Campus Crumbs

Chapel services at Kenyon will be abolished this quarter, due to the recent damage to the building. This is the first time in the history of the university on the grounds of practicality, the chapel has been suspended due to damage to the building which it is conducted.

Mr. C. C. W. Horsky claims to be the largest Women's College in the South and the third largest in the United States. The present enrollment of 1,704 is surpassed only by Massachusetts Institute of Technology, which has 4,614 students, and Smith, where the student lady is 1,876. These figures are based on the report of a study made by Raymond Weiler, dean of Stonehaven College Association.

Colorado claims the largest campus rabbit in America, being called in class. Rates vary with the cost of raising the rabbits and the type of feed furnished. Should a student be called upon to raise, the "company" pays the production—Fremont.

A college degree has been real- ly worth $12,000 by Dean Everett Land, of Boston University. He claims that increased earning power resulting from high education is responsible for the high figure.

DEAN SCOTT RETURNS FROM DETROIT MEETING

Dean Edwin R. Scott returned to Milledgeville from Detroit on January 27, after being two days longer, which time he attended the 1931 meeting of the American Association of University Women, in Detroit.

Many interesting speakers were heard, in these addresses attended by the meeting, controversies educational problems, standards, standards, and problems of the college. The following word of wide interest was furnished to this writer as an illustrated lecture on his trip to the South Pole.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE STUDY DECREASES IN SCHOOLS

Bureau of Education Makes Public, Results of Investigations of High School Curriculum

Washington, D. C. — Foreign language study in the American high schools and colleges has decreased, according to the findings of the bureau of education. The trend, and the subject of education, is to adapt the teaching to win immediate practical needs of the profession of the life of the nation, have disturbed the importance of foreign language study.

Many professional schools or courses for specialized training still require a certain number of students as language, no longer engage the interest of the present school system that they did formerly, in spite of the objecting international activities of the nation, according to information made public by the bureau of education.

American isolation from foreign speaking peoples, the practical lack of the public school and university training of the nation, and the general adoption of English as one of the international languages was said to be the cause in part of the shift in emphasis.

Additional information was made public on the status of foreign language study.

The expansion of courses in the American high schools and colleges, according to the report, is the subject, and the trend of educationally to adapt the teaching to win immediate practical needs of the profession of the life of the nation, have disturbed the importance of foreign language study.

Mr. Robinson Speaks In Chapel

Last Tuesday held a rare treat for all those students who possess a sense of humor and a good chronicle for those of us who are more or less serious minded. The highly delightful and humorous occasion was a little sketch in choral or a version of jokes given by Mr. Joseph Robinson, English Professor at Mercer Uni-
