

---

Colonnade

Special Collections

---

4-8-1947

Colonnade April 8, 1947

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: <https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Colonnade, "Colonnade April 8, 1947" (1947). Colonnade. 377.
<https://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/377>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.

The Colonnade

April 8, 1947.

Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga.

Vol. 21. No. 10

Winter Dean's List Announced

The Dean's list for the winter quarter includes:

Mary Anne Aiken, Carolyn Ash, Charlotte Ballinger, Marion Barber, Mary Jimmie Barlow, Maxie Jo Barlow, Ruby Alyce Beasley, Jane Beckam, Lillian Bennett, Elizabeth Benning, Ellen Blackburn, Jean Bond, Dorothy Boyd, Lydia Bray, Betty Lane Brinson, Katherine Burleigh, Ann Carwile, Mary Eleanor Chambliss, Nell Ray Chastain, Frances Coleman, Charlotte Conn, Ann Davis, Martha Sue Deaton, Nell DeLoach, Patricia Dent, Margie Dial, Theresa Dowd, Ailene Forehand Dozier, Elinor Dozier, Fay Duke, Faye Dunway, Betty Eidson, Edith Ellington, Elmo Fields, Mary Evelyn Grelon, Carolyn Hancock, Mary Louise Hancock, Betty Hardigree, Ruth Harrington, Joyce Harris, Maude Harrod, Elizabeth Haulbrook, Betty Hayes, Jane Hayes, Sammie Henry, Ann Hutcheson, Elizabeth Ann Jackson, Annie Trawick Jenkins, Gwendolyn Jones, Sara Kennedy, Katherine Kent, Mary Ann King, Lydia Kirkland, Irene La Motte, Betty Lane, Mary Frances Lane, Bettye Lankford, Edith Lewis, Neva Lindsey, Harriet Little, Anna Logan, Midred McCamy, Roberta McKinney, Kate McClaurin, June Malcolm, Sara Betty Martin, Patricia Metcalf, Agnes Moye, Joan Mulherin, Priscilla Neves, Lurline Owen, Rosie Lee Owen, Martha Parker, Betty Sue Pope, Martha Perry, Doris Pollard, Joy Elizabeth Porter, Frances Rice, Betty Rivers, Doris Riviere, Lois Roberson, Elna Rogers, Ruth Sheppard, Phyllis Sherman, Ruby Lucille Stansell, Shirley Steele, Sara Margaret Stovall, Mary Jane Summer, Dawn Sykes, Lucy Mae Thomas, Mary Ruth Tufts, Millicent Turner, Betty Jane Warnack, Evelyn Warren, Frances Washburn, Marilyn Waters, Louise Watson, Marilyn Watt, Anne Wells, Peggie Whitmire, Marian Wilkes, Alice Marguerite Williams, Hazel Virginia Wood.

Music Festival Here April 9, 10, 11

Three thousand five hundred boys and girls from all parts of Georgia will gather on the GSCW campus, April 9, 10 and 11 for their annual music festival. The elementary school festival will be held April 9, and the high school festival will be April 10 and 11.

Boys' and girls' glee clubs, mixed choruses, vocal solos and ensembles, instrumental solos and ensembles, and concert and marching bands will be featured in the festival. These performances will be held in Russell, Peabody and Porter auditoriums, the band room, and the Methodist church.

The schedule for the high school festival is as follows:

Thursday -- small instrumental and large vocal groups.

Friday -- small vocal and large instrumental groups.

Friday -- 7 p.m. -- Band parade at GMC.

The Georgia Music Education Association is sponsoring this festival. W. T. Verran, Carlo, is president of this association.

Sanroma, Noted Pianist To Appear Here In Concert April 19th

Sanroma will appear in a piano concert April 9, at 8:30 in Russell Auditorium, concluding the Community Concert Series for the present year.

Wesley Foundation Plans Homecoming

The Wesley Foundation will hold its annual week-end April 11, 12, and 13, in the basement of the Methodist Church, with Ann Hutchinson, retiring president, presiding at the meetings.

There will be a homecoming party for delegations from the University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, and Emory University, April 11 at 6:30 p.m. Entertainment for the occasion will be furnished by the deputation from Georgia Tech.

Don Castlebury will serve as master of ceremonies at the "football banquet" which will be held in the basement of the Methodist Church on April 12, at 6:30 p.m. Several "players" will be present in uniform; and popcorn, peanuts, and candy will be sold. After the program, a turkey dinner, or "fowl play in the game room" will be served by the Women's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Arthur J. Moore, prominently known as a world wide speaker, traveler, and Christian, will speak at the dinner on "Lest We Miss Thy Kingdom's Goal."

On April 13th, at 11:30 a.m., there will be a special church service with Mrs. Arthur J. Moore as the principal speaker.

