C. S. C. W. HAVE STRAW VOTE

The History Club and the Government Class are sponsoring a straw vote on the campus. Students must register by November first, and on the sixth of the month, votes will be cast.

Ballots—except copies of the official ballots—are being prepared for students to vote on. Campaign speeches are to be made. G. S. C. W. will determine a loser chosen for President of the United States. You must have been twenty-one to vote. You don't have to wait any longer; the time has come when you do not have to be twenty-one. Vote your choice!" says Kathryn Harris, President of the History Club.

As G. C. W. goes, so goes the nation," says Mrs. C. B. McCall, a member of the Government Club. This gives promise of being one of the major events of the season, at G. C. W.

MISS YOUNG SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

Miss Wills, Young, Student Secretary of the National Y. W. C. A. Council, addressed the student body and faculty at the chapel exercises last Wednesday. Her topic was "F踏iliar Speech." "What has become of the pioneer spirit?" she asked. "To the minds of employers and educators it is appearant. She mentioned the number of people who volunteered to accompany Commander Bernt by his North Pole Expedition, and the passengers who came to the United States in the Coup Seppa. "The need of the world," she said, "is new hope. We must meet its problems with head held high and heart without fear. We must always be ready!"

Miss Young's talk was preceded by two delightful music numbers. Mary Parmer, a pupil of Mrs. Allen, played an introduction, by Brunsell, and May-night, by Magnusson.

Students and faculty are glad to welcome Mrs. Nelis Warrick Hansbrough. She is one of G. C. W.'s most popular teachers.

WORLD PEACE COMMISSION BRING DISTINGUISHED GUEST TO CAMPUS

It isn't always the size of the problem that counts. What problem requires the most thought is what problem requires the most courage. And courage is what the boys in our school have. . . .

Kathleen L. Harris, a member of the Boy's State, was in town this week to speak for a disturbing matter; weighing only 4 pounds, her quiet was the concept which brought a wonderful response in the class of the page of the paper. Miss Young is in the Secretaries Office.

NORTH STAFF

Miss Young is a Secretary for the Southern Division of the National Student Council of the Y. W. C. with special interest in world education. She was the Y. W. C. Secretary for France in 1943 and a half a year during the year. She studied at the University of London in the London School of Economics. Although this has been done and studied in Europe for several years, she has had much experience on the ground. She attended many international conferences for students in the United States and Canada, and contacted almost 150 colleges and universities in America.

There were many colleges in Georgia that bid for her to come to the campus, realizing the need of awakening students to world problems, but only by giving G. C. W. students. Miss Young was fortunate enough to have her campus with us by her experience. The purpose of her visit was to study with these students and faculty members all the forces in the college that tend to develop world mindedness and how these forces should be correlated. The group in G. C. W. this year studied a minimum of 24 forces at work on the campus.

The inner unity and growth was the recurring theme of Miss Young's talk Sunday night at Vesper. Wednesday evening, a group of the student body and faculty had the privilege of hearing her talk again on "Frontiers of 1948." The World Fellowship Department felt that bringing such a delightful and broad-minded person as Miss Young to their group for five days offered an excellent and helpful plan for the coming year.

THE ELECTION

We have to listen to the election. At G. C. W. the fate of the nation is in your hands. You see, at this time, at this moment. Miss Young's talk was presented by two delightful music numbers. Mary Parmer, a pupil of Mrs. Allen, played an introduction, by Brunsell, and May-night, by Magnusson.

Students and faculty are glad to welcome Mrs. Nelis Warrick Hansbrough. She is one of G. C. W.'s most popular teachers.

SO LITTLE
Now little is costs, if we give it a thought. To make happy some body each day.
Just one kind word, or a tender smile.
As we go on our daily way.
Purchases a book will suffice to cheer.
The cloud from a neighbor’s
And the press of a hand in sympathy
A sorrowful tear efface.
It costs so little I wonder why
We give a little thought?
A smile, kind words warm a touch
What magic with them is wrought.
