EMARGO OF THESIS

Complete this section ONLY if an embargo is being requested.

Occasionally, there are unusual circumstances under which you may want to withhold your Specialist's thesis from publication. Such circumstances include:

1. The disclosure of patentable rights in the work before a patent can be granted
2. Similar disclosures detrimental to the rights of the author
3. Disclosures of facts about persons or institutions before professional ethics would permit such disclosures

To request that your Specialist's thesis be withheld for substantiated circumstances of the kind listed above, you must submit letter of petition stating the circumstances and the time frame, and requesting that the Specialist's thesis be withheld from publication. The letter must also be endorsed by the chair of your committee and the chair of your department and must accompany this form.

Embargo Period:

- Six Months One Year Two Years
