Miss Hasslock Writes on Georgia Economies at G. S. C. W.

In an article published in the Georgia State College for Women, Miss Hasslock discusses the economic aspects of the college's history. She cites statistics and data on the college's financial situation, enrollment, and budget.

Summary

The fact that the annual is to be made a reality does not mean that the book will be entirely taken up with the history of the college and its administration, but it is to be a section of G. S. C. W. news, including the campus and the outside world.

Student Activities

The Student Council organized a series of events to celebrate the opening of the new library. The events included a lecture by Dr. J. H. Chaplin, a debate between the history and the philosophy departments, and a reception at the Georgia State College for Women.

Grounds of the New Library Landscaped

The grounds of the new library have been landscaped to enhance the aesthetic appeal of the building. The landscaping includes the addition of new trees, shrubs, and flowers to the existing landscape.

Maid Sullivan Memorial Fund

The Maid Sullivan Memorial Fund was established to honor the memory of the late Miss Sullivan, a former student of the college. The fund will be used to support scholarships and other academic programs.

Education Week Will Be Observed Here

What Are You Willing to Do?

Later this year, the world will sweat for another all-time high that it can then forget about for the rest of its life. Let's try not to waste all the work that we've done on the move in the all-time high.

We don't want to lose sight of the fact that we can learn from our mistakes and work together to create a better future for all.

ACTIVITIES COUNCIL

The "C" has provided a place for every student on the campus. Special groups for新鲜生 and cordialities for upper-classmen, too. We are offered "Activity-Campus," which is to be confined to a group of girls who feel that they have something to contribute to campus life, or who wish to share with others some special way in things that are happening on the campus.

The Social Committee, as a title that every girl can express her personality in a way which will definitely and absolutely welcome the life of her fellow-students. The new organization is designed to provide for those girls who have not yet found an adequate avenue of expression, an opportunity to do the things they like to do. It is hoped that the council will result in the development of leadership in its members and the expression of opportunity to do the things they like to do.