Tickets for the April 12 banquet are on sale for 60c all this week in each dormitory.

Everyone is invited to the week-end programs.

Chapel Programs

Friday, April 11—No chapel. State Music Festival will be held here.

Monday, April 14—Dr. Dean F. Smalley of the American Medical Association will be the speaker.

Sanroma was born in Puerto Rico in 1903. At an early age his musical talent was discovered and found to be so outstanding that the Puerto Rican government sent him to Boston to study in the New England Conservatory. At the age of 13, he graduated from this institution with honors three years later. He then studied in Boston with Antoinette Szumowska, one of Paderewski's few pupils; with Artur Schnabel in Berlin, and with Alfred Coctat in Paris.

Sanroma has appeared in concerts in London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Madrid, Barcelona, and the major cities of the United States and Canada. During the past two years she has starred at Summer Festivals in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Washington, New Orleans, and New York. He toured Latin America in the summer of 1945, and in 1945-46 he toured the United States and Canada filling over sixty engagements. He rendered a series of programs over CBS coast-to-coast broadcasts, appeared on the Boston Symphony's Summer Pops and Esplande series over the Blue Network, and on the Firestone Hour and RCA Victor show.

Sanroma's engagements for the year include an appearance with The New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra where he will perform the world premiere of the New Hindemith Piano Concert.

Friday, April 16—Annual Parents Day. Miss Jane Sparks will be the speaker for chapel.

Monday, April 21—Nominees for class offices will be introduced.

First Parents Day Since War To Be Observed At GSCW April 18th

Parents' Day, sponsored by the Granddaughters Club, will be observed on Friday, April 18. This event will mark GSCW's first Parents' Day in seven years. A special program has been planned.

Parents will sign in dormitory books on arrival. Miss Bonnie Dale Sansom and Miss Louise Nelson will take charge of local registration for town parents. After registration, the parents are urged to visit dormitories at other buildings, as well as classes, which will be out at 10:30.

Miss Jane Sparks, director of women's programs for WSB in Atlanta, will be the speaker for the chapel program at 11:00 a.m. in Russell Auditorium. An alumnae of G.S.C.W., Miss Sparks received her A.B. degree as a member of the class of 1944. She began her work with WSB in August of that year, and since that time has made quite a name for herself as both writer and producer of programs for WSB. She was selected as one of three narrators for the Fashionata of 1947. Miss Sparks is still chiefly interested in the dramatic side of radio, and the talent which she displayed in her work in the GSCW College Theater is not going to waste.

Lunch will be served on front campus and a prize will be given to the dormitory which can boast of the most parents present.

Student Leaders Go To Conferences

Doris Helton, Margaret Anderson, and Betty Hayes will represent GSCW at conventions this week and next.

Doris Helton and Margaret Anderson will represent GSCW at the annual meeting of the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Governments, April 17, 18, and 19. The meeting is to be held at Sophie Newcomb College, New Orleans, La.

Betty Hayes, president of the GSCW International Relations Club, will attend the Southern Conference of International Clubs, April 11 and 12. The Conference will be held at Randolph Macon College, Ashland, Va.

AIMS OF MAJOR ORGANIZATIONS

CGA—Closer coordination of all the branches of CGA, "Y," and "Rec"; continued cooperation with the faculty on problems relating to faculty and students; strive to promote a more effective honor system by working and cooperating with the Honor Board; careful consideration of any changes in rules, asking for such changes that seem best for the student body; continue support of standing committees and give aid to them in any way possible; consideration of all matters referred to Student Council and take such actions that seem best for the student body; continuation of the Junior Advisors for the Freshmen and plan a training program for them to be executed during spring quarter; encourage more student participation in College Government through all branches of the government, placing emphasis on the in-coming Freshmen; consideration of the recommendations of the out-going Council and continuation of their work; inform students of what is being done about problems relating to the group as a whole, and provide opportunity for students to express their opinions; to make College Government an effective organization in providing for a happier and a better group on our campus.

Y—Enrich the lives of the students through a growing knowledge of God and a study of Christian principles; meet the needs and interests of all members of the campus community through an effective Y program, continue cooperation with CGA and Rec by carrying out a more effective Big Sister program to help with Freshmen Orientation with a training program for Big Sisters in the spring quarter, cooperating with CGA in developing a more effective honor system on our campus; increase student participation by having student speakers on Monday night Y programs, student deputations, student leaders on Current Affairs discussions, and sponsoring an Institute of Personal Relations and Religious Emphasis Week.

Rec—Provide recreation for dates; provide for rental equipment all day during the week; promote better physical fitness for every girl on the campus; encourage girls to participate in games not on a competitive basis, but for the fun of the game; and emphasize the fact that the purpose of Rec is to provide fun for everyone.

