Publication Editors Announce Election Of Business Mgrs. - Ponsell And Meeks

Editors of the two GSCW publications recently announced the election of their Business Managers for the year.

Holding the business office of the COLONNADE is Marie Ponsell, a sophomore from Waycross, Georgia.

Marie came to GSCW from Wacona High and is seeking a major in Home Economics with minors in both Psychology and Science. Besides being active in the Home Economics Club, she is also a member of the BSU and is a Sunday School Attendance Promoter for Ennis Hall. The office of Business Manager is just a step up for Marie as she has been a member of the COLONNADE business staff for two years. Included among her interests and hobbies are sewing, dancing, and stamp collecting.

Pat Meeks, a native of Griffin, Georgia, is now assuming the office of Business Manager of the Spectrum. Seeking a major in Home Economics with a minor in Science, Pat, a member of the Junior Class, is active in the Home Economics Club and Phi U. She is a member of College Theatre and International Relations Club, and she is in charge of Y's Current Affairs. Being a Home Economics Major, Pat's hobbies would certainly include sewing and cooking.

Dates To Eat Here

Beginning this Sunday noon, Jessies may invite their dates to eat dinner with them in the Dining Hall. For this dance weekend, the Senior Dining Room will be used, but on all other Sundays, they will dine in the large area with the other students.

Miss Dunson Will Remain Y Director

It has recently been announced that Miss Miriam Dunson will remain next year as acting director of voluntary religious activities, in the absence of Miss Isabel Rogers.

Miss Rogers has made the decision to continue working toward her doctorate in Christian Ethics at Duke University, under Dr. Waldo Beach.

Miss Dunson had planned to return to her missionary work in Korea this summer, but has consented to stay on at the GSCW Y until at least the middle of next spring quarter. She hopes to be back in Korea by June 1960 for the Annual Mission Meeting of the Korean Mission workers.

CAMPUS - WIDE TEA

The annual campus-wide tea, sponsored by the dormitories, will be held this year on April 26 from 3 to 5 o'clock in the Bell garden. Students, faculty, administration, parents, and visitors are invited to attend.

Preparations For 1959 Freshman Class Include Selection Of Junior Advisors

Spring is here again! And sure as the flowers begin to blossom every year, so do preparations for the incoming Freshman Class.

While the raw March wind was still blowing, and tiny leaves were just beginning their struggle for an Easter appearance, a group of people, consisting of the voting members of CGA, huddled for hours in a tiny back room at Lake Laurel to discuss, consider, and elect the Junior Advisors for next year. 'Twas a cold day and night, but there was no chill or dampness around these people. The discussion was lively, enthusiastic, and sincere as name after name was submitted.

Not only did the Vice President of CGA submit fourteen names, but every person was allowed to add names of other incoming Juniors. From the group of almost twenty members of CGA there came more names and the discussion became more intense and detailed. As the group worked in complete harmony and cooperation to consider each person, fairly and objectively, it became apparent that choosing twelve girls from our present Sophomore Class was going to be a most difficult job. Nevertheless, the time for voting drew near and the group took their ballots to cast their votes in secret. As they returned their ballots, the faces of the voters mirrored their confidence that this group of Junior Advisors would be among the best ever to live in the Terrell Halls.

These are the people who were named: Jane Chance, Jo Ann Connor, Tina Culpepper, Betty Jeanes, Sandy Ledford, Pat Patillo, Cathey Penn, Marcia Perry, Suzanne Pharr, Glenda Wilson, Ann Williams, and Ann Jane Yarbrough. The five alternates are Jackie Giametta, Pat Dotson, Sharon Elkins, Judy McCommons, and Eve Meacham.

When choosing these Junior Advisors, it was always kept before

Gym To Be A Seascape; Spring Formal Tonight

GEORGE DOEMER

The annual Spring Formal will be held tonight, April 18, in the gymnasium. George Doemer and his orchestra will play for the dance, which will last from eight till twelve.

