Board of Regents

At G. C. S. W. Saturday

The Board of Regents of the university system of Georgia held its regular monthly meeting for December at the University at Saturday morning, November 11, in the chapel, and adjourned at 2:00.

The group had breakfast at Hilligoss in the dining room for the board meeting, and it was found necessary to hold a board meeting while here.

The board was called to order.

A previous post "Health Regulations" will soon be out in the third edition. This has been made a test and reflects the health of many colleges in the United States, Canada, Europe, and colleges in South America.

What Christmas Means

The things that really matter, candidly, and their original meaning have been lost in the midst of the year.

What is Christmas? The very word has grown in the course of time, and the meaning has been lost in the midst of the year.

In the western world, we are accustomed to celebrate Christmas with a great deal of festivity, lighting candles, singing carols, and exchanging gifts. This tradition has been passed down from time immemorial, and it is a way for us to come together and celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

Christmas is a time for family, friends, and love. It is a time to remember the true meaning of the holiday and to celebrate with those we love. Christmas is a time to give, and it is a time to receive. It is a time to remember the selflessness and love of Christ, and to strive to live our lives in a way that reflects his teachings.

Christmas is a time to reflect on the meaning of life and to celebrate the miracles that have taken place in our world.

Christmas is a time for joy and happiness, and it is a time to remember the love and kindness that we can share with others. It is a time to remember the power of love and kindness, and to strive to make the world a better place for all.

Christmas is a time to remember the true meaning of life, and to celebrate the love and kindness that we can share with others.

Christmas is a time to remember
the love and kindness that we can
celebrate the love and kindness
that we can share with others.