Union Recorder Prints Colonnade

The Milledgeville Union-Recorder, which has always taken a great interest in GSCW's school paper, The Colonnade, is edited by Jere N. Moore. The Union-Recorder is Georgia's oldest weekly. It was organized in 1872 by the consolidation of the Federal Union and the Southern Recorder, but the Southern Recorder was established in 1819 and the Federal Union in 1829, thus the paper dates back to 1819, making it 127 years old.

The Union-Recorder has been in the Moore family since prior to the War Between the States. The late Jere N. Moore, the grandfather of the present Mr. Moore, was the editor for sixty years. The late R. B. Moore, his son, was editor from 1902 until his death in 1942 when his son Jere Moore took over the editorship.

Jere N. Moore, the present editor quit his post only for a short time to take part in World War II. He entered the service as a Captain in an anti aircraft unit of the National Guard in 1940. He was among the first to land in the Southwest Pacific, where he spent thirty months. During this time he rose to the rank of a Colonel. Mrs. Moore, his wife, carried on in her husband's place until his return in 1945.

The Union-Recorder has had many obstacles on the way, but they overcame every obstacle in an effort to make regular editions. They even had the printing equipment in the woods when the Yankees marched through. The paper has played a great part in Georgia's history. "It is with pride," said Mr. Moore, "that I am associated with a publication that has played such an important part in Georgia's history. When I think of the people's problems in the dark days after the War Between the States, I am too ashamed to complain of the life's inconveniences we have today."

The Union-Recorder never just stands by and lets the younger papers get ahead but is always right in front with modern journalistic trends. It was among the first of Georgia's weeklies to carry pictures, and it now carries numerous pictures of local people. It also maintains its own photography department WMVG, the radio station in Milledgeville, which was started last March, is an affiliate of the paper.

The paper has had many honors bestowed upon it. It has twice been a winner of the W. G. Sullivan Trophy for outstanding community service. The Thron Shop Trophy was presented to it for the most fearless editorial and the War Crier's prize for the most religious. Mr. Moore, the

Elmo And The Jessie: Or, Elmo's Pay Day

Once upon a time, just to be in good story telling form, there was a Jimmie named Elmo. Private Elmo. Private Elmo was quite intelligent—on the surface, at least. Anyway, brains are of no importance in this story. Personality is the thing.

One fine day Private Elmo decided to take a walk. He had not had a walk in such a long time—that is, unless you count drilling and bullringing. So Private Elmo put on his socks and opened the door. Then he shut the door and put on the rest of his uniform.

Once outside, he took a deep breath. "Ah," sighed Private Elmo. "Abhhhh." He took another deep breath. "Ahhh... CHOO!" Pulling out his kleenex, he trudged bravely on down the street. As he gazed happily around at the world in general, he suddenly did a double-take.

"My stars," said Elmo. "My gosh, Miss Agnes!" And his commanding officer, standing nearby, knew that Elmo had seen a girl. In fact, everybody knew out Elmo. Ignorance is bliss... they say.

"My stars," repeated Elmo, for the benefit of those who hadn't heard him the first time.

"My stars," said the girl, and everybody knew that she had seen Elmo. My gosh, Miss Agnes, what is that?"

Elmo blushed prettily. "It's neon!" the girl cried excitedly. "But what's its name?"

"Edmundson Edward Eustice Elope Ewarter the Third," said Elmo briefly. Just imagine three people with that name.

"I can talk, too." The girl was enchanted. "It must be a Jimmie—just look at those clothes, though."

Elmo did. His shoes were on backwards. He ventured a word. "Are—are you a Jessie?"

"Naturally. All the best people are!"

Elmo was silent for a few minutes. The Jessie started to move away. Elmo wanted to reach out and stop her from leaving. He could not—would not let this strangely wonderful new being pass out of his life so quickly without even saying good-by. He summoned all his courage.

"Good-bye," he whispered. "Good-bye," said the Jessie, sweetly, in his ear.

So ended this lovely romance—for a short while. Elmo proceeded on his way. And his way led right up to "Tommy's." He prepared to make a grand entrance. He straightened his cap and opened the door to enter, but Rastus Farmhouse's boldly sweet past him. "Uncouth creature," murmured Elmo. "No wonder nobody likes him!"

They entered almost together. "Cries of 'Hello, Rastus!' 'Hi, Rastus, ole bean!' 'Rastus, fella!' 'Rastus, Rastus, he's our man... if he can't do it, Nobody present editor, also served as the President for the Georgia Press Association for two years.

The Union-Recorder expects to do even more in the future. As Mr. Moore puts it, "The Union-Recorder has spent 127 eventful years, but just watch us this next 127."

can!") "Oh, hello, Elmo," murmured a skinny little boy. "Er—It IS Elmo, isn't it?" Our hero slipped him a quarter.

