S嗠<-kagmen.

Eunice Barrow, daughter of Mr. Homer Barrow, and a student of the Georgia Institute of Technology, will represent the city of Macon at the Northeastern tour. She was selected from among several women of similar age and education. Barrow received her degree last spring and is now employed as an engineer for a large corporation in New York City.

The final evening and ceremony of the convention was held at the Macon Opera House by a representation from each state sponsoring the trip. Messrs. W. E. Miller and W. E. Gibson, well-known young physicians, were the guests of honor.

The girls were present at the first meeting and Messrs. Millville's young women were the first to congratulate her. She and her party were given a enthusiastic welcome on Monday night. She spoke to the assembled women on her trip which she had worked for.

For those who desire to be instrumental in teaching all students and in organizing such events for the next season, the following officers were elected: following officers in attendance:

President: Miss Elizabeth Burford, for the weekend.

The entire faculty and student body at Millville College, under the leadership of President Dr. M. M. Parks, hold a special meeting on the evening of October 26, to celebrate the opening of the new library. The meeting was held in the new library, which was donated by Alumni Association funds. The new library contains a large collection of books and periodicals. It is the first of its kind in the area, and is a testament to the dedication of the faculty and students to the education of young people.
The Columbist on American's Crime Problem.

Mr. Z. Z. Yester, in his letter to the editor on the subject of American's crime problem, has brought to the attention of the reading public some of the factors which contribute to the increase in the number of crimes committed in this country. Mr. Yester points out that the crime problem is not confined to any particular class of society, but is a problem that affects all segments of society. He also mentions the importance of education and the need for early childhood education in order to prevent the development of criminal tendencies.

The School of Peace and Conflict Resolution.

The School of Peace and Conflict Resolution is a new academic program that is designed to train students in the skills necessary to resolve conflicts peacefully. The school offers a variety of courses that cover topics such as negotiation, mediation, and conflict resolution. The school also provides opportunities for students to gain practical experience through internships and other hands-on learning experiences.

The Importance of Science Education.

Science education is crucial for the development of a well-informed and scientifically literate society. It is important that students are exposed to a wide range of scientific disciplines, including biology, chemistry, physics, and mathematics. Science education also helps students develop critical thinking skills and a sense of curiosity about the natural world.

The Benefits of Physical Activity.

Physical activity is essential for maintaining good health and well-being. Regular exercise can help to reduce the risk of chronic diseases, improve cardiovascular health, and increase overall fitness. It is also important for mental health, as exercise can help to reduce stress and anxiety and improve mood.

The Importance of Environmental Conservation.

Environmental conservation is crucial for the preservation of our planet's natural resources and biodiversity. It is important that we take steps to reduce our impact on the environment, such as by using renewable energy sources, reducing waste, and conserving water. By protecting the environment, we can ensure that future generations will have access to the natural world.

The Value of International Diplomacy.

International diplomacy is essential for maintaining peace and stability in the world. It is important that countries work together to resolve conflicts and build strong relationships. Diplomacy can also help to promote economic development and cultural exchange, which can lead to a more peaceful and prosperous world.

The Benefits of Music Education.

Music education is not only important for developing musical skills, but it also has a positive impact on cognitive development and emotional well-being. It can help to improve memory, concentration, and problem-solving skills, as well as reduce stress and anxiety.

The Importance of Social Media in Society.

Social media has become an integral part of modern society, and it is important that we understand its impact on individuals and society as a whole. Social media can be a powerful tool for connecting people and sharing information, but it can also be a source of misinformation and cyberbullying. It is important that we use social media responsibly and be aware of its potential dangers.

The Benefits of Travel.

Travel is a wonderful way to explore new places, learn about different cultures, and broaden your horizons. It can be a great way to reduce stress and improve mental health, as well as provide opportunities for personal growth and development.