Seniors Honored With Picnic, Show

WEINER ROAST, THEATRE, 2 P.M., AND LUNCHEON GIVEN.

The seniors class entertained the senior class with a roast and various events at Caillouw woods on Friday night, May 25.

Students met at their dormitory steps at 5:30 and following class adjourned along the way, on trip to Caillouw Woods.

The entertainment for the evening was provided by the freshmen and included a "rat" race, an introduction of some senior elected by the first year students and a roast for Dr. McGee who was to be elected and driven back by the host, and his before would take part in the program. The entertainment was the conclusion of a number of freshmen.

Wrestlers, drummers, and cold drinks were served to the guests. The freshmen were Dr. and Mrs. Sidney McGee, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Terry, and Miss Polly Moss.

The skies were electric, and we saw by starlight.

The contest class entitled the senior class at Saturday morning at 10:50 by taking them to the show, and afterwards entertaining them with a buffet lunch at Ernest Rehling hall. Approximately 250 seniors were present. Evelyn Genever played several numbers.

Class and Color Cups Presented

Sophomore Class and Gold Team are Play Day Victors

Play Week ended in the presentation of the class and color cups in chapel on Friday, May 25. The curtain was rolled back at 11:00 to reveal two throngs upon the stage, one of black and red and the other of gold. Upon these were seated respectively Kathleen Roberts, athletic manager of the sophomore class, and Juliette Barton, queen of the golds.

The student body had assembled outside the auditorium in classes, and at a signal given marched in singing their class song. They were followed in order by the junior, sophomore, and freshmen. When all classes were seated, Miss Finley, president of Atlantic Council, gave a short address, followed by "Flamingoay, Swords," given by Miss Caufield's alphalike band during class.

The dancers formed as usual at the completion of the numbers, and Miss Roberts descended the throne, walked down the aisle and received the churnet cup for the sophomore from Dr. James. Miss Burns was presented the Western color cup for the golds.

Individual awards were then given by Mrs. Howard. They were: actress in ingenue, Kathleen Roberts; actress in character, Missah Rosser and Betty Watts; and actress doll. These girls were presented in the solo and team tournaments which were played during Play Week.

Commencement Staff Honored at Party

The old Commencement staff entertained the incoming staff with a dinner party Saturday night in Ernest recreation hall from 6 to 8 o'clock, leaving as its guest Dr. and Mrs. Wynn.

The place cards were small newspapers and the tickets presented were couched in fine newspaper.

Latter in the evening the guests were entertained at the picture "His Nibs.

Sister Marshall was in charge of the program: Eleanor Wilson, the food; and Mary Davis Harper, the decorations.