After entering, Elmo slowly sid'd his gaze around the room like he had seen the Lone Ranger do in the movies. Not a seat in the house.

"No wonder," thought Elmo, "just look who's here." He blushed and tipped his cap to June-May Cumberforigo and Ilia Never-leave."

"Hi, Elmo," they called. "Come over and sit a spell." Elmo didn't really have time to go and see them, but he'd heard a rumor that they had moved their bad-lamps down from Jessieville to Tommie's end had set up housekeeping in a back booth. Being curious, he had to go and see if that was true.

Truer hearings we never heard. The girls were busy with their knitting, but they were not too busy to entertain a guest.

"But, don't you ever go to classes any more?" Elmo asked.

"No," they replied in confederation. "We don't have time for that. Why, who would look after the booth while we were gone? And, besides, we entertain so much, now that we have our own little place. We're just too busy."

"Oh," said Elmo. Bidding them farewell, he set his cap at a jaunty angle and took his leave of the cozy little fireside scene.

Our hero pulled out his tru little water-gun and fought his way utriugly up to the soda fountain, and when he had reached his goal (three days later because he wasn't polite, and therefore couldn't get ahead), he looked around sternly and fixed a commanding eye on the healthy looking specimen behind the counter.

"I w-want a sm-small lime, please SIR," he demanded.

"One nut sundae, a ham sandwich, and a large chocolate shake coming up," beamed the soda-jerk. "We always like to see you come in, Emo. You always buy such large quantities. Not like some burns I know. No sir, nobody could call YOU stingy, could they, hmmmhmmhmm?"

Elmo shivered slightly. It sure was a cold day. But then, it's always cold in Milledgeville in June. The soda-jerk continued to beam.

"That's eighty cents, Elmo," he drawled chummally. Elmo looked slightly ill.

"Want some bicarbonate?" asked the jerkie, with helpful intentions, of course.

"No, thanks," Elmo said weakly, although he knew he needed SOMETHING. He sadly paid his bill. It was a good time to leave. Exit Elmo.

It was still a pretty day outside. Elmo's heart heaped twice. Ah, love.

"Hi, Neon," called a familiar voice. "I thought somebody would have turned you off by now."

It was the Jessie. Elmo swooned happily.

"Go, you're ppp-pr-er pretty," gulped he.

"Well, now, thank you," the Jessie said. "I think so, too. I hate to say this, because I think I'm going to like you, but I think you look awful. Just DEAD."

Harritt Powel, Myra Sue Jones and Janet Whitaker, new students at GSCW this quarter, check the bulletin board for announcements of big events on campus.

Why don't you get a haircut, honey? You might not look so bad underneath all that hair?"

"Oh, NO!" cried Elmo quickly. "I grew it on that account."

"Oh, Well! Just LOOK where we are! I declare, had you noticed? I hadn't. But we're right outside Tommy's. Of all the incidences. And I was just WISH-ING I had a coke!"

"Uh..." Elmo swallowed hard. Fifty cents he had left.

"Why, ELMO, you SWEET THING! Why I never DREAM-ED you wanted to buy me a coke. Come on, let's go in. Oh! Jerkie, honey! Please let lil' ole me up to the front, you sweet boys, you. Elmo here wants to buy me something to eat. Jerkie, I want a large coke, a ham, and a cheese, and some potato chips."

She looked around for a table. Rastus was sitting in a back booth waving for her to join him.

"Just a minute, Rastus, honey," she called. "Elmo, sugah, Rastus wants me to sit with him. You don't mind, do you? Good. Now you just wait right here and pay for the food. I'll see you later sometime. Good-by."

Elmo sighed. All the way back to main barracks he sighed. Ah, life—Ah, love—Aw heck!

* Aren't they? **Any resemblance to persons living or dead, or to these persons habits is purely co-coincidental. ***Used in preference of union—derived from some foreign word which is not well-received in the deep South, that is, such.

Sixteen New Students Enter Spring Quarter

New students enrolled at GSCW for spring quarter are: Eliza Athon, Jasper; Ruby Bollinger, Atlanta; Mrs. Sara P. Brown, East-onton; Sidney Lanier Clark, Milledgeville; Rebecca Dennard, Atlanta; Dora Dunson, Lawrenceville; Virginia Edmunds, Harlem; Erma Hodges, Milledgeville; Myra Sue Jones, Carrollton; Hazel Middleton, Atkinson; Iris Wynelle Nobles, F. Neleys; Katharine Norton, Atlanta; Sarah Harriet Powell, Atlanta; Frances Rosau, Milledgeville; Evelyn Lee Thompson, Milledgeville; Janet Whitaker, Montrose; Betty Willis, Waverly Hall.

