My dear little sister:

I take this pen in hand to write you a letter. Please write soon and let me know how you are. I have not written to you before. I have just returned from a trip to the city. The days flew by with such wonderful events. Everything was beautiful. Now—NOW!

I am glad to hear that you are well. I have not heard from you since last week. I will write soon and let you know how I am. I hope you are happy and contented. I miss you very much.

I hope to see you soon. I have been thinking of you often and I wish you were here with me.

Your affectionate,

Emory Glee Club
To Show Here on November 29th

This Emory University's "Little Symphony Orchestra," conducted by Miss Helen Menzies, will appear with the Emory Glee Club in its concert here Nov. 29, it was made known this week by Mrs. Mable DeWitt, director.

Although the orchestra will be com- mendedly valued for this trip, it was learned that several selections included on its last Sunday after- noon concert would be repeated on the trip programs. The orchestra give concerts on Sundays at number intervals. These programs generally interest more Atlantic audiences than the school curriculum is capa- ble of accommodating. The capacity of the hall is 400.

Besides the orchestra, the Emory quartet, composed of four singers who have won nation-wide fame as radio artists, will again furnish their part of the program. While in Europe these two years ago, the quartet were considerable priced for its usual number of finishes in its selec- tions.
