In the building and proceeding to the campus, the flowers of May will take on a new aspect in the eyes of the student body. This scene is not unique this year, but it has been a tradition of the University for many years. The students will adorn their caps and gowns with flowers and the campus will be filled with the sweet perfume of the blossoms. The students will then proceed to the commencement exercises where they will receive their diplomas and be addressed by various dignitaries. The day will be filled with music, speeches, and the presentation of awards.

The Spectrum News Collection takes pride in covering all aspects of campus life. We strive to provide accurate and informative news for our readers. Our team of reporters and editors work diligently to ensure that our coverage is comprehensive and relevant.

leaching after the Mayfest. Miss Betty Beck, who launched the festival on behalf of the Southern Alabama Women's Auxiliary, was the first one to throw the gathering. Mrs. Beck said the festival was to help raise funds for the Auburn Free Public Library.

The festival was held in front of the city.

SPRING
by Henry Timrod
Spring, with that ethereal music in the air
Whose duty with all things fair.
Singing, with her golden mass, and sister rain.
Is with us again.

One in the beauty with the jovial
burns
Its fragrant lamps, and turns into a misty gale with golden bedizen.
The knell of dark ingress.

In the deep hour of every moment
The blood is all a glow,
And there's a look about the less laid
As if they dreamed of flowers.

CUREES
Even a bluebird
missing will beings.
May winter sunshine

All the days bring,
And just a little joy.
Curling and bowing,
Her merry jelly Jen
All over town.

—Fand K. Winfield.

THE WIFE'S UNIFORM IS DIPPED

Not only all the trays, flowers, and weather breadth (the fact that "Flowers is in bloom," according to Professor of the students of G. C. W. also helped make that fact known.

The President, Boardmen, and Bulldogs, all dived into their white and black uniforms, better known as their "white uniform", and the hispanics in the new Winter Phany made a lovely sight on Winter morn ing on their way to church.

Since the coming of white is so emblematic of the season, it seems capable of appropriating that Winter fashion the three winter classes should wear their white uniforms for the first time this spring. It signals that a new spirit pervaded the camp when the white dreams were worn, and they made such a whole change from the dull realism of wearing the brown uniforms.

PRESIDENTIAL GIVE-CRAP PROGRAM

A very beautiful renderable program was rendered by the President Class Club, united by the mission of the club, which was held on Friday morning, March 21.

The class program was followed by three members, the President, "Santa Maria", and "The Catcha Bridge".