CAMPUS THEATRE
—THURSDAY AND FRIDAY—

There ought to be a law AGAINST KNOWING THE THINGS I FOUND OUT ABOUT MEN!

IDA LUPINO
ROBERT ALDA
ANDREA KING
BRUCE BENNETT

THE MAN I LOVE

Visit The ENNIS COFFEE SHOP
Where Good Food and Courteous Service Is a Daily Custom

Collegiate Digest
National College News In Picture and Paragraph

Faculty and student body cooperated at Michigan State college to publicize the campaign for contributions to the World Student Service Fund. Mrs. Isabelle L. Gonon, counselor for women, shines the shoes of Jack Cawood, member of the varsity basketball team. The shine cost Cawood a 50 cent contribution to the WSSF campaign.

It Flies So High

Using a Japanese balloon found in Oregon during the war, Donald Piccard soars skyward with the dual purpose of testing equipment and promoting the sport of free ballooning.

The University of Minnesota sophomore, son of the famous balloonist Dr. Jean Piccard, took off from downtown Minneapolis and landed 25 miles away.

In circle below he is shown boarding the newly designed aluminum basket.

Mandel Photos

Dr. Walter Robert operates the only coronagraph in the United States at the observatory jointly maintained by the University of Colorado and Harvard 11,500 feet above sea level in Colorado.

Irresistible after evening study hours are the tempting sandwiches sold in Connecticut college dormitories by a group of enterprising students who thus help defray their college expenses or earn money for extras such as flying or horsemanship lessons. Sally Carpenter (center), one of the originators of the "big business," gaily hawks her wares for customers. Barbara D. Witte and Betty Warnken.

On the Changing ... SPORTS SCENE

Only a memory is this snow scene photographed during a toboggan party at Lawrence college, Appleton, Wisc. Bruce Larson (center foreground), long-winded varsity cager admitted to Helen Meyer, "It's a long way up!"

Schuman Photo

Sailing, Sailing

Spring thaw finds collegiate sailing back in the sports picture and competition such as this close finish caught at a Wisconsin-Michigan regatta.

Freehauf Photo

Tor Idlund, Beloit college runner from Norway, is shown flashing his last lap sprint that makes him a top contender for collegiate cross-country honors this spring. In this race he defeated Lawson of Lawrence, former Big 10 titlist.

Hossey Photo

John Gibson, Rutgers university backstroke star, can't seem to get away from the water. After classes and tank practice, "Gib" delivers ice to the married students living at Hillside Campus where he and Mrs. Gibson live in one of the 100 trailers provided by the university.

Harry Wilcoxen, Bradley university flash forward, scored seven baskets out of seven shots attempted in Bradley's 77-58 win over the University of Virginia. Bradley has won 21 games, lost three.

"Pardon me, but this is where I get off," Chet Dembroske of the Westminster college cage team tells a Waynesburg player as he drops a basket that played an important part in Westminster's 59-55 win.

These three members of the University of Florida glee club are literally singing for tuxedos in the club's current drive to find formal dress for its 86 members. Not that the singers are going to have to don barrels, but just so anyone with a spare lux will get the idea they put this shot to music.

Veterans on the campus of the University of North Dakota formed a strong lobby in the state legislature as they appeared before the house and senate appropriations committee to plead for more funds for all state schools. Here they check newspaper reports of their activities in Bismarck.

Fly Time

These students find their course in fly tying and fly casting at the Pennsylvania State college so engrossing, they keep on working after class. They're seven of 86 students enrolled in what is believed to be the first course of its kind ever offered in an American college.

And these are the winners of Occidental college's tug-a-war contest that pitted sophomore girls against freshmen boys! Victors were in mud up to their waists and the losers up to their necks. Weather prediction—sunshine tomorrow.

Riederhof Photo

World's Record Catch

MRS. DOROTHY ALLAN NEWSTEAD, NOTED DEEP-SEA FISHING EXPERT, PROVES THAT EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER IN BIG-GAME FISHING.

I GIVE UP—THREE HOURS AND NOT A NIBBLE. LET'S TRY FOR SOME KINGFISH.

I'M TIRED OF KINGFISH—I WANT A GOOD FIGHT! CAPTAIN, I THINK I'LL CHANGE MY BAIT.

THAT BALAO MAY BE ALL RIGHT FOR SAILS, BUT LET'S TRY MULLET AND THE OTHER REEL.

YOUNG? YES, BUT SHE'S A VETERAN AT THIS GAME! MRS. NEWSTEAD HAS FISHED ALL HER LIFE—ALL OVER THE WORLD!

I'LL JUST SMOKE A CAMEL AND WATCH HER.

STRICKEN MARLIN?

MAYBE IT'S A SAILFISH.