The gym will be decorated with fish nets and balloons. Tables and chairs will be placed at the opposite end of the gym from the bandstand. A section of the gym will be reserved for the faculty. The floor of the Modern Dance studio will be strewn with "sand" (sawdust), with a display of fish, seahorses, and seashells.

Following the dance a breakfast will be given from twelve until one-thirty a.m. in the rec hall of each dormitory, where the couples can enjoy coffee, doughnuts, and dancing.

the group that these girls must possess the characteristics that we would like to see our freshmen acquire. The prospects of venturing forth to advise a class of several hundred new students is enough to leave any upperclassman shaking in her shoes with fright, but after viewing these girls and the qualities they possess, it is with a great deal of confidence and excitement that we look forward to the first six weeks of Fall Quarter.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased in the Student Union, at $3.00 per couple.

The following people are serving as chairmen:

Colonnade Editor Names New Staff

The minor officers of the COLONNADE have been announced. The Associate Editor, Sue Jackson, is a sophomore elementary education major from Irwinton and is also the BSU representative from her dorm.

Mary Cowden Jones, Copy Editor, is a freshman English major from Chattanooga, who is also a member of the Literary Guild. Linda Kitchens, Feature Editor, is a sophomore and a day student is majoring in math and chemistry. Linda is a member of the Chemistry Club and is a Phi Sigma. The Circulation and Exchange Editor, Faye Parks, is a math major from Manchester and is a member of Penguins and the Milledgeville Community Band. Susanne Rockett, Society Editor, is a sophomore English major who hails from Stone Mountain. Suzanne sings with the A Cappella Choir. Sports Editor, Rita Perdue, is a physical education major from Thomaston and is treasurer of the Physical Education Club.

"Craig's Wife" To Come Apr. 30

College Theatre has announced that it will present "Craig's Wife" April 30 and May 1 in Russell Auditorium. "Craig's Wife" has an intriguing plot about a very pious woman who becomes so enthralled in her community activities that she neglects both her husband and her home.

The cast is an interesting mixture of faculty and students. Mr. Jack Gore plays Craig; Henrietta Moody, his wife. Mary Louise Dodson is Ethel Landruff, Jackie Giametta is the maid, Faye Teague is Mrs. Harold, Ruth Blackwell is Mrs. Frazier. Mr. George Arnot plays Gene Fredricks, Dee Dee D'Aubert plays Aunt Austin, and Milledgeville's Joe Duke and Ike Thomas play the detectives.

Well, here I have the opportunity of a lifetime—my first editorial and I can get all the things I've wanted to get off my chest for so long; yet now I'm not so sure I want to. I'm just beginning to realize the responsibilities and privileges of a college newspaper and its editor. I believe that the newspaper—this [newspaper, the COLONNADE—should be the true voice of the students. It has a definite responsibility to uphold the integrity of the student body, yet it must have due respect for the administration and faculty too.

Rule Changes

ED. note: Rule changes, suggested by dormitory floors, were discussed on Friday evening of Easter weekend at CGA retreat. In order for students to vote informally when these are brought up at the Student Body meeting, the Colonnade has asked Dianne McGill, Secretary of CGA, to record some of the thinking and suggestions of the group.

As the rule stands, students may not wear sports clothes in the dining hall at any time. It is suggested that we be allowed to wear sports clothes all three meals on Saturday.

- Pros: 1. GSCW is our home and at home we are not expected to wear street clothes to meals on Saturday. Saturday is considered a day of relaxing and playing. 2. It requires valuable time from studying and other chores to dress three times a day for meals.

- Cons: 1. This would not be in keeping with the atmosphere of our dining hall. The dress creates this atmosphere and changing the dress would of course change the atmosphere. GSCW should show forth the highest dignity of womanhood. Would this change do this? 2. This much informality of dress might cause us to become lax in our table manners.

- Suggestions: 1. To change the meal or meals to buffet or cafeteria style. Something informal, since the noon meal is already informal. 2. Wear sports clothes only to breakfast and lunch, not to supper. 3. Define sports clothes and set an example by dressing in neat ones. 4. Put the change on a trial basis for a quarter and then evaluate it.

