NEW MEMBERS ON THE
G. C. W. C. FACULTY

With the growth among many other lines in our school, there has been this year a large increase in the numerous faculty members.

Dorsey M. Kossitt came to us from Guilford, N. C. She holds the A. B. degree from Washington college, Tennessee, and the Ph. D. degree from New York University. He will be the head of the Spanish department.

Mr. Thomas B. Meadows, Associate Professor of English, comes from Milligan college, Tennessee. He received the B. S. degree in Literature from the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at At-more, and both the M. S. and Ph. D. degrees from Pennsylvania.

Miss Thomas B. Meadows, Architect

Professor of Art, received her A. B. degree from Varder and the M. A. degree from Columbia University.

New York.

Parks Henry P. White, is the head of the department of Kentuckian and Sociology. He comes to us from the University of Delaware. He is a graduate of the Sam Houston State Teachers College, Texas. He received the M. A. degree from Baylor University, Texas, and expects to receive the Ph. D. degree from the University of Texas by the end of the year, according to plans.

Mrs. Elia S. Duvall, Professor of German, comes from Peabody, where she has been teaching in the department of German. She has both the B. S. and M. A. degrees from that institution.

Mr. Pals. "The Thaddeus P. Professor of Biology comes to us from Connole College for Teachers in Iowa, where he has been teaching. He holds the B. S. degree from George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and the M.A. degree from Smith college, Massachusetts.

Miss Halle Claire Smith, Associate Professor of English, is from Lea-grove College. She has both the B. S. degree in English and the M.A. degree from Leagroge and the M.A. degree from Columbia University.

Miss Vivian Stone, Associate Professor of Home Economics, comes to G. C. W. C. from Connole College where she has been teaching her specialty. She is a B.S.Graduate of the University of Kentucky and holds both the B. S. and M.A. degrees from Teachers College, Columbia University.

Miss Minnie Greene, Associate Professor of Health, is a B. S. graduate of G. C. W. C. and was instrutional in the biology here. She will receive the M. A. degree from Peabody at the end of the present quarter.

Miss Jimmie Burke, A. B. C. C. W. C. 1914, is Instructor in History and Business. Miss Edith Pletcher, B. S. G. C. W. 1917, is Instructor in Household Science. Miss Omia Green, B. S. G. C. W. 1917, is Instructor in History and Business in the Practical School.

MISS DAUGHTY IS NEW SECRETARY

Miss Amy H. Daughter came to

G. C. W. C. from Tannin, Indiana, where she had been G. C. W. C. Secretary for the last three years. She is now G. C. W. C. Secretary, having taken the place of Miss Julia Johns, formerly Miss Omia Green, who is doing missionary work in Karen.

Miss Daughter is enthusiastic over her work in this new position and expresses the hope that the W. C. T. U. may accomplish great things. "I. Y. Y. I have been a great success," she says. "We must continue to grow."

G. C. W. C. is the only college in the state which has a full time Y. W. C. A. Secretary.

G. C. W. C. GIRLS ENJOY JOYCLIFF

The W. Y. C. A. Cabinet and Committee thought that there could be no better way of ending a summer than with whole days of camping. According to the custom of Y. officers, they spent three days at Joycliff, and every girl who was present tells of the glorious time they all had, and of the good work they received. The purpose of the camp was to join the world of the W. C. T. U.

Sunday morning, September 15, Miss Naomi Bishir gave an inspiring talk on "Students," which had been prepared by a word of welcome to the students and the Miss Naomi Daught-

y, by the Y. W. C. A., President, Pea-bodies. After a brief discussion on the work of the department and committee, Miss Daughter gave an interesting and challenging talk on "Adventist Life."

Monday morning, Miss Mary Sargent led the devotional exercises. They were followed by a discussion of Miss Naomi Daughter's "Committee Should Function," which is continued on fifth page

LIBRARY IS INDICATION OF GROWTH

Among the many indications of progress and growth on G. C. W. C. campus are more ambitious and less observant areas. The new dormitory, of which every one is so proud, perhaps holds the former, and the new library equipment may be said to hold the less obvious group, not in the same that it is not important but is in the least noticed among them. This is due to the fact that the student library equipment is books, and books are not easily kept up with - when one has too many other duties as the average student.

