Music Department Announces Plans

The Music Department of G. C. C. directed by Miss Allena Lee Turner is making plans for two entirely new student organizations, a glee club and an orchestra society, with which the department hopes to inaugurate a program of greater musical achievement than has ever been attempted here. Dr. Wells is very active in the success of these organizations and has already appropriated funds for the founding of each organization.

The Glee Club will be composed exclusively of freshmen voices picked from the class by the members of the glee club of the regular class. In addition, the male voices in the higher classes have been accepted already. Miss Turner asks that all freshmen boys in their names to her and attend the meetings which will be held in the auditorium at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesdays.

Upperclassmen will be asked to join the Glee Club which will be made up of one hundred voices from each class. The orchestra society will be the union of freshmen and upperclassmen.

Strange Happenings Tell Of Campers At Houston Lake

An unusual incident occurred at Houston Lake when the Y. W. C. A. girls from G. C. C. W. were returning on their trip. No one was certain that an aerobatic pilot was flying in the vicinity until the smell of spilling gasoline wafted through the air and caused the men and women in the boat to jump out of the water. Fortunately, Mary Dan was not injured, and the other boaters were given a treat of swimming and sunbathing in the lake.
Welcome, Freahies!

It's great to be a Demon! It's a wonderful experience and one that you will never be able to describe to anyone who has not been a student or a faculty member at the University of Texas. You'll make friends from every state and every country, and you'll learn to love Campus Life.

Oh, yes, we will be learning. It's true that you have four years' worth of work in front of you, but we'll have our fun, too, and the wonderful facilities and atmosphere in which you'll be spending your college years will make it easy for you to enjoy the experience. The University of Texas has a long and illustrious history of academic excellence, and we're proud to be a part of it.

Oh, how we wish that you could see the wonderful campus job opportunities available to you. The University of Texas has a long and illustrious history of academic excellence, and we're proud to be a part of it.
