1,000 COPIES TO BE SOLD

Staff Alums For Prize-Winning Book.

The Spectrum is progressing by leaps of an additional feature for the first campus was made in school December 8. The standard of story copy was not ranked by 63 per cent of the desired 700 subscribed and with another increase it is now estimated that only be 84 per cent, but 260 per cent of the desired 1,000.

This annual will be, for the best at least, a little more than the usual. For instance, the perfecting workman, the printer, the editor, and the other leaders of the creative feature and athletic sections.

The staff of the Spectrum hopes to win the prize offered by the Art Craft Guild for best yearbook publised this year. The Art Craft Guild represents 13 principal grauates of the United States who are interested in college yearbooks, and who are offering this prize to stimulate a higher standard of work.

One hundred and each member of the faculty should buy an annual, maybe two, in some cases three or more. For this annual will be represent the college, the faculty, the girls, and many phases of college life and endeavor. The college is making little good work toward the goal and daily, we ask a greater G. S. C. growth, and developing. Share your knowl, your cooperation, your appreciation by buying a Spectrum.

POPULARITY CONTEST COMPLETED FOR ANNUAL

All Are Chosen From the Senior Class.

The "Who's Who" contest of the Senior Class was held on our campus recently. The decision was made by theunderground, who voted by secret ballot.

The contest was held for the purpose of discovering "The Spectrum," the college annual, which is progressing very rapidly, and which is looking forward to the national level entirely published at G. S. C. W. W. on December 17.

The contest was announced for the class of 1931, and those who were chosen were: Misses Sams, McCullough, Miss Rose, Miss Scovil, Misses Lay, Misses Sweeney, Misses Hailey, Misses Hays, Misses Bolling, Misses Wells, and Misses Minter.

NEW AUDITORIUM FOLLOWS FASHION OF THE CAMPUS

O. S. C.'s New Auditorium which was formally opened November 17.

CUMARTIC COLUMNS ADD THE WESTERN EXTERIORS

The beauty of the campus of the Georgia State College for Women has been enhanced by the erection of one of the most beautiful auditoriums to be found in the South.

Yell, student activities columns are through the campus and are carried out in effect throughout the service, for the names and grades are

This long room with its pane wall is complete in the best detail. The main entrance affording wonderful curvilinear columns; the Roman arches; the unusual sequence of wall pictures; the balcony made with the support of a glass column; the completed floor; the original plans, all points that are hidden from the stages; and all arranged for beauty and symmetry as well as content and convenience.

The stage, in a setting of the most modern equipment, has been brought over and giving the most artistic impression the work from the gain- way of the campus gives in the program has several colorful and appropriate scenes. The lighting is one of the most imaginative of any such in the great auditoriums. The stage of the auditorium is well provided for the various needs of the program.

The auditorium is so complete that it is impossible to miss its appearance. The junior class is preparing for a beautiful program which will be presented in the auditorium on December 17.