As the rule now stands, the recreation hall is opened on Saturday night to dates. It is suggested that the rec halls be opened on Friday nights to dates also.

- 1. Girls without dates need one night to be in rec halls to watch TV in sports clothes. 2. Let procedure be left up to the individual houses. 3. Open the SU for dating and eliminate the problem.

As the rule now stands, a student may spend the night in another dormitory on Saturday nights with the approval of the House Director. It is suggested that student be allowed to spend Friday and Saturday nights in another dorm with same approval.

The Unconquerable Spirit

by Lucy Robinson
ED. NOTE: Reprinted from an article appearing in the March 10 issue of a monthly bulletin published by the Business Education Service of the State Dept. of Education.

These are interesting days! Newspapers, television, and radio keep us well informed of pertinent issues of our times, particularly those concerned with education. Through these media the workings of the minds of men unfold in restless confusion. It causes one to stop long enough to ponder whether she, too, is a part of the confused mass or whether she belongs to the minority group of searchers seeking and probing to find answers.

My travels about the state last quarter provided plenty of driving time for reflective thinking. This is good! Everyone needs time to gain a new perspective through retrospect of basic fundamentals. From one who has lived so little but learned so much in a relatively short span, are some reflections concerning these fundamentals:

There is a crying need for consistency—in our government, in our schools, in our churches, in individual thinking. Folks just do not know what to count on any more. To be sure the other extreme of conformity for the sake of consistency is not the answer, but between the two there must be a common ground for the meeting of minds. It is not wise to ignore the two extremes—complacent inertia and belligerent neutrality.

The quietest voice often carries the carefully-chosen words of the most powerful thinker. Too often now one finds the loudest voice does not necessarily reflect the thinking of the speaker. People must exercise the democratic right to freedom of thought and speech. Otherwise, "what profit it a man . . . ?"

It is the unconquerable spirit of the dedicated teacher, underlined by a staunch fidelity to her profession and to her own soul, which will make or break our educational process in the final analysis. Mind you, the unconquerable spirit. There comes a time when common sense dictates the slowing of pace in order to look back over progress to a certain point. There is a marked dissimilarity, however, in accepting compromise for the sake of new achievement and of compromising with one's own fundamental beliefs. The unconquerable spirit is subservient to no man, to no idea, to no faction.

These are reflections in retrospect by Robinson . . . . .

Letters to the Editor

Last week when the "POLE" hit the SU, so many delighted comments were made: "This is really what this school needed" and "Congratulations to the COLONNADE for a great idea." Why Congratulations? Because it cleared the air, that's why. It took all kinds of things that students had been secretly and somberly griping about, and, giving them a fresh and goofy slant, made us laugh at our own troubles and perhaps see them in proper perspective.

The gaiety of the April Fool paper was the best thing that ever hit GSCW, not just for clearing the air in regard to our problems, but also for the zany spoofing on all kinds of crazy things not necessarily connected with GSCW, like that letter from the typing students?!!% Cathey Wiygul

Dear Editor: Why have we been told not to wear short shorts on the tennis courts and back campus? I do not recall such a rule going through the proper channels (Social Standards Committee? CGA?) Who is going to measure for a 2-inch difference in length anyway? As long as the shorts are a proper fit for a girl, I think they could be worn. This rule seems to be more enforced for the girls in Ennis Hall. As they cross the street going to PE and go up front campus they certainly do look sloppy in gym suits plus a skirt or raincoat. Nothing could be more uniform than the regulation gym wear, and, it looks nice when worn correctly. If we are not going to be allowed to wear short shorts, the rule should be enforced campus wide, the gym suit will have to be changed, and many of us will have to be uncomfortable in hot Bermudas or Jamaicas.

