2-1-1927

Colonnade February 1, 1927

Follow this and additional works at: http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation
http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/41

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.
S. V. CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN ATHENS

FEBRUARY 11TH-13TH.

The annual conference of the State Student Volunteer Movement will be held at Athens Feb. 11-13. The State Normal and University of Georgi- a undertaking.

The conference for this year is taking for the general theme for discussion the state slogan, "Mission—A Joint Responsibility." It is the purpose of the conference to bring together Students Volunteers and other Christian Students that they may consider situations as their common responsibility.

The Student Volunteer Movement has recently completed its annual mission. Those students who are volunteers to become foreign mission workers. To belong to such an organized group the individual volunteer must share more perfectly his vision of service with those who are thinking as he. Once a year the entire state organization assembles to share and learn more of the work for which they are preparing.

Students will gather from every college and university in the state to think on their common task. A number of the students have been planned to help students solve their problems both as individuals and as groups. Delegates are urged to bring personal interviews with faculty members and conference leaders. Discussion groups and forums will be carried on inste- ad of the student lectures—lectures and conference sessions. A book, "The Joy of Being a Student," has been prepared to help students understand the problems facing them.

One of the most outstanding events of the conference was Edward E. Stucky, Executive Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, who wasScranton in the student stage. Books may be obtained at all hours during the conference. The book, "The Joy of Being a Student," has been prepared to help students understand the problems facing them.

Dr. J. L. Beeson Now Executive Head G. S. C.

Dr. B. A. Buford, who was presented with the award of the year at the national convention, has been chosen for the position of Executive Head of the S. V. Conference. His award was presented for his outstanding work in the field of Christian education.

In answer to the call made by G. R. W. for a leader to carry on the work of the beloved late presi- dent, a very efficient and highly su- perintendent has been selected. The superintendent is a graduate of the university and has been a member of the faculty for many years. He is known for his strong leadership and has been a great help to the students in the past.

Dr. Beeson is a member of many national and international organizations, and has been a leader in the movement for the advancement of Christian education. He is a graduate of the university and has been a member of the faculty for many years. He is known for his strong leadership and has been a great help to the students in the past.

LITERARY GUILD Sponsors New Magazine

FIRST ISSUE FEBRUARY 10TH

"The Corinthian," a weekly student publication, will be published every Friday. The first issue will contain a selection of poetry, a short story, and a feature article on "The Student Volunteer Movement." The magazine will be distributed throughout the state and will be sold at five cents a copy. A subscription for the year is $2.00.

Dr. B. A. Buford, who was presented with the award of the year at the national convention, has been chosen for the position of Executive Head of the S. V. Conference. His award was presented for his outstanding work in the field of Christian education.

In answer to the call made by G. R. W. for a leader to carry on the work of the beloved late presi- dent, a very efficient and highly su- perintendent has been selected. The superintendent is a graduate of the university and has been a member of the faculty for many years. He is known for his strong leadership and has been a great help to the students in the past.

Dr. Beeson is a member of many national and international organizations, and has been a leader in the movement for the advancement of Christian education. He is a graduate of the university and has been a member of the faculty for many years. He is known for his strong leadership and has been a great help to the students in the past.
Buildings Which Were Added To G. S. C's. Campus During Dr. Parks' Administration

Ennis Hall
Ennis Hall one of the three beautiful dormitories which were built during Dr. Parks' administration and the building was personally planned by him.

The New Auditorium
The New Auditorium which was the last to be finished, and which is under discussion to be named the "Parks Memorial Auditorium."

Panoramic View Of Buildings
A portion of the campus, looking west from Terrell Hall showing Terrell Hall, Parks Hall (now being used as the Administration building), the Class Room Building and Chapel Hall, all built under Dr. Parks' supervision.

The Class Room Building
The Class Room Building, which is one best equipped buildings of its kind in the South.