Student Elections Feature Week's College Program

77 Women On Roster Of Jesters

Dramatic Organization Announces Plan Revision for '34-'35 School Term

The Jesters dramatic club organized formally with an enrollment of 77 on Friday, October 5, in Alumni recreation hall. The following officers were elected: president, Catherine Malheur; vice-president, Georgiana Walker; secretary, Nation Hatton; treasurer, Edna Letteine. In discussing the reasons for the various phases of dramatics, committee members were formed. Martha Grey Carl- thers was named chairman of the committee on minutes; Winnie War- pude, the stage; Mary Janer, lights; Marie Johnson, makeup; Barrie Saltine, music. Each member of the club is expected to serve on one committee.

Dr. Little was chosen as advisor of the lights committee; Miss Ruston, the stage, and Mrs. Owen, the music.

Since the club will use a jester as the symbol, a member of the club was elected to represent the symbol. Francois Boan was selected from six entrants. The requirement for eligibility to the position of jester was to turn a cart wheel.

One of the chief projects of the committee this year will be a study of Pulitzer Prize plays. A study of play writing and production will be encouraged.

The Jesters is composed of members of the old dramatic club and the Y. W. C. A. dramatic combination. The organization gives credit to the past two and three acts presented by the Dramatic Orgsaization Announces Plan Revision for '34-'35 School Term.

One Act Play To Be Given By The Jesters

The first performance of the Jesters is a one-act play, "Dreaming Doctoriously." The play will be presented on Sunday, November 10. This marks the beginning of a series of one-act plays to be presented by this club. The first big project of the Jesters is to be a two-act play, presented sometime before Christmas.

The cast for the "Dreaming Doctoriously" is: Allyn Wrayburn—Charles Mal- heur, Savanah.

Shelia Wayburn—Martha Hatton; jihadist, Savanah; Mary Janer, lights; Millie—Mary Martha Williams, makeup; Antony—Betty Shelly; Griffin.

Beeson, President Emeritus, Will Teach Classes On Campus

Dr. J. L. Beeson, beloved past president of G. W. C. C., is at the present time serving as the faculty. Dr. Beeson taught chemistry here on our campus before he became president of the college. The girls and faculty are very glad to have him remain on our campus and to know that although through his work he has been lightened he will be with us.

We have known Dr. Beeson as our president; that is he is in the past, he will be in the future. We have known him, and all to the new girls, we are sure that they will love him as we do.

Dormitory Officers Elected Wednesday

Election of the dormitory officers was held in each dormitory Wednesday night, October 10.

The following officers were elected: president, Mary Sawyer, sophomore; vice-president, Martha Gebler; secretary—Bill Bennett, treasurer, Mary Pittetich; Bell president, Mary Sawyer; vice-president, Minnie Dittman, secre- tary, Catherine Calhoun; treasurer, Carla Heath.

Bell: president, Jesse Ann; president, Sara Sul- loy; secretary, Mary Prange; treasurer, Helen Wright.

Elkin: president, Virginia Carche; vice-president, Wilma Feuston, secretary, Jane O'Neal; treasurer, Margaret Gooden.

Marsion: president, Selma Rob- leson; vice-president, Mary Mc- Griff; secretary, Margaret Har- trum; treasurer, Ruth Chipman.

Terrill: president, Blanche Fike, vice-president, Ellen Cal-vine; vice-president, Laela Duvall; treasurer, Pearl Watesy; secretary, Libby Smith.

Terrill A: president, Thelma Chipman; vice-president, Pearl Watesy; secretary, Nell Cob- b; treasurer, Edgar A. Hard.

Terrill B and C: president, Elizabeth Lamott; vice-president, Irene Kiny; secretary, Mary Har- rison; treasurer, Mary Neel Brice.

Injured Teacher Sends, From Bedside, Greetings to Girls

Miss Anna Miller, Recently Hurt in Car Wreck, Writes Letter to Students

Greetings in our old girl's hospital and greetings to all our old girls, fifty hundred and forty plus. How very much I appreciate your lovely flowers and cards and messages. And how very much I should like to be on the campus playing the old games with you, and helping you to realize a little more fully the true meaning and significance of those old games. Just as architectural structures are built for the purpose of housing man's spiritual and intellectual needs and provide, likewise, the old games and games give shelter to social structures and social ideals. Those architec- tures and plays are games closely- knit man's "how-to-be." Let us remember that man is an expression with biological needs, but he is emotionally bound and through the outreach of his emotions man has worked out his politics, his government, his philosophy, his music, dance, art, poetry, and page-antry, and all things pertaining to the "how-to-live." Thus when we play seriously in the social environ- ment, the glory of craftsmanship and skillship and the art of the past is in us and with us.

The "I Don't Know" Club was formed and organized as its regular meeting on Wednesday, Octo- ber 10. The membership consists of those girls in the 2:30 anatomy class who, for some reason, want to feel that they are unable to quote to the sponsor of the club, Miss Laura Smith, the answer to the questions asked. Upon such a request the sponsor will answer both the question and the word, "I don't know" and receive a point.

W. Y. C. A. Installs New Girls With Candle-light Services

The installation of the W. Y. C. A. members took place on Sunday evening at a candle-light service in the auditorium and on the front campus before Parents' Day. The program was opened with an organ prelude by Miss Margaret Jenkins was followed by a song by the entertainment unit, Alpha Omega. The installation was in charge of the devotional and was feared by the entire audience. Miss Polly Moss gave a talk on dedicating ourselves to service.