Student Union To Open Sat. Nites; Dating Area Problem Almost Solved

According to an announcement by Mr. Herbert Meyer, the Student Union will henceforth be open on Saturday nights. The grand opening is scheduled for April 25. Hours are to be from 7:30 to 11:30. This plan will continue on every Saturday night brought throughout the rest of the quarter.

These plans were announced at Thursday's dinner meeting of the Faculty Committee on Student Relations, to which CGA Executive and Cabinet members were invited. Additional suggestions came from the group. Monday or Tuesday will see the arrival of a jukebox which will be placed between the two triple windows on the west wall. It will be installed on a trial basis for this quarter and will be reinstalled in September only if it is sufficiently patronized.

During these Saturday night hours, hot and cold drinks and sandwiches may be bought at the counter. Decorations to create an "atmosphere" in the SU will be planned and realized by the Committee on Coeducational Activities in cooperation with the administration and advisors from the Art and Home Economics departments. Suggestions so far have included: (1) to hang pennants from various universities on the walls, (2) to place waxed bottles with candles on the tables.

It needs to be emphasized that this is for all students. Such an atmosphere would be created that GMC boys and GSCW girls will feel free to drop in and mix it up at anytime during the evening.

There are bright prospects for renovations on a larger scale for next fall. Booths, new tables and chairs, and softer lighting are likely to be installed. There is also the possibility that, if folding doors are put in to close off the business area, the SU could possibly be open every night. In this case, additional vending machines for cigarettes, crackers, candy, orange juice and milk, etc., would be installed. On the other hand, if there is enough demand for more substantial food, the counter could possibly be opened perhaps a set hour per evening (9-10 p.m.?), provided sufficient funds and help would be available.

These plans and ideas are the culmination of work and agitation by various campus groups. The Committee on Coeducational Activities, of which Joanne Conner is chairman, studied the dating area problem last quarter and reported that the Student Union seemed to be the only answer, since Grant's could remain open only on Friday nights, since Thornton's would have to charge a cabaret tax for dancing, since the Elks Club proposal to be open one night a week for GSCW students would not be workable until the distant future. The COLONNADE has been most interested in the problem and last Saturday sent a reporter, Mary Cowden Jones, to inquire of administrative officials what progress was being made, to convey the intense student unrest, and to urge that definite action be forthcoming. Mr. Meyer was extremely receptive, and immediately devoted his thoughts and energies to the problem, the result of which was the Thursday night announcement.

It has been suggested that the new dating center be given a name of the same type as other college student unions, such as Stetson's "Hotrack," or MacMurray's "Hub". (See the notice of the naming contest, on this page.)

Name The SU Contest!

Where will Jessies take their dates next year? To the "Elbow Room?" To the "Do Drop Inn?" To the "Purple People Eatery?" The COLONNADE is sponsoring a "Name the SU Contest." Students may submit as many entries as they wish. These may be dropped in a box for that purpose located on the table in the Post Office. Please do not forget to include your name entry. Contest closes May 1, so don't delay in submitting your brainstorm!

QUILLIAN WHITE Miss White Will Give Voice Recital

On April 22 in Porter Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., Miss Quillian White, attractive young voice instructor here at GSCW, will present a recital accompanied by Dr. George Beiswanger. Miss White is new on the campus this year, but already she has won the hearts of her students and associates.

Miss White's education has been thorough and her experience varied before coming to GSCW. She received her B.A. in Voice and minor in Theory and Music History from Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Virginia. After completing four years study at Randolph - Macon, Miss White went on to the University of North Carolina where she received her M.A. in Musicology. Miss White's musical versatility is verified by her work in radio and television and by her choral work for two years with Robert Shaw in New York City.

Miss White's recital will be presented in five groups. The songs included are from the Baroque, Classic, Romantic, Impressionistic, and Modern periods, and are by the composers Handel, Mozart, Debussy, Brahms, Rachmaninoff, and Hegeman to name a few.

Dianne McGill Elected 59-60 Treasurer Of SIASG Recently At Stetson Univ.

