Dr. Parks Conducts Summer School of Spirit.

EXPLAINS THANKS TO OFFICERS, FACULTY AND STUDENTS

It has been a pleasure to know the teachers and students at the summer School. It has been a joy to see the fine spirit of work and co-operation manifest by so many people. The College is trying to give service to the Teachers of Georgia, and the alumnae of the Summer School is gratifying.

The Summer School is endeavoring to afford an opportunity to students to continue advanced work with college credits, and for teachers to secure work leading towards State Certification. But most of all, it is hoped that the inspiration and that the desire was partially fulfilled when in 1925, the Y. W. C. A. sponsored a year's work in college.

This issue of The Colonanne marks the first edition of a college paper in the history of the Georgia State College For Women. For many years there was an annual paper, but edited and written by the college's librarian, this is the first publication of its kind.

Students have long felt the need and desire for a new edition which dealt with campus interest. The desire was partially fulfilled when in 1925, the Y. W. C. A. sponsored a year's work in college.

This is the first edition of the Colonanne, a monthly paper which continued for two years and was given to the students by the Y. W. C. A.

During the past spring, definite steps were taken for the establishment of a college newspaper, beginning with a four-page paper, 19 x 11 inches, and published bi-monthly. A subscription fee of fifty cents per semester is to be charged in order to secure funds for improvement.

Because of the number and benefit of the alumnas which are so characteristic of this campus, The Colonanne has been suggested as a name for the college paper. No doubt these alumnae without any hesitation or difficulty will accept the editor.

SUMMER SCHOOL W. Y. ORGANIZED

Work of Year Continued by Organization That Served Regular Term

In our Summer School voyages it was customary to have a few people who would guide us on our way. To the girls who had been here last year, they perhaps have a bit more about it (organization, campus history, boy friends) and the care of the good ship Y. W. C. A. The success of our voyage? That of course depends on the passenger, but we would like to congratulate the captain.

First, there is the captain of ship Y. W. C. A., Anna Elizabeth Branch. "orderBy, good captain," comes from our hearts. Then the secretary to see that things went wrong on board. Polly Moss.

People come on a voyage like to feel a well rounded life, so in the early morning hours Morning Worship services did meet such as the passengers. These were planned by the captain, Rose Hall.

There was the Bulletin Board work by Catherine McCloud, and clearly associated with this was the Postel Work assisted by Annie Woic. Of course, each knew what and when events were to take place, and no announcements saw to it that they knew.

In the afternoon basket-ball games were played in conjunction with other clubs.