NO—A SAILFISH WOULD BE OUT OF THE WATER! AND HE'S DIVING TOO DEEP FOR A MARLIN. WHATEVER, HE IS, HE'S A FIGHTER!

R. J. Ruzicki-Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina

35 MINUTES LATER

HE'S GOT A YELLOW BELLY—IT'S A COBIA!

BIGGEST I'VE EVER SEEN IN THE GULF STREAM! BET IT'S A RECORD!

CONGRATULATIONS, MRS. NEWSTEAD—TAKES EXPERIENCE TO LAND ONE LIKE THAT!

69 POUNDS! I THINK THAT'S A NEW WORLD'S RECORD.

I SEE YOU PREFER CAMELS, MRS. NEWSTEAD.

CHALK UP TO EXPERIENCE TOO. AFTER ALL THE DIFFERENT BRANDS I SMOOKED DURING THE WAR SHORTAGE, I REALLY APPRECIATE CAMELS.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD FOR COBIA TO MRS. DOROTHY NEWSTEAD

The International Game Fish Association today announced that Mrs. Dorothy Allan Newstead's recent catch of a 69 pound cobia had been recognized as the new women's all-time record for cobia.

Mrs. Newstead, who has spent the last of her long career in the fishing business from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER... IN DEEP-SEA FISHING... IN CIGARETTES TOO. CAMELS SUIT MY 'T-ZONE' TO A 'T'

Dorothy A. Newstead

YOUR "T-ZONE" WILL TELL YOU... T for Taste... T for Thrill... that's your growing ground for any cigarette. See if Camels don't suit your "T-Zone" to a "T"

CAMEL

TURKISH & DOMESTIC BLEND CIGARETTES

MORE PEOPLE ARE SMOKING Camels THAN EVER BEFORE

Holder of the International Women's All-Tackle Record for Cobia

Ur Pr T core a gi pap by Rec wee by era) cor der the the mai T in to Th gra Mo yea sof his Jel shi tot in II. Ca the wa thi spu tu Co car un me thi an Th eq the Th pa wi I tic po Wi pr th ar th to st pe ri ne fu ca ri pe p W le M be be li m T th mo

Spring Hed Cub

Tradition at Ohio Wesleyan university decrees that no one except high and mighty seniors may sit upon the stone bench outside the famous Gray chapel. When unsuspecting Marion Parsons, a freshman, was caught on the bench, she got the usual sentence as shown in picture No. 2. Result: A spring cold, hot foot bath and a hot water bottle not shown here.

Centennial twins Tania Kunsy (left) and Eleanor Sterling of New York City college pose with the 100th anniversary birthday cake at an alumni luncheon commemorating the event. Dresses are 1847 models.

Treasure Room . . .

... by Floyd Bright, student at the University of Oklahoma was named winner in the National Collegiate Photography Exhibition sponsored by Kappa Alpha Mu in 1946. Announcement of an April 30 deadline for the 1947 saloon was made by the honorary pictorial journalism fraternity. Collegiate photographers can obtain information from the national headquarters at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

Teachers to be Edith L. Milton and Betty Brentari of Kansas State Teachers college exchanged their scholastic robes for more informal garb during an Indian ceremony on the campus. After being initiated into the tribe, they decided Early American costumes are not so hot.

Wrangles in Georgia's politics brought fangles out on the Emory university campus when the Chi Phi house was set up as the "governors' mansion." Key figures in the picture were not identified—no two people could agree.

Collegiate Digest
Advertising Representative:
NATIONAL ADVERTISING SERVICE INC.
Publication Office: 18 Journalism Building, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis 14, Minnesota.
420 Madison Avenue, New York

Rambling . . .
With Rec

THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS new officers make plans for programs to be held in conjunction with current affairs programs. Seated, left to right are, Priscilla Neves, Billie Sweerus, Flossie Pittman, and Anola Lee.

Plans Announced For 'Y' Apartment Scene Spring Band Concert Of Luncheon April 17

The band at GSCW under the direction of Eugene Keck is making plans for a concert to be given during spring quarter, the date to be announced later. A campaign to enlist all GSCW students who played in high school bands is now under way. Jackie Hodges, publicity chairman for the band, stated that townspeople and crypts from Georgia Military College had also been invited to join the band.