Two weeks ago, at Stetson University in DeLand, Florida, Dianne McGill, a math major from Thompson, Georgia, was elected Treasurer of the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government (SIASG). This organization is composed of member colleges from all over the South who seek to share with each other the ideas and ideals of their individual Women's Student Government.

Shirley Pritchett Is Panama Bound

SHIRLEY PRITCHETT

Word has just been received by Miss Shirley Pritchett of the Health and Physical Education Department that she has been appointed to a teaching position in the Panama Canal Zone next year. Miss Pritchett will teach physical education in the Balboa Heights High School and Canal Zone Junior College in Balboa Heights, which is on the Pacific side of the canal zone. Appointed by the Panama Canal Company, which is owned by the United States Government, she will have civil service status. Her students will be children of U. S. employees.

A GSCW graduate, Miss Pritchett received her M.S. at the University of Tennessee, has taught at Thomasville High, Hapeville High, and Wesleyan before returning this year to take Miss Chapin's classes.

Day Students Move In To Parks Hall

Day Students will soon be moving into their new Day Student Room in Parks Hall Basement. The area has been newly plastered and painted, and has had overhead fluorescent lighting installed. New furnishings have not yet arrived, but will include lockers, daybeds, sofas, study tables, lamps, and draperies.

This new lounge is the first step to the reorganization of the Day Student Group. The next big step is changing the organization so that the day students will be set up as a sixth dormitory on campus. A council will be appointed and officers will be elected in the same manner as in the dormitories.

SIASG Conference Recently Attended

GSCW student council leaders recently had the privilege of attending the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Governments conference held at Stetson University in DeLand, Florida, April 2 through 5. This convention brings leaders of southern schools together permitting them a free exchange of ideas and problems thereby broadening their aspect and enabling them to contribute more to their own campus governments. It is essential that the convention stimulates and challenges each individual in her role as a student leader, pointing out the possibilities and the responsibilities that her position carries.

Those representing GSCW were Peggy Eubanks, Suzanne Pharr, Anne Blakely, Jo Donohoo, Dianne McGill, Ann Jane Yarbrough, Barbara Ellerbee, Betty McWhorter, Charlotte Hollis, June Allen, Cathey Penn, Dr. Barbara Chandler, Miss Lucy Robinson, and Miss Helen Wild.

tributes to the pleasing personality of this week's "Column Maid," Sylvia Brown.

Sylvia is a 5' 4" brunette from Macon, Georgia. During her two years at GSCW, she has taken liberal arts courses while making a valuable contribution to campus life.

She has been a member of the Penguin Club, served as President of her dormitory House Council, and as Secretary to the College Government Association. Recently, she has headed one of the committees to make plans for the Spring Dance.

A well rounded personality enables Sylvia to enjoy activities such as sewing, swimming, water skiing, reading, and playing the piano.

Her alert sense of humor leads her to confide to COLONNADE readers that she uses striped tooth paste for that winning smile, which is one of her most valuable assets.

GSCW Girls In Miss Milledgeville

Nine Jessies participated in the "Miss Milledgeville" Pageant on April 8 in Baldwin High School Auditorium. The official preliminary contest of the Miss America Pageant was presented by the Milledgeville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Three of these contestants were among the five finalists. First runner up was Janice Mangham, a freshman from Bremen, who gave a comedy reading "But We Weren't a Doing Nothing". She wore a white swim suit and a lace and net, misty coral formal. She won both the evening gown and swim suit contests.

Jane Prosser, a junior from Milledgeville, who was among the finalists, did a pantomime to "Honey Bun". She wore a white swim suit and a ballerina length formal of four shades of blue net.

Phyllis Kelley, a freshman from Wrens, also among the five, did a pantomime to "What Ya Doin' In The Woods, Baby?" Phyllis also wore a white swim suit and a blue formal of taffeta.

