WORLD

Collegiate debaters throughout the world are known for their ingenuity and their quick-wittedness, but we believe that the top prize should go to Louis Dillon, a student at Wycliffe College, up Canada way.

In defending the question, "Resolved, that skunks should be protected by law," Argutier Dillon won the contest by proposing the animals be used as a part of Canada's national defense. How? He'd line the borders with them, making the use of soldiers necessary—and unpleasant!

"At the next sound of the mouse trap it will be time to arise!" And with this announcement we bring you the story of two ingenious University of Detroit students who have found a new way to get themselves up in the morning.

Inventors Bertrand Farrell and Don Parro have a new gettupper that works something like this: When the alarm goes off, a string, attached to the buzzer, allows a weight to fall on a mouse trap. This springs a trap, which pulls two strings. One string jerks the stopper of the alarm clock, shutting off the din, and the other jerks open a switch on the radio. The radio, of course has already been tuned in on a station that broadcasts dance music at the students' rising hour.

Their only trouble now, it seems, is to develop a gadget that will keep them from being lulled back to sleep by the music. We suggest they ask the station to play only jitterbug tunes!

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

Pros and Cons of Charm Discussed On Campus

Granddaughters Celebrate At Kid Party

The Granddaughter's Club honored the faculty alumnae with a kid party February 14 in Ennis Recreation Hall from eight till eleven.

Miss Tate, dressed as an infant, copped the prize for the best costume in the faculty division. Jane Hughes won the prize for the best costume among the granddaughters.

Games compatible with the nature of the party were played. Sandwiches, punch, and crackers were served.

THIS COLLEGIATE WORLD

Collegiate debaters throughout the world are known for their ingenuity and their quick-wittedness, but we believe that the top prize should go to Louis Dillon, a student at Wycliffe College, up Canada way.

In defending the question, "Resolved, that skunks should be protected by law," Argutier Dillon won the contest by proposing the animals be used as a part of Canada's national defense. How? He'd line the borders with them, making the use of soldiers necessary—and unpleasant!

"At the next sound of the mouse trap it will be time to arise!" And with this announcement we bring you the story of two ingenious University of Detroit students who have found a new way to get themselves up in the morning.

Inventors Bertrand Farrell and Don Parro have a new gettupper that works something like this: When the alarm goes off, a string, attached to the buzzer, allows a weight to fall on a mouse trap. This springs a trap, which pulls two strings. One string jerks the stopper of the alarm clock, shutting off the din, and the other jerks open a switch on the radio. The radio, of course has already been tuned in on a station that broadcasts dance music at the students' rising hour.

Their only trouble now, it seems, is to develop a gadget that will keep them from being lulled back to sleep by the music. We suggest they ask the station to play only jitterbug tunes!

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run

parallel to the first session (June 15-July 22) and will give the equivalent of two courses credit toward academic degrees

The camp program will include instruction and activity in the fields of nature study, bird study, botany, campercraft, water sports, dramatics, music, handicrafts, and recreational activities. The camp will also give valuable instruction to those preparing to be camp directors.

The faculty, in so far as it has been determined, will include: Miss Rogers, of the Biology department; teachers from the Physical Education department; Miss Viola Shuman, a G. S. C. W. graduate, who will receive her M. D. at Vanderbilt this year, who will be nurse; and Mrs. Pierratte, dietitian for Ennis and Mansion, who will be dietitian.

Miss Neese will direct the camp. For the last several years she has been director of Camp Juliette Low, Winston Salem, Camp, and other Girl Scout Camps.

Folders, with full information will be available soon and can be obtained through Miss Neese.

Encouraged by the success of the 1937 camp, the college will again conduct a laboratory course in outdoor life in the mountains of north Georgia this summer. Conducted as a part of the regular summer school session of the college, Camp Burton will run parallel to the first session (June 1

Scandal-light

(Continued from Page Four)

The following poetic attempt was done by three victims of our campus civilization last week:

THE THIRD FLOOR GIRL OF TERRELL C

We are the girls of third floor,
That leave our rooms by a creaking door.
Down the hall comes Frances scratching her head,
But we are then safely under our bed.

But one chilly night when the wind blew cold,
Mrs. Thornton caught us and we were told.
"It's a quarter till twelve, your lights should be out
So cut out your noise and quit flitting about."

To the study hall keeper we had
to report,
But didn't mind 'cause I am a sport.
After signing a card, we thought that was all,
But several days later we got a call—

"Dormitory Court" will meet tonight,
Come on down, we'll treat you right."
So in the parlor we each were sent.
And for our misbehavior we had to repent.

So strict study hall we'll have
for a week,
We can't write letters, we can't even speak.
We sit in the parlor and try to be good,
But we never have been and we never could.

So if now on third floor, you hear
no fuss,
Pick up your books and come and see us.
We'll have a good time, we'll tell you jokes,
That you'd tell your boy friend,
or that you'd tell your folks.

This poem is silly, I will agree,
The reason is, it was written by me.
Longfellow wrote of the sun and the sky.
But he couldn't write and neither can I.

THE CHARM QUIZ

(Continued from Page Five)

The senior and junior classes at chapel voted Norma Shearer as the most charming actress in the movies. To her also goes the palm of being beautiful and having plenty of brains. They thought Joan Crawford possessed brains galore and had arisen to her stardom by this strength more than beauty—also she has charm. Bette Davis was mentioned as having become a star because of "brains" more than any other quality. Three actors who rose because of "the brain trust" were Charles Laughton, Lionel Barrymore and Gary Cooper. The vote of these classes was unanimous that Charm far outweighed Beauty.

COTILLION CLUB

(Continued from Page Three)

Moseley with Robert Carithers, Lib Akin with Frederick Griffith, Hattie Douglas with John Discon, Martha Maudlin with Ralph Smith, Barbara Turner with Dick Bracey,

Carolyn Jordan with Edison Brinson, Marion Sheppard with Billie Heaton, Martha Fors with Buck Herrin, Mary Rountree with Jones Ham, Imogene Lockette with Atlas Molnar, Corrine Tucker with Matt Fisher, Sue Morris with Johnny Starbuck, Loree Bartlett with Ben Brown, Marion Ward with George Holsenbeck, Lula Gardner with Edgar Flemister, Effie Thompson with Dong Watson, Ammie Ree Penn with Sam Young, Ann Kendrick with Culver Kidd, Hazel Harrell with Lamar Bailey, Frances Wilkie with Reid McLaughlin, Jane Melton with Chuck Flowers, and Virginia Shoffeitt with Jack Bracey. Among others attending the dance will be Kathryn Boynton, Harriet Jones, Frances Adams and Ferol Wing.

JOHN ROBERT POWERS, the head of the world's best known model agency, when booking his famous models for fashions, advertisers and artists, says "The call is for beauty, poise, personal charm . . . the perfect combination".

The Perfect Combination gets the call...

Chesterfields get the call from more and more smokers every day because of their refreshing mildness, better taste and pleasing aroma.

The perfect combination of Chesterfield's mild ripe American and aromatic Turkish tobaccos . . . the can't-be-copied blend . . . makes Chesterfield the cigarette that gives millions of men and women more smoking pleasure.

When you try them you will know why Chesterfields give more smoking pleasure, why THEY SATISFY

Chesterfield

...the blend that can't be copied
...a HAPPY COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

New Shipment of

Plaid Coats and Skirts

At very Popular Prices

The VOGUE