Members of the band are: Virginia Coffee, Eastman; Betty Stencil, Gainesville; Sue Callaway, Rayle; Carol Brown, Taccos; Jean Garwood, Cordele; Fanny Lee, Atlanta; Katherine Kent, Tifton; Phillis Sherman, Lowell, Mass.; Mary Meadows, Berryton; Lois Bowden, Cordele; Mary Jordan, Washington; Joyce Oliphant, Sparks; Hattie Whitehurst, Adel; Kathryn Summerford, LaGrange; Barbara Thompson, Washington. Claire Morris, Ellaville; Sarah Betty Martin, Elberton; Athleen Hill, Cordele; Joanna Rainey, Elberton; Martha Kelly, Atlanta; Joy White, Dublin; Carolyn Hancock, Atlanta; Jean Whitmire, Decatur; Louise Walden, Rome; Mary B. Wilson, Crawfordville; Mildred Wolf, Cedartown; Rose Nell Weems, Summerville; Marguerite Williams, Buena Vista; Patricia Turner, Cordele; Lillie Suder, Atlanta; Mary Ann Sum-

Quicker Service In Student Union

Quicker service is wanted in the Student Union; therefore it has been suggested that we take all dishes back to the counter, in order to enable the personnel to remain behind the counter to serve us immediately.

Dreams That Almost Went Up In Smoke

(Place - Room 1313, Dormitory Anonymous. Jessieville. U.S.A. Characters - Inhabitants of 1313, Time - The town clock has just announced Four Bells, but no one notices because they are really "out of this world.")

A sound suspiciously resembling the sawing of logs rumbles through the room. Otherwise all is quiet. "z z z. Oh, how wonderful. Just imagine - my final Social Science exam and I know all the answers. Gosh, is this a crisp test! Umm! How did Tommy get into this picture?? He's supposed to be in Germany, but here he is, and he has five gorgeous orchids with him! And guess who for?? This is heavenly. Well, suit-mate, what are you doing here? I've got twelve letters in my p.o. box and four packages?? Yippee! And I have a phone call?? Huh! Local or long distance? Oh, both! Gee! This is the nicest day I ever spent. Now how did Tommy and I get on this dance floor? Oh, well it really doesn't matter. Look! A stag line! 500 men and only 50 girls. And me with a new black formal! I've never had so many breaks in my life. Wonder who this tall, good-looking six-footer is who's advancing on this way? Wrufff! I wonder . . . Now how did that police siren get in here? Or is it a fire engine?? It's getting louder. Why don't they keep police cars away from forman

OUR WATCH DRAWING WILL BE HELD FRIDAY, APRIL 11th
Please Be Present at 4:00
PARKER'S CLEANERS

MAKE MOTHER "QUEEN FOR A DAY" ON MAY 11th!
It's no secret that every woman would like to be "Queen for a Day" . . . and especially Mother. She's so busy doing things for everybody else in the family, she doesn't often have time to indulge in the luxury of feeling like a queen. But Mother's Day—May 11th offers the perfect occasion.

J. C. GRANT CO. — JEWELERS
MILLEDGEVILLE, GA.

Students To Attend State Home Ec Meet

Representatives from GSCW will attend the State Home Economics Conference at Bessie Tift College, Forsyth, April 18 and 19. Those attending from GSCW will be: Evelyn Warren, president of the Upper-Cassam Home Economics Group and State Club Reporter, and Mary Catherine Chapman, State Corresponding Secretary. Miss Roslyn Ivy, the Club Adviser here, will accompany the girls to Bessie Tift.

Notice!

The Co-ordinated Council of Religious Activities is sponsoring a Bible Study Breakfast each Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the "Y" apartment. This quarter Rev. Edmund Perry is conducting a study of the Gospel of St. John. A breakfast of fruit will be held April 19 at 10 o'clock a.m. to choose the best toast and jelly, is served for only ten cents. Everyone is invited to come, and the study is over in plenty of time to get to 8:30 classes.

Faculty Forecast

Dr. Wells was the guest speaker at the Elbert County Teachers Annual Banquet in Elberton on April 3. Today he will speak at the Annual Banquet of the Voluntary Religious Association at the University of Georgia in Athens. His topic will be "Life's Real Value." On April 15th he will address the Fitzgerald Rotary Club and the Fitzgerald High School.

Dean MacMahon will speak at Miller High School today and at Westeyan College April 10.

Mrs. Bernice McCuller will speak at the Woman's Club in Moultrie on April 9th.

Dr. George Beiswanger has three lectures scheduled for April: Perry, April 17th; Carrollton, April 19th; and Sparta, April 25th.

Tennis, Tennis Players!

A sheet is placed in the bulletin board of the Physical Education Building to be used for signing up the tennis courts for the hours which are available for the players other than those who are enrolled in the regularly scheduled classes. For us to be able to avoid any unpleasant arguments about the courts of a game which is known to be traditionally courteous, please be sure that you have the court when you go to play.

THE "BIG THREE" of the 1948 Spectrum relax before their work begins. Seated left to right, are Joe Shivers, associate editor; Edith Lewis, editor in chief; and Carolyn Brewton, business manager.