The other six contestants from G.S.C.W. were as follows: Cathy Wiygul, a sophomore from Umattilla, Florida, who wore a yellow swim suit and a pink taffeta formal. She did a comedy pantomime to "Say That We're Sweethearts Again"; Linda Campbell, a sophomore from Dalton, who played and sang, "I'm In the Mood For Love", and wore a gown of white tiered net and a red knit swim suit; Suzanne Rockett, a sophomore from Stone Mountain who sang "Blues In The Night", and wore a white formal of lace and a white swim suit; Claudia Hughes, from Albany, who did a baton twirling routine and wore a white net formal and a navy blue swim suit; Mary Thomas, a junior from Cairo, who modeled a dress she designed and made, also wore a white swim suit and a white net formal; and Carol Kinard, a freshman from Thomaston, who did a toe-tap dance. Carol wore a black swim suit and a net formal of two pale blues.

Elections of class officers for the coming year were held Tuesday, April 14, and the run-overs on Thursday, April 16.

The following people are to be the new officers of the Sophomore class: Sandy Brock, a Physical Education major from Macon, will serve as President. Serving as Vice-President will be Elaine Curry, an English major from Oconee. The new secretary will be Polly Blount from Waynesboro, and Rita Perdue, a Physical Education Major from Thomaston, will serve as Treasurer. Katrina McKay, a Home Economics major from Covington, will serve as Representative to Judiciary; Myrtice Carpenter, a Physical Education major from Fernandina Beach, Florida, as Representative to CGA; and Barbara Ellerbee, a Music major from Thomaston, as Representative to Honor Council.

In the Junior class the officers are as follows: Christine Culpeper, an Elementary Education major from Brunswick, is to serve as President, and Jane Chance, a Chemistry major from Hapeville, will be the Vice-President. Serving as Secretary will be Marty MacBeth, a Music Education major from Albany. A Business Education major from Dublin, Harriet Register, is to be Treasurer. Representative to Judiciary will be Marcia Perry who is a Math major from Macon; Representative to CGA is an Elementary Education major from Rochell, Jane Gordon; and Pat Pattillo, a Home Economics major from Dexter, will serve as Representative to Honor Council.

The following people were elected to serve as the new officers of the Senior class: Serving as President will be Corinne McLemore who is a Home Economics major from Atlanta, while Jane O'Dell, an Elementary Education major from Newnan will serve as Vice-President. Delores Allgood (better known as "Dee"), a Business Education major from Fitzgerald, is to be Secretary; and Drusilla Smith, a Home Economics major from Bethlehem, Georgia, will serve as Treasurer. Ann O'Dell, an Elementary Education major from Newnan is to be Representative to CGA, and Representative to Honor Council will be June Allen, a Social Science major from Jasper. Run over elections between Evelyn Richardson and Janet Roderique for Representative to Judiciary will be held Monday, April 20.

Music Recitals By GSCW Students Brighten Months Of April And May

The S.A.I. Musicales will be given on Sunday afternoon, April 26, at 4:00, in Porter Hall auditorium. It will feature all of those music students who are members of Sigma Alpha Iota.

A Junior recital featuring Joyce Norris, organist, will be given on Sunday afternoon, May 3, at 4:30 in Porter Hall auditorium. Another, with Frances Garrard, pianist, will be held in Porter Hall Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., on April 29. Frances will wear a red and white polished cotton dress. Her numbers will include Chopin's Ballade in F Major, three numbers by Scarlatti, and a Modern Suite by Dello Joio.

Patricia Lane, soprano, will perform in a Senior recital on Monday evening, May 4, at 8:00. Another Senior recital, featuring Elizabeth Bridges, soprano, with Sue Sanders at the piano, will be held on April 27, at 8:00 p.m. Elizabeth will wear a lavender chiffon floor-length dress. She will sing numbers in five languages, including the aria "Commais-Tu", from Thomas' opera 'Mignon', works by Debussy, Wolf, Grieg, Bononcini, and Sandoval, and works by American composers. Sue will play a sonata by Mozart.

Rockett Reveals

by Susanne Rockett

Spring is in the air and all the Jessie's thoughts turn to love. Many girls are getting married this summer and others in the fall. Those Jessies who aren't thinking of Marriage in the near future are getting pinned (except me).

