Elections For Major Officers To Be January 30

Elections for heads of the three major campus organizations will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 30. Petitions may be turned in Jan. 22-. 24, and a minimum of 15 signatures is required on them.

The nominees will speak in chapel on Jan. 29 to present their platforms; and an informal press conference will be held sometime before Tuesday in the S.U. Runover elections will be held on Thursday, Feb. 1.

Some of the qualities necessary for all three of these leaders are: the ability to work well with both students and adults; to be poised and gracious, both on our campus and on others; and to work as well as possible under pressure.

Presidents of Rec and "Y" especially need to be able to plan interesting social activities, whether those be S.U. parties or afternoon coffee-discussion groups. The president of C.G.A. should feel at home (or almost!) on the stage and in front of a large audience.

There are many girls on our campus who could fill these responsibilities well, but its up to you to petition them. AND VOTE!!

Say you've been hearing a lot of noise in the gym lately, huh? Well, natch, don't you know that it's that time again? WHAT time? Tell me you didn't ask such a thing — it's time to sack it, jump it, fight for it! What am I TALK-ING about? Oh man, you're way out — why, I'm talking about BASKETBALL, of course!

What do you mean "So What?" Get with it, pal — basketball intramurals are for YOU. Yes - YOU! So you DON'T like to play basketball — are you too lazy to watch? YOUR class has a darn good team and they want YOUR support when they play the other class teams.

When do they have their first game? Now you're talking, kil! Let's see, the freshmen Irish Lassies take on the sophomore Elephants next MONDAY at 4:15, and he junior Royals play the senior Thunderbirds next WEDNESDAY at the same time. See you there, O.K.? O.K!

What do you mean — you're BORED again? Don't just stand there — there's a lot of things that you could be doing. Like WHAT, you say? Seems to me you've always lined to play badminton -Well, get with it, friend, there's a ournament beginning Monday, January 22, and YOU can be in it. Sure I'll be your partner — both minton, huh?