Miss Gertrude Allison, librarian, gives the information that at the end of the school year, 1927-1928, there were approximately 20,000 volumes in the library. To that number have been added about 600 new books, 400 of which were recently given from the library of the late Dr. M. P. Parks by Mrs. Park. All of the new books are valuable, but some are especially valuable and interesting for their beauty and novelty, as well as for the information which they contain.

Among those are "Abbeys," by M. E. Jones, "Vendish Halls and Cata-ward Alleyn," by Harry Allen; "The Charolais Indiant," by Thomas Valentine Pickering; "Industrial Aesthetic Upon the Extensive Methods of Instruction," by Warren Generall; "Civil War Art and Architecture in America," by Walter L. Penning; "Gleeboy's Lady Book." The three books last named are all new and most of out of print and are therefore more valuable than the other, the "Gleeboy's Lady Book," which is the edit-

THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL SESSION G. C. W. C. BEGINS

September nineteenth marked the beginning of the thirty-eighth annual session of the Georgia State College for Women. The opening exercises, Wednesday morning, were attended by former students and townspeople as well as the student body and faculty.

After the Devotional, led by Rev. B. D. Warrick, welcome was extended by Dr. J. L. Bourn, newly-elected President of the college.

He expressed his pleasure in the large number of new students and said, "I want you to be happy, because when you are happy you can do better work."

Mr. Miller S. Bell, secretary and treasurer of the Board of Directors, paid tribute to the work of Dr. M. M. Parks, who served twenty-six years of his life in the service of G. C. W. C. "After the death of Dr. Parks," said Mr. Bell, "the Board committed the responsibility of this college to the capable hands of the President. It is impossible for him to carry on the work alone."

In behalf of the churches of the city, Rev. George B. Thompson spoke, "for its present the noble ideal of those who have been true, self-sacrificing servants of the King of the world."

Dr. E. E. Scott, Dean of the College College, paid silent tribute to the former students in behalf of the faculty, "I am proud of the faculty itself—they have made good in the past and have found joy in working together and with you." He welcomed especially the new members of the faculty, of whom there are eleven.

Miss Grace Tubbs, President of the Alumni Association, and Miss Sesson, President of the Y. W. C. A., welcomed the new students. Miss Ansle Moore Daughter, New Y. W. C. C. Secretary, expressed her delight at being a part of such a college and explained the work of the school.

MRS. NICHOLSON IN HOSPITAL

In this issue of the Colonnade will be found a special letter from Mrs. E. C. Nicholson, daughter of the late Mrs. J. E. NIcholson, of the Atlanta Hospital, who is undergoing an operation.

During the summer she has received many of her friends here and exchanged them by her greetings. The operation is indeed fortunate in being able to print a message to our friends to whom Mrs. Nicholson is one of the most popular members of the faculty.

JUDY DAUGHERTY, Editor
 creates the first news of the Colonnade, this term-2004 Colonnade. We, the members of the staff, want that each student paper be our team. We hope, too, that the faculty will feel that the Colonnade is a G.S.C. publication and that it stands for the highest quality of college life.

The position of the University of Minnesota, Dr. George Thomas, "The people who make the press what it is. The press has to be made so to make it and our national institutions were more they should be." The Colonnade, as a student publication, but still will have to be done for G.S.C. as a whole, however, depends upon the student body.

NEW T. SECRETARY

It is a privilege to introduce our new editor, Miss Anna May Deas, Miss Margaret Deas of the staff. She made her first appearance in the Colonnade, but her name has been mentioned on the staff list in our last issue. She is a very intelligent girl, and we are sure that her presence will be a real addition to the Colonnade staff.

And finally, Miss Margaret Deas is a true daughter of this institution, coming from a family of fine and intelligent people, and we are sure that her presence will be a real addition to the Colonnade staff.