WOOTTEN'S BOOK STORE
STATIONERY
SHAEFFER PENS
GIFT CARDS
SCRAPBOOKS
ALBUMS

A PERFECT MOTHER'S DAY GIFT

Special 89c
$1.00 Evening in Paris Face Powder—50c

CULVER & KIDD DRUG CO.

—Dial 224—
Free Delivery

A Cappella Returns After Successful Tour Romantic South Dance Theme

The Milledgeville College Choir left Wednesday night, March 19, for one of the most successful tours in the history of the choir. Sixty-three students and their chaperones composed the group.

The group gave a concert in the Baptist Church in Vidalia Wednesday night. Thursday night a concert was presented at the Methodist Church in Cordele. Athleen Hill, Cordele, a choir member, entertained with open house in her home.

The choir advanced to Waycross Friday, where they performed in the First Baptist church. After this concert the group was entertained in the home of Carol Jean Cason. Saturday morning the group visited Laura Waker Park which is on the edge of the Okefenokee Swamp.

The choir was cordially welcomed to Florida by a large attendance to the concert in the Baptist Church, at Jasper, on Saturday evening. On Sunday, the group visited Silver Springs where they saw the Indian Village and underwater wonders. Sunday evening they presented a program in the First Methodist Church, Sanford.

Monday, the choir went to Lake Wells where they visited Bok Tower, and the Musa Isle Indian Village and Hialeah Park in Miami. Monday evening they gave a concert in the Trinity Methodist Church. The concert was followed by a tea. Tuesday, the group visited the Macfeadon-Deauville Club, and dined at the Cabanna Club. They also saw the fastest sport, known, Jai A Lai (Hill), being played at Biscayne Fronton.

The presented a concert in the Methodist Church on Wednesday and were entertained by the Woman's Club in Pametto. On Thursday, the choir presented a concert in Sarasota, where they saw the John and Mable ingling Art Museum, the Ringling Mansion, and the Ringling Circus. On Saturday, the group came by way of the Tamiami Trail from Miami to Tampa, where they had a program in the Baptist Church on Friday. The church gave a reception in their honor.

The group came back into Georgia on Saturday, and gave a concert in the Moultrie High school Sunday they advanced to Dublin

The Freshman Class dance was held in the gymnasium Saturday, April 5. The theme, "Old South," was carried out in the decorations, which featured a copy of the front of the old Governor's Mansion, complete with columns. A large drawing of a Negro Mammy and a small child eating watermelon covered the wall at one end of the gym. The figure of a Confederate soldier dancing with a southern belle dressed in a pink crepe dress trimmed with sequins, decorated the opposite wall.

Hat check girls were at the door to check bids and wraps. Music was furnished by the civilian orchestra from Warner Robins.

'Skin Of Our Teeth' Set For April 24, 25

"The Skin of Our Teeth," famous Broadway show, will be presented by the College Theatre April 24th and 25th in Russell Auditorium.

Leading characters will be: Ann Wells, Marjon Barber, Sabina; Virginia Bradford, Anne Patterson, Gladys; Earla Poulnot, Weylene Edwards, Mrs. Antrobus; Frances Lawson, Anne Mainor, Fortune - Teller; Dr. Keeler, Mr. Antrobus. The audience also acts in this play.

The play is a three-act comedy, a satire on human life, with action taking place not only on the stage but also in the audience. The characters portray a group of people who lived in the Ice Age. These people get into many difficulties, but they always manage to get by "By the skin of their teeth."

Tentative crew leaders for "The Skin of our Teeth" are: Emily Neal, make-up; Jean Whitmire, sound; Edith Ellington, publicity; Beulah Oliphant, stage; Virginia Jolly, costume; Gretchen Waldrep, lights; Dot Mainor, props.

where they presented a concert for the Dublin Naval Hospital and the Baptist Church. The tired, but excited group arrived in Milledgeville Sunday evening.

TRIPLE SMOKING PLEASURE

Gregory Peck
STARRING IN
DAVID O. SELZNICK'S
"DUEL IN THE SUN"

A ALWAYS Milder

B BETTER TASTING

WITH THE TOP
HOLLYWOOD STARS
CHESTERFIELD IS
THE BIG FAVORITE

C COOLER SMOKING

ALWAYS BUY CHESTERFIELD
ALL OVER AMERICA - CHESTERFIELD IS TOPS!

Copyright 1947, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

"He marries the one in the Judy Bond"

JUDY BOND BLOUSES ARE SOLD AT BETTER STORES EVERYWHERE

Free booklet "WARDROBE TRICKS" Write Judy Bond, Inc. Dept. J, 1375 Broadway New York 18

HI GANG!
You Just Can't Know What You've Missed If You Haven't Seen
TOMMIE'S
NEW SPRING OUTFIT!
Come on Down and Enjoy a "Coke" With Us!