Sports Included in Blue Ridge Program

"Billie: what about a little swimming today?" asked the Blue Ridge editor. "Swimming, boating, horseback riding, etc.?" Billie asked, "That's a complete place in the Blue Ridge's activities. Courses in each sport are held between the delegations, but the annual Round the County will continue the curriculum and will include some of the most important events and always the sports in the parks and the Mountain. No more problems for the conference leaders, but just wait until you see one of Ray Cantey's tennis sets used right now."

Of course, if rains are available, Blue Ridge is so located as to be convenient to all attractions of Asheville, Mt. Mitchell, Black Mountain, Chimney Rock, and the Natural Geyser. With such a sports paradise as Blue Ridge, "Plann off, the sports are Ridge affairs, others who might help well.

Another Matter of Pride

Appointment was made two days ago in preparation for the dedication of the first monument of G. S. C. W. Poetry. The little book will be on hand at the press and available for the perusal of every C. W. student.

First report is that the front of the book will be of the best quality. It seems that the book could do some bearing for the university.

For your benefit, the writer, we believe, is of good quality, and would grace the shelves of any library. The first volume of this work, it seems, will be an actual publication.

The Atlantic is being published in a special edition for the students. The board of trustees feels that this is a great honor for the university.

The Atlantic has also been reported to be publishing two new editions of its famous series of books. One of these books, "The American Boy," will be published in the fall.

Instructive Programs Planned
For Ten Days At Blue Ridge

On June 5, 1934, students from all over the southern states will assemble at Blue Ridge for the Southern Student Conference of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. High up on the Blue Ridge mountains, seven miles from Asheville, N. C., Blue Ridge offers a lawn of beauty where students may worship, study, and play for ten days from June 9 to June 19.

Leads of natural and fine musical prominence will be present at the conference this year. The main platform speaker, Dr. E. H. P. Adams, General Secretary of the Peabody Memorial Baptist church at Raleigh, N. C., is one of the most prominent speakers of the south. The subject of his lecture series will be the following open topics: "What can we believe about this world, which is so apparent confusing?" "Can we know God better through Jesus?" "Who are Christian attitudes in political, international, and social questions?"

At least one of these evenings will be in the form of an open forum, at which time students will be given the opportunity to ask questions of Dr. Panton.

A leader of women, which are two brown discussion periods held every morning. Blue Ridge will have this year, is Rev. Prof. Frank Wrigg, executive secretary of the National Student Council of the Y. W. C. A.; Dr. A. D. Bentzel, president of the Presbyterian national church in Nashville, N. C.; Mr. Raymond P. Carlin, Ed ordinator of Social Work in Edinburgh College, N. C.; Mr. Kyle Smith, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the University of Virginia Miss Olive Stout, Dean of Women and Professor of Sociology Miss Helen B. L. Alum, and Dr. Leroy Lorimer, Associate Professor of Philosophy at Emory University.

Margaret K. Smith, G. C. C. W., and Jennie May, Emory student chairman this year, have announced the following to be a typical Blue Ridge day:

7:00: REVEILLE—and a walk to the lake or the Glen or a short way up the mountain before breakfast.

7:30: BREAKFAST.

8:00: A morning on the lake at Lake Hall to see the new books on a trip for a notebook and pencil and then to College Hall for the morning.

8:30: WORSHIP.

For the first time in its history the conference will be conduc-tional, with representatives from all the colleges and universities in the book. Until this year, the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. have met at separate times. Expenses including everything except transportation will be twenty-three dollars.

Why I Want To Go To Blue Ridge

I want to go to Blue Ridge because I have been heard beforehand that there is so much about this world that interested me. At first it seemed through their curiosity of this wonderful place which people talked so much about. The marvellous place, the wonderful mountains, the inspiring feelings all made me want to see what it was like. Later I saw that these people could help me, that there were people who knew a lot about life through experiences and were trained to help. A nine-day stay in these wonderful mountains, which has been so vividly described by others seemed quite worth my time.

Not only did I hear of interesting people but I saw some of the most interesting people and books I had read from them. There was enough money to be had. The conferences were a great deal of some of the students in spiritual. They are baptists in their life time.

There are to be students from the southern states. It will be general to treat them and get our ideas. I express all the means I expect from Blue Ridge but one thing I know, if it is to come in contact with these students. They can broaden your life so.

Father McNamara

Is Chapel Speaker

Father McNamara was the speaker in chapel Thursday morning. In spirit, yet powerful way he demonstrated that true and profound fact that man is "his brother's keeper." He said that back of President Hoover's policy is the "love your neighbor as yourself" theme instead of the usual "what's in it for me?" If this is going to be the world, we will be better off.

Perhaps if love, simple brotherly love, was used often more often in the world, the problem of the benighted world would have advanced a long step in their solution.

Southern Group

Honor Dr. Meadows

Dr. Thomas Meadows was recently elected a member of the Southern Association for Philosophy and Psychology, by acclamation of Dr. George Hildebrand, of this college. This organization is composed of leaders in the field of philosophy and psychology in the south.

G.S.C.W. Student Is Blue Ridge Leader

We are indeed glad and proud to say: Margaret K. Smith will serve as chairman of the Blue Ridge conference. We feel that the students of the Southern Region value a wise choice. We feel that they are fortunate in being able to have the Blue Ridge Council under our direction. G. S. C. W. could have wished for no finer thing than to have "Cray's" and her assistants as one of the Student Chairmen of Blue Ridge. That place where practically all who have been unanimously agree in saying it is of as much infinite value to me-- and of more value in a small corner than anything one can have as student.

Serving with "Cray" is Janie W. Brumfield, Katherine B. Richardson, and Ethel E. Ankenas Scott, and Dr. Win. T. Wynn.

The 1914 class will be mainly in charge of the banquet to be held at the Chief social function of the college reunion, and the 1924 class will sponsor the alumni alumni house vespers service to be held at 8:00 P. M.

Y Secretary Here

Explains Worship At Blue Ridge

"Polly" will be responsible for the entire worship program and will give the service of true worship at Blue Ridge this summer.

In speaking of this she says: "The atmosphere—the mountains and the scenery—speaks of beauty and is a living reminder of the One who created it, but worship at Blue Ridge will be more than the mere acceptance of this fact. It will mean a journey into the deeper areas of life for a realization of the problems of life. Quietly but thoroughly we must free the imagination about us until we understand them and can draw a sense of direction out of this lived experience, so that we may build towards perfection."

"Worship to me means a coming into contact with God to concentrate to all areas of human experience and discover a deeper insight and a sense of direction for ourselves, then it is that worship becomes a living of the spirit because it has discovered a real difference in our food, and it is for this reason that we have a year around the re-creating adventure of our worship."

"So that we can give our thanks to Blue Ridge, that they may find Christ in our meet and the sense that will lead to the greater perfection of our own worship."
