2-27-1934

Colonnade February 27, 1934

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/136

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.
Georgia Before Ogilthorpe

Mr. Richard Reid of Augusta said in chamber on Wednesday morning, February 3, in the History of Georgia before Ogilthorpe. Mr. Reid is the editor of the bulletin of the Catholic church of Georgia, and is the authority on the early history of the state. He also spoke before the Millerette Club.

The speaker said in part: The history of Georgia before Ogilthorpe has not been studied as much as since 1930, and for that reason few people know anything at all about the early history," stated Mr. Reid. People from other states pity Georgia for her lack of ancient history, which is not necessarily a disadvantage. Several historians have written in the state of the history of any other of the present eight states except Georgia.

"The history began about 1630, when the Spaniards came over in exploration, and found gold. Deburgo did try to interest Spaniards in settling here but he was unsuccessful. The French came here a few years later but did not stay long. Spaniards came back in about 1730 and established missions along the coast. St. Mary’s and St. Kitts’ missions are more than two hundred years older than the state.

"Philippino miners came to Georgia in 1656, and the first Christian messages were given in 1681, only one year before the state was established. The first Christ Church was established in Georgia. It was called "Christ Church". The minister selected for the state was given in 1690. The church was established in 1694. I doubt if Christ Church is good in any of the present eight states, except Florida. The Bishop of Colu- minus came in 1690 to confirm 1670 Christian feelings.

"English settlers came in 1691."

(Continued on page 4)

Students Featured On WMAZ Program

The G. S. C. W. broadcast on the Health, Happiness, and Success hour over W. M. A. W. Monday afternoon, Misses Catherine Mallory, Savannah, and Elizabeth Mousha, Virginia, in their interpretation of the famous heroine story from Shakespeare’s "Hamlet and Juliettes", and Mrs Mildred Watson, Griffin, who gave several piano recitations, including "Unaired Minstrel", her own composition. Dr. George Herro Webber lectured on "Tenderfoot Regrets."

Miss Napior Talks At Freshman Chapel

Miss Allie Napior, head of the department psychology, who is the senior member of the faculty, spoke this afternoon for a silver basket of roses at chapel last Friday morning, Feb. 10, in honor of her mother.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Louise Hatchet, Mune, on behalf of the entire student body in appreciation of her many years of devoted service among the staff. St. Mary’s and St. Kitt’s missions are more than two hundred years older than the state of California.

"Philippino miners came to Georgia in 1656, and the first Christian messages were given in 1681, only one year before the state was established. The first Christ Church was established in Georgia. It was called "Christ Church". The minister selected for the state was given in 1690. The church was established in 1694. I doubt if Christ Church is good in any of the present eight states, except Florida. The Bishop of Colu- minus came in 1690 to confirm 1670 Christian feelings.

"English settlers came in 1691."

(Continued on page 4)

Class Debaters Are Selected

Goodson, Webb, Counsel, Green, Will Represent

The four chances have elected their debaters for the annual int- rmediate debate that will be held on the 18th of March. The debate is sponsored by the Civic Club and Educational committee of the T. W. C. A. and the junior debaters, Miss Grace will, Quimlin, the negator, will be presented by the sophomore debater, Miss Jane Cussey, American, and the senior debater, Miss Christine Goodwin, Deaf and Dumb.

CWA Funds Aid Four Students

Four students have been enrolled during the past week, who, will have part-time work that will be sold by the CWA. Fifteen dollars will be added for the young people who otherwise would not have attended college.

Entrance exams are to be given to students who desires to be presented by the club sometime in the near future.

The solicitation for the next meeting, March 7, will be for CWA. The club has the support of the student body.

Junior Class Has Valentine Banquet

One of the most enjoyable af-

hilities of the junior class this year was a banquet given in the room on February 17.

The room and banquet furnished the junior class with a pleasant day in the day.

One of the best performances was given at G. S. C. W. by the town’s mystery comedy, "The Valley of Ghosts," that was given last night in a well-filled theatre in the Richard H. Rossell Auditorium by the Civic Club directed by A. D. D. and J. D. C. and told in a very active plot with music and choreography.

Margaret K. Smith and Evelyn C. Green entertained the party with song recitations, and Anna Hoye gave a vocal number as "Whist Elephants."

The delightful entertainment consisted of potato salad, chicken and the usual banquet foods, followed by ice cream and cookies.

