Sophomores Entertained

Sunday afternoon a reception was given the Sophomores class by President and Mrs. J. L. Besouet at the old Besouet home, the girls were shown through the historical house, profusely decorated with roses, and were told many interesting stories about the things found there by Dr. Besouet, Dr. Wynn, and Dr. Besouet. After the roses had been thoroughly examined, Dr. Besouet invited the girls into the Library for a grand surprise. Indeed it was a great treat, for he introduced two speakers. Miss Jeanette Hannah, of Marietta, first woman representative in Congress in the United States, and the only woman of congress to vote against the United States entering the world war; and Mrs. Waffington Henderson, of Docto, Ga., chairman of the Republican committee of the Georgia League of Women Voters.

The reception the guests returned to the round room where punch and dinner rolls were served to the honored guests, assisted by the officers of the Freshman class.

Again the age old question "What shall hospitality have more influence on life than environment?" will be debated between the two sections of the History class. The following girls have been chosen as debaters: Carolyn Schän, Docto, Ga.; Margaret Truett, Newnan, Ga.; Jean DeHou Haw, Quitman, Ga.; Ber , McDonough, Ga.; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Sherman, Eatonton, Ga.; Julia Reeder, Newnan, Ga.; Elizabeth Purn, North, S. C.; Mary Ellen Malcom, of Macon, Ga.; Minerva Griffin, Greenville, Ga.; Georgia Green, Atlanta, Ga.; Edw. Little, Fort Valley, Ga.; Chester Dead, Macon, Ga.

MEMORIAL DAY

The fact that when a girl goes off to college she leaves behind her everything save her own initiative and will serve only to make more commendable any action which she feels love and loyalty to "the boys at home." Nothing test an everlasting patriot to a lost cause have prompted an unusually large selection of students to make his the cemetery or Memorial Day to pay his respects to the fallen heroes.

It was a most commendable act on the part of the students, whose chosen to go.

The old soldiers are not as numerous as they were once and we must look a bit at that which personalizes the entire nation, and must make their brave old heart glad.
