Dramatic Committee Will Present Musical Comedies

"Way Down South" and "Mrs. Jiggles Gives a Musical Tea," Written and Directed by Mrs. Hines, Will Be Staged Monday

On Monday night, March 30 at 8 o'clock in the terminal A. A. building, Will be presented two short plays, written and directed by Mrs. Hollis Hines, who will stage the same. The first will be a musical comedy entitled "Way Down South," and the second will be "Mrs. Jiggles Gives a Musical Tea," a one act play.

"Way Down South" is an amusing and colorful comedy that treats especially the children, but also has some tuneful love songs and other musical numbers. "Little Red Riding Hood" and "Snow White" are two of the favorite performance numbers. "Song of the South," by Nat King Cole, will be a thrilling highlight.

The following students make up the cast of "Way Down South":

Aunt Vio-Lyn—Harrill Minihy/Understudy: E. C. Beers
Miss Dover—Rosalie M. Brown
Lidell—White Chaste
Little Lulu—Boy—Mary Turner

Sherwood Mrs. Hines, an alum of this school

"Mrs. Jiggles Gives a Musical Tea" is a young persons' tea, a musical revery. Mrs. Jiggles—Willa Prouty

Auntie Betsy—Mrs. Hines

The make-up at the tea will be the special guests, Bingo, croquet, and tea parties. Special dances will also be given to the girls and to the boys, and the class will appear in a ballroom setting with the ladies and gentlemen.

Sara Hines, the company director, will present a goodly number of the Tea's. The remaining acts of the evening will be changed, and the public will be greatly entertained. Several young people have been cast in the leading roles.
