Y. W. HAS DRIVE

FOR MEMBERS

Sept. 30th to Oct. 7th, Red Letter Week on Campus. Drive Meets With Huge Success

September 30th through October 7th was truly a "Red Letter Week" at G. C. C. W. for the current year. The thought and energy of all the Blue Triangle girls in the Y. W. C. A. went into a concerted effort to interest others in becoming a part of this great movement of students of all women and girls around the world.

In so many ways they might seem like we and that they might have it more abundantly than the girls who challenged 918 members of the college community to affiliate themselves with the Y. W. C. Aorp work of more abundant living.

G. C. C. W. has not only the largest membership of any college Y. W. C. A. in Georgia, but also it is the only women's club enjoying a full time general secretary. Miss Arlene M. D. Halsey, who holds the position at present, gives her all to the splendid Y. W. C. A. pulled girls who are new in office.

The recent successful membership drive was introduced on Sunday, evening September 30th, by Carolian Halsey, head of the membership department, at a beautiful and inspirational worship service. The theme was, "How I have grown in the Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Chloe Jenkins representing the Senior class, Mary Ellis Stent the Junior class, Carolian Halsey representing the Sophomore class and Miss Polly Moss representing Alumnae and active members, each in turn spoke briefly about how their group had received through the Y. W. C. A. and what this drive ended in a successful drive.

The drive resulted in a clinic on Friday morning at the chapel service when a large crowd was assembled. Miss Helen Moss, Chairman of membership committee, presented the appeal to the student body to become active members of the Y. W. C. A. She said, "your experiences in the Y. W. C. A. will be a precious memory which neither time nor place can retake from you and as you go forth into the world, it will be light to guide you in seeking only those things which make for "rich and creative life."

Then she added, "If you would be (Continued on last page)

FACULTY AND STUDENTS

IN FAIR THURSDAY

Victory Drive, Winthrop, Whip, Eric, Ervin: "Student fixed Fair Grounds"

Implements of all conditions that it would surely rain, or that an earthquake would rear, Thursday morning came without a cloud in the sky. Everyone rushed through morning dances shouting either an old or new tent or that it was "Fair Day." On we go or maybe forgot the thing going to the fair.

As soon as lunch was over, a great crowd gathered on the courthouse lawn, and everyone was interested in the various events and activities. The most successful event was the "Fair Day" and those who contributed the best to the success of the event.

The other events included a "Fair Day," which certainly must have been good, for at one time many of the professors and their families were seen riding on it.

There were Happy Land, and Fun On The Farm, two more entertaining events. In one large tent were to be found members, ticket, tickets, and a number of prizes which were given away.

This is a brief summary of the various events at the fair to give some idea of the interest shown.

Dr. Scott has had an exceptional service, always highly successful, in New England, in Tennessee, and in the Atlantic South. We have no one else with the same scholarly equipment or professional experience. Journal of Education.

The above account was made by Dr. D. A. K. Weeks, editor of the Journal of Education. The news is of especial interest to those students who were not at Summer School.

ANNUAL HIKE DIRECTED BY "Y"

Y. W. C. C. Puts Over Interesting Program. Long Line Marches Through City Monday

There is something in the autumn that is native to my blood. Touch of November, bite of wind. And my heart is like a rhyme, Yellow with the purple and the crimson leaves.

The secret of the season can make no tree like a cry of leaves falling. And my body rises without a word, To see the frosty leaves like a smoke upon the hills.

There is something in October on a gray, piled with leaves. The wind is still and you hear her Whose every foot of those who call her and calls each reader by name.

This poem, a copy of which was sent out by the printer who worked on the paper on the last day of the printing. Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, is not the usual layout of the paper. Instead of the regular layout, there was a small amount of the paper, with a large amount of the words on each page. The words were arranged in a column, with one line per page. The layout was designed to make the paper look different from the usual layout.

THE T. W. C.
Last week was "Second Week of Term" for the T. W. C. as our season. The results were encouraging; they show that we are not only a group of pretty women but Greek; C. W. C. We have a greater Y. V. Y. community than any other college in the state of Georgia.
Currently the T. W. C. is the most active group on the campus. It is proving to be a constant attraction to any other organization and, besides being the truest of fraternities, it is through the T. W. C. girls that we are winning the most friends.

The voting party, the secret society, the annual state dance, T. W. C. is all right. Better than all the others. More than half a dozen and more fraternities have shown a desire to become political workers in such a victorious market of our own.

OUR CAMPUS

"A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever."—Browning
As a vital part of the college, the women are putting in the most devoted effort to make the campus as beautiful and attractive as possible. For the past couple of weeks, the women have been engaged in a campaign to beautify the area around the campus. The efforts have been led by the members of the sophomore class, who have taken it upon themselves to plant flowers and trees in various areas of the campus. The result is a stunning transformation, with vibrant colors and lush greenery adding to the campus's overall charm.

"The beauty of a woman is in her spirit."—John Lennon
The women are not only working on beauty but also focusing on the mental health of their peers. Various workshops and seminars are being organized to address topics such as stress management, mental wellness, and personal development. These events are designed to create a supportive environment where students can feel heard and understood.

EAST WELLS INSTALLS THE KAPPA DOOR
The Beta Kappa chapter of the East Wells organization has recently installed its new Kappa Door. This ceremonial event marks the official recognition and further commitment of the chapter to its heritage and values. The door serves as a symbol of the chapter's dedication to the principles of service, scholarship, and social development.

FIST LYCEUM SCORES
BIG HIT THURSDAY

"New Browns," Three Act Comedy, First Series of Lyceum Numbers At College

G. S. C. W. had for the fifth Lyceum of the year, on Thursday, Oct. 11th, marked as "New Browns." It was a popular comedy; three acts portraying in a fascinating manner certain phases of modern life. The play was written by Frank Craves and presented by the Community Players.

Now presented was an interesting wholesome play, full of humor, and with a splendid host of young people who think they know more than their parents. In the play, Thomas Bates, Sr., went away for a vacation. Young Thoresen took over the business and pinnapped to show the "old fox" how to run the concern as "up-to-the-minute theorists!" Many deep plots were woven around a novel story added to the complication. Young Thoresen, up and away, and the vacation ended. Dad returned.

Upon his fineness, a drastic part of the plot came. The young was willing to welcome all old ideas, methods and traditions.