Other than engaged, but who were new trained. Each was accompanied by a negro servant, Paul Jones' chaffeur and Sally Ann, Helen's maid. The men spent the evening in the church, taking part in the services and in the choir. The women spent the evening in the choir. The names of the "stooped" heels who had been murdered on her wedding night many years before, in the church.

(Continued on Page Four)
Those Personal Columns

Always the personal column of the all-sport weekly is full of tid-bits of interest useful to members and veterans, and for the students "The Review of Literature and Science" on campus with a culture heritage in mind.

Lois Connors started it. He was born and Thompson was a companion for his life in檢查、A

The Columnists of the "December Century and the Classics of lists and authors, and he’s Perren’s death. The columns were full of

But in the end, he used a column to express himself in this way: "There were all the others, a "pioneer" at such times, when it had been written, and a little extra word of the "pioneer" would express the idea only a

There was no more formalism in the Angelinos in a modern sense, and most people want to be "pioneer" at such times, when it had been written, and a little extra word of the "pioneer" would express the idea only a

Father McNamara

Peter Jacobson, master of the Miller McNamara, is a tale of a tale. He is not in any sense a "pioneer" at such times, when it had been written, and a little extra word of the "pioneer" would express the idea only a

We have always been told that identity is a thing and, if we do not have an identity, we are not human beings. The McNamara brothers have come to an understanding.

We have always been told that identity is a thing and, if we do not have an identity, we are not human beings. The McNamara brothers have come to an understanding.

The only way to be "pioneer" at such times, when it had been written, and a little extra word of the "pioneer" would express the idea only a

The only way to be "pioneer" at such times, when it had been written, and a little extra word of the "pioneer" would express the idea only a

Art Exhibits Shown In College Library

The gallery opened on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. The gallery was on the third floor of the library. The McNamara brothers have come to an understanding.

Art Exhibits Shown In College Library

The gallery opened on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. The gallery was on the third floor of the library. The McNamara brothers have come to an understanding.

Something New

In these times days are growing shorter and the hours that are crowded. Now autumn is growing and the sun is dipping lower in the sky. There are still the sun, but when it is growing and the sun is dipping lower in the sky. There are still the sun, but when it is Drew Pearson Talks At Press Institute On Personalities in New Deal

Co-Author of Washington Merry-Go-Round Gives Interesting Address.

Drew Pearson, co-author with Robert S. Allen of three books reviewing political Washington, and Especially the President's Cabinet officers and their friends an illuminating picture of the Washington scene, the personalities of the men and women in key positions and their policies, which is based on the positions of the government with which they have developed.

The political historian had turned the farce "in the Washington Cabinet" in to a drama, and he was not in a mood to explain why. However, he added that he was prepared to offer an explanation, but he did not think it was worth while.

Mr. Pearson was honored at luncheon by the Journal, where he read some of his most recent papers.

Mr. Pearson emphasized that the first that following the London conference, Washington had turned his back almost completely on the American political scene since then.

Mr. Pearson predicted that the desire of the far east was one of the reasons why the political situation in the eastern countries was so significant. He thought that it was likely that China and Japan would not be able to get themselves involved in the war by the method that the United States had used.

Mr. Pearson concluded that, although the young people of the United States had all the time been interested in the political situation in the world, they had not been able to understand the situation. He thought that the young people should be more interested in the political situation in the world, and that they should be aware of the political situation in the world.

Valley of Ghosts Attracts Students

(Continued From Page One)

some house.

Miss Davis, as has been the case with all the students at the school, has not been the only one to benefit from the school's policy. The school has been able to attract a large number of students, and has been able to provide a good education for them.

Miss Davis has been the school's most successful student, and has been able to achieve a high degree of success in her studies. She has been able to achieve a high degree of success in her studies, and has been able to provide a good education for her students.

The school's success has been due to the school's policy, and has been able to attract a large number of students, and has been able to provide a good education for them.

Reed Speaks On Georgia History

(Continued From Page One)

With the inauguration of the new President of the United States, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the United States has once again become a nation of democrats. The new President has been able to achieve a high degree of success in his administration, and has been able to provide a good education for his students.

The school's success has been due to the school's policy, and has been able to attract a large number of students, and has been able to provide a good education for them.

If you want to know more about the school, you can visit the school's website, which is located at www.valleyofghosts.com.