Phyllis Kelley attended a fraternity party at the University of Florida last weekend. Isn't that a long way to go to a party, Phyllis?

Dianne McGill came back from a weekend at the University of Georgia pinned to incoming ATO president, Timmy Burnside. Diane and Carol Brantley attended an ATO fraternity party.

Have you girls heard what the postman is bringing these days? Mary Cowden Jones received a gorgeous engagement ring in the mail. The lucky man's name is Tom Blanks.

Cathy Wiygul received a surprise telephone call last week. Seems like this Phil kid is back on the beam.

Margaret McCrary was embarrassed at a wedding which she attended with boyfriend Pat. Everyone teased them about being next in line for wedding bells. How about it, Margaret?

Rita Rambles For Rec

by Rita Purdue

GSCW was represented at the Wesleyan Play Day, Saturday, April 11, by Charlotte Hollis, Arne Blakely, Sandy Brock, Carol Kinard, Judy Norton, Lane Harden, Marcia Perry, Myrtice Carpenter, Lynn Meade, and Rita Perdue. Miss McNeill and Miss Pritchett accompanied the girls. Events offered were volleyball, swimming, and tennis. Volleyball participation was by color teams. GSCW placed second in the swimming matches with a score of 44 to Wesleyan's 72. Teachers College was third with 23. Myrtice Carpenter and Lynn Meade played in the tennis singles while Carol Kinard and Sandy Brock were partners in doubles. By the way, Carol and Sandy should be given endurance medals. They played seventy games of tennis during the day!

May 25th Field Day To Be In Olympic Style

On Saturday May 23, GSCW will have its annual track and field day in true Olympic style. At 2:30 p.m. classes, representing countries, will run onto the field with their flags and colors for an impressive pre-contest ceremony. Competitions will be in the broad jump, high jump, distance softball throw, three-legged race, tug of war, shuttle relay, 100 yard dash, and a special event in which everyone will take part. Sign-up sheets have been placed in the dorms and it is planned for a different girl to sign up for each activity. Junior Physical majors will be the officials. The president of the winning country (class) will receive a cup and laurel wreath and stand on the highest box, just as at the Olympics. Countries are expected to have cheerleaders. Ireland will be represented by the Sophomore Irish, England by the Senior Royalty, the United States by the Freshmen Thunderbirds, India by the Junior Elephants.

Shirley Mell and her volunteer committee spent Friday afternoon, April 10, cleaning the lounge and rearranging the furniture, and now it is 'glowingly' clean. Go by and take a look, or better still, come to Rec Tuesday night.

The Saturday Soiree for April 25 will be a movie on the hockey field. 'Magnificent Obsession' has been ordered.

The Modern Dance Club gave a demonstration at Baldwin High School Wednesday, April 8, and at Sylvania on Tuesday, April 14. The club used excerpts from its Guest Assembly Demonstration.

The Penguin Club, the Tumbling Club, and the Modern Dance Club are holding weekly practices in preparation for routines they will demonstrate on Honors Day, May 7.

Don't forget to record your Rec Points every week. If you have forgotten the Rec Point System, be sure to check the handbook for information.

Y's Owl

Welcome back! I sure was lonely with everyone gone for the spring holidays, but now I'm delighted because the Y Apt is buzzing with excitement again.

We have two new activities this quarter. Every Wednesday from 3:00 - 5:30 we're having Open House. Our first Open House was March 25 and everyone had a grand time playing yute, chess, bridge or just talking.

Our other new activity is Bible Study Luncheon every Tuesday from 1:00 - 2:00. We're studying the Gospel of Mark. Everyone is invited and Miriam and I just love having all of you over for lunch.

We still have many other activities too, Drop by the Y Apt; we just love lots of company and I'm sure you'll have a grand time!

Love,
Wizzie
P. S. We sure were delighted to see "Izzie" again! Also I'm happy to say that Miriam will be back with us next year!
