Librarians Attend Association Meet

Miss Virginia Ruffner, librarian, and Miss Helen Hagen, assistant librarian, attended the meeting of the American Library Association in Atlantic City, Nov. 4.

The librarians say that among the most important things discussed were the allocation of appropriations and recently added reference books. The principal things with the American Library Association did at its meeting in Atlantic City in October was the formal organization of the Association.

Miss Ballanter reports that the special fund for periodicals provided for in the Bonded Fund, and the fourth annual collection at the National Library of Medicine, G. C. W. M., were mentioned.

In the next Association meeting to be held 1934, it has not yet been decided.

Will Durant to Lecture Mon.

Noted Author and Lecturer to Speak on "In Progress"

Dr. Will Durant, noted lecturer and author spoke here Monday on the subject, "In Progress," which he will deliver a series of talks about the social and political history of the ancient world.

Miss大纲 is far from a Pausanias in her knowledge of this great civilization. She knows that there is much wrong in the present picture, but has written a biography of strength and conviction. She is a delightfully charming woman and a wonderful writer. Their aims are harmonious, and she has written a book which will be of great value to the motion picture industry.

A social dinner for the discussion of "Progress" was given at 7:15 tonight at the Presbyterian Church. Dr. Will Durant is expected to be here on Tuesday night at 7:15, followed by the lecture on "In Progress." A consultative group meeting will also be held at this time.

Students Attend B. S. U. in Forvay

Nine students representing the Georgia State College for Women at Besse Tifft College, Farmington, New York, have been chosen to attend the B. S. U. in Forvay, United Nations, an organization that is the connecting link between the committee on cultural relations for these that sponsored the conferees, and the students.

The students attending were Miss N. Missero O'Connor, Miss Helen B. May, Miss Louisa T. Moore, Miss Jo Ann, Miss Margaretha B. F. Johnson, Miss Alice N. Carter, Miss Nellie A. Warms, Miss Katherine Blakeslee, and Miss Vera Bals Packer.

Girl conferring with the conference were entered in the conference.

Monday evening the students were Dr. Lewis Norton, Mr. Abt Nit, and Miss Mary Elizabeth, secretary of the conference.

The college was located at an altitude of 2,000 feet, and the college was located on a lake and surrounded by mountains.

The students were met by the conference, and the students were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 8 P.M. Monday evening.

Forvay College was passed by the students, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Midnight after supper on Wednesday night, all students were invited to come out on the campus for a period of time. Group games were played by the large number of participants.

At 9 and 11 P.M., games were played by the large number of participants.

Mr. Abt Nit and Miss Mary Elizabeth, secretary of the conference, were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Crawford and the students were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Midnight after supper on Wednesday night, all students were invited to come out on the campus for a period of time. Group games were played by the large number of participants.

At 9 and 11 P.M., games were played by the large number of participants.

Mr. Abt Nit and Miss Mary Elizabeth, secretary of the conference, were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Crawford and the students were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Midnight after supper on Wednesday night, all students were invited to come out on the campus for a period of time. Group games were played by the large number of participants.

At 9 and 11 P.M., games were played by the large number of participants.

Mr. Abt Nit and Miss Mary Elizabeth, secretary of the conference, were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Crawford and the students were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Midnight after supper on Wednesday night, all students were invited to come out on the campus for a period of time. Group games were played by the large number of participants.

At 9 and 11 P.M., games were played by the large number of participants.

Mr. Abt Nit and Miss Mary Elizabeth, secretary of the conference, were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.

Crawford and the students were met at 7 P.M. Monday evening, and the students were met at 10 P.M. Monday evening.
Great Scott, is he a new character?

The Colonade
Published Weekly by Students of the University of Wisconsin
1104 State Street
Madison, Wisconsin

Editorial Staff

Editor-in-Chief:
Secretary-Manager:
Business Manager:
Features Editor:
Assistant Editors:

The Colonade is the official organ of the University of Wisconsin, published weekly by the students of the University of Wisconsin. The Colonade is a student-run publication that covers campus news, events, and issues. The content is written by students and reflects their perspectives and experiences. The Colonade is a valuable resource for students, faculty, and alumni to stay informed about what is happening on campus.
National Book Week To Be Observed

Dr. Charles H. Herty, former ly of Elywood, is to continue to be a winner in the annual teachers' selection of the most important book of the year.
This announcement is in accordance with the annual custom of the Winchester Talmud, which presents an annual award to the first place winner for the best book of the year.
Dr. Herty is always deeply interested in the annual contest, and he will be on hand to accept the prize when it is awarded.

Unusual Color Scheme

The Bell Arm, located on the south side of the campus,
has been named the "Color Campus." The colors of the campus are pink and blue, and the colors of the college are red and white.

The colors of the campus are selected by the students, and they are named by the faculty.

Hosker's Shoes

This summer the Hosker's Shoes store, located at the corner of Main and Hosker's, will be renovated. The store will be closed for the summer, and the work will be completed in the fall.

The store will be renovated, and the work will be completed on time.

NEGRO COOK MARRIES

Johnny Johnson, 24, negro cook of the college, married Josephine Smith, 21, a maid, on the 3rd of November, and they were divorced on the 4th.

Mrs. Hall and Dr. Johnson were at the ceremony, which was performed by Judge Carpenter.
The couple did not go on a honeymoon, but returned to their respective homes.

That's how matter of fact marrige are getting these days!

Dinner Party at Mansion

Dr. and Mrs. Benson delightfully entertained the following young ladies at dinner Tuesday:

Elaine L. Foote, Margaret
K. Smith, Elizabeth Hill, Fay
Reed, Dorothy A. Womble, and Celia France.

"Papa, I can't decide whether I am a poet or a non-poet."—Papa—"If you are a poet, it is because you are a failure."