Dr. E. W. Smith Addressed Students At G. S. C. W. Tuesday

Dr. E. W. Smith, former foreign missionary secretary of the Presbyterian Church, came to Birmingham on Tuesday night to speak at a special student body G. S. C. W. dinner meeting at the Oakland Hotel.

Dr. Smith said that China is suffering tremendously from the war. She says all the governments are religious, and economics. He believes that the Chinese are of high moral tone and are preserved by the present Chinese government.

Dr. Smith said that the aggregration of the evils he has learned from Christianity is evident. The “Derelict word” has had a meaning for me since I have been in China. The “Derelict word” is the most potent weapon in the Chinese field.

On Sunday night, October 18, Dr. Smith spoke at a service in Atlanta’s First Avenue Presbyterian church. He told us that the Chinese have a keen interest in literature and are beginning to realize the power of the written word. The old and new are meeting in the literature.

The institution of the old Chinese, and secrecy of the Chinese is not known to the outside world. They build their own buildings and find their own teachers.
