Activity Council To Present
"Cinderella Of The Sea" Saturday

Cast Of Sixty Students Will Take Part In Musical Revue

"Cinderella of the Sea," most recent of the productions since the opening of the school, will be presented before an audience of about two hundred students in the auditorium by the Activity Council.

The scene of the revue is to be the deep sea, with the elements and the various forms of marine life in full force. The cast of characters will include a sea queen, to be chosen by the students, a sea god, mermaids, merman, fish, and other deep-sea dwellers.

The director of the play will be the students, who will write, direct, and act in the production. The music will be supplied by the orchestra, led by Emily Reeser. The script, written by Margaret R. Smith, will be read to the cast prior to the opening of the show.

Campus Presidents Are Entertained

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION HONORS WOMEN OF COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS

Summer School To Open June 13

APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED COURSES TO BE OFFERED—MOVING PICTURES PLANNED

The regular summer session of the Georgia State College for Women will open June 13, offering approximately one hundred courses. The Prebaccalaureate Summer School will also run a six-week course, offering an opportunity for credit and training in teaching practice.

Despite the change to the scheduled time system recently imposed, the same amount of credit as in the regular session can be earned at summer school. Regular stu- dents who wish to earn credit must have an average of eight or more hours per week. Work done at summer school and during the fall quarter will earn one semester hour.

Mrs. Maude Price Laffoon, director of the office of admissions and registrar, will be director of the summer school last year and is again in charge of the school.

Professor Thaxton has provided a full schedule of entertainment for those attending the summer session, a number of which have already arranged. Five major meeting places will be arranged, as well as several social activities. Those places definitely scheduled are "Art Music," "Chautauqua Fortnight," "Open House New Year," and "Theatre." Others will be arranged as the season progresses.

Summer school will close on July 13 and the fall quarter will begin in the opening of the fall session.

Athletic Guild Meets With Miss Miller

Miss Miller entertained the members of the Athletic Program Club, the Physical Education Club, at her home last Monday evening.
