Student Volunteer Conference
To Be Held Here Feb. 12-14

BOOK STORE PLANNED FOR CONVENIENCE OF DELEGATES

Student Volunteer Bulletin In addition to the membership, a very interesting poster exhibit will be held in the interest of the Methodist church. Poster bulletin, etc., will be contained by different clubs in the state. Those posters on which legeulites have always enjoyed the most interesting features of the Conference and it is expected that the artistic and musical of the most attractive ones seen in years.
Subjects for those posters are drawn from the Hustings... (Continued on page 3)

GUARD OFFICERS ARE SELECTED AT MID-TERM

At the last, and one of the most successful, meetings of the Literature Club this semester our officers were selected. Friday evening, January 22.
After the report of the nominating committee the voices were cast with the following results: Ruth Morgan, President; Evelyn Sanders, secretary and treasurer; Mary Jones, vice-president.

Following the business discussion, Ann Elizabeth Blane told the members of the Literature Club how we need to make our clubs one of the most interesting social Monday afternoon, or in others words, "Miss Lillian Rivero". Ten fields again the clown, our edition and present the cricket, popularity, skill of the G. S. C. W. Faculty is increased

The faculty and student body welcome the two new members of the faculty, Mrs. Margaret Tuttle and Miss Harriet J. Smith to the college February 12. Mrs. Tuttle, who is to do her her Hathcock's place as head of the English department, is a native of Middlesboro, Ky., and Miss Smith has been Mrs. Smith, assistant professor of University of Mississippi.

Each of the new faculty members has had several years experience teaching in their respective fields. With a will to cooperate shown by the students, these new faculty members will have entered into the new work with such enthusiasm. Their students have already shown the success of the work throughout the entire year.