STUDENTS ATTEND OPERA IN MACON
Nine hundred members of the faculty and student body attended the opera, Leontes in Copenhagen, in Mason, last Saturday evening. They were transported to Mason on The Beauty Special, and many Milledgeville people also took advantage of the opportunity to see the performance.

This was the last of the presentations by the Zen Cars Opera Co., this season, and was predominately on the music over the sex of one of the most misunderstood of the roles. The story, adapted stage and four of Scott's novel, The Bride of Leontes, is a beautiful theme, depicting the life of old Scotland.

This Play, said to be the most popular song ever appearing in Mason, played the heading role, that of Leontes. The mixed party concert of cafés after he results of the San Francisco are total.

WHAT SOME OF THE COLONNADE GIRLS THINK OF THE Y.W.C.A.
When asked of the girls on the campus were asked to tell what the Y. W. C. A. means to them the answers were as follows:
Carolene Cheeny, member of the senior class, declared the practical girl on the campus said, "The Y. W. C. A. is all I am to it. It is a place of four-fold purposes; it serves to deal with an individual not only mentally but physically, morally, and socially."

"The Y. W. C. A. is the most outstanding organization on the campus. It is a place where every girl enjoys herself. It has every kind of organization. It is a place where every girl can have immediate enjoyment of life in all its members.""Ruth Dena Vaughn, Class Captain, Editor-in-Chief of the Anson, was asked this question and thought a few moments before answering, "It is hard for me to put into words what the Y. W. C. A. is to me. I like because it is the association of young women and girls, and as such it plays an important role in our college days. It lifts our thoughts from the every day round; it is the life that is far.""

Dorothy Strugar, who is a Y. W. C. A. Editor for both the Spectrum and for the Colonnaide shows her belief in the Y. W. C. A. in her answer, "Being alone is a sure sign that any organization is a good one, and I'm sure I can find more than our Y. W. C. A. doing things on our campus, just try to write up all the activities and you'll see.

"Gladys Mitchell, Editor of the Colonnaide says, "In the following quotations by Gladys Olendorf given these quotes of friendship and service, which are outstanding elements of the Y. W. C. A. in a woman's so-called "I saw what their organization must hold which pays individuals of friendships. Mindly and meaning and power we all valuable and may be of great service, but some of them are just not so useful to me as Happiness is to be involved in our activities and human service out of which grow human friendships."

FRESHMAN COUNCIL

"The members of the Freshman Council make it a matter of pride to be co-operators and make a good spirit in the Freshman Class. We are in full-swing and are doing our best to maintain and carry on the Freshman.

"This is the year of the Freshman Council Pledge, it was written by one of the members of the council. Freshman Council Pledge is the prominent organization in the T. W. C. A. Two members were elected by the Freshman to direct their class in the work of the T. W. C. A. on our campus. There is not a more loyal or earnest group on the campus than our Freshmen.""