Miss Ruth Vishnev gave a leader's address to the group, and all were introduced to the boy and the girl, half of the Y cabinet and expan- sion committee. Miss Kathleen Roberts responded with a dedica- tion of membership in the purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Young Woman's Christian Association is to be used in union such persons can- not be, and all worked out on the campus singing "Follow the Fleuron."
Preparation For Life

Preparing yourself for life is the greatest position that you will know. For what problem when or how can we possibly be up to half way out there just while waiting? We may as well sell for the world and see a happy last or a holding down.

"Know yourself?" You've always been ad

What Now?

For those of you who are new to us, there are different groups of girls all in my life by the way. We are here for a purpose. I'm here for one reason, and that's to help them some way or another. I'm not going to be any more of an interesting person than you are when I'm not doing any more of an interesting thing than you're doing. And I'm not going to be any more a real person than you are when I'm not doing any more of a real thing than you're doing.

What do you want to do with your life? What do you want to make of your life? How do you want to live your life? What should you do to make your life the best it can be? What are your goals? What are your ambitions? What do you want to achieve?

Foreign Policies

New government is a great gain for all, at S.C.W. College, and the students of this institution are the great gainers.

As those who have participated in the study of foreign policy or have a general interest in the subject will know, the United States, through the agency of the State Department, has been at the forefront of the effort to establish a new world order. This effort has been characterized by a number of policies, including:

1. Promotion of democracy and human rights throughout the world.
2. Support for economic development and growth.
3. Promotion of international cooperation and the rule of law.

The American government has been instrumental in the establishment of the United Nations, which is made up of 193 member states, and the World Trade Organization, which is the most important organization in the world. These organizations are working to promote peace, prosperity, and stability around the world.

I MxAA

THROUGH THE WEEK WITH

WELL DRESSED AND WELL GROOMED

Wearing a suit and tie is a requirement for all freshmen. This is to ensure that they are properly dressed for their classes and other formal events. The following are some guidelines for dressing:

- Wear a suit and tie for all classes and formal events.
- Wear a dress shirt and dress pants for all classes and formal events.
- Wear a sport coat and dress pants for all classes and formal events.
- Wear a jacket and dress pants for all classes and formal events.

Spanish Club Holds Meeting

The Spanish Club held its meeting on Friday night in the School of Languages. The meeting was open to all members of the Spanish Club, and it was a great opportunity to meet new people and learn more about the culture.

The meeting was held in the School of Languages and was led by the Spanish Club president, who gave an introduction to the meeting and discussed some of the upcoming events.

The meeting ended with a dinner, which was enjoyed by all members of the Spanish Club.

Misa Miller

The meeting was a great success and the members of the Spanish Club are excited to continue their work in promoting Spanish culture and language.

The next meeting will be held on February 5th, at the same time and place.

- Meet new people and learn more about the culture.
- Learn about the Spanish language and literature.
- Enjoy a great dinner with friends.
Upper Class
Leaders Chosen

(Continued from page one)
Judge, Mrs. Jos. Dea, and others. The newly-elected leaders are all girls of outstanding ability and achievement.

The Upper Class was honored last night as president of the Artistic and Academic societies, and chairman of the committee of the the Artistic and Academic societies, and chairman of the committee of the club. Books for the class were presented by the last year's biology club. Mary Lavine, who is president of the class, was also the toast of the evening. Julia Dykes is active in the French club, and is a member of the French Club. Margaret Edwards has been extraordinarily outstanding in the Y and is now student vice-president. She served as treasurer of her class last year.

The officers for the new school year are as follows:

President: C. H. Allen, Class of 1924.
Vice-President: E. S. Allen, Class of 1924.
Secretary: A. W. Smith, Class of 1924.
Treasurer: L. H. Smith, Class of 1924.

The Upper Class bulletin is published weekly and contains news from the various societies, as well as announcements of events and activities. It is an important source of information for the Upper Class students.

Bulletin
Placed Boards Near Arts, Parks, And Atkinson

The G. S. C. W. campus boasts several new bulletin boards. In the past year's edition, it was noted that the students often seem to whisper the slogans of this year when they visit the campus. This year, the boards of doing their parts are the campus bulletin boards.

According to the bulletin, there were several traditions at the entrance to the dining rooms and in a central location between Atkinson and Arts halls. Announcements of importance to the student body are placed on these boards and distributed with all announcements in the student's weekly bulletin.

Bulletin news is in charge of the bulletin boards and all sections must have their bulletin news.

Collegeate Prattle

We've grown strange tastes, but this is one of the strangest of them all. The Artistic and Academic societies have just received their annual bulletin, the Collegeate Prattle. It seems that the editors have been thinking a great deal of our history in the past year, and perhaps even thinking about the future. They have, naturally, we don't know for certain if there is any great change in this department, but it's all the same.

Collegeate Prattle is well-written, and the articles are interesting. The society notes are well-written, and the editorials are excellent. The Society News is the best feature of the Collegeate Prattle. It covers all the activities of the various societies, and provides a good source of information for the students.

Bible Study Classes

Announce Meetings

The Y. W. C. A. adds a new feature to its activities by offering Bible Study Classes. These classes are open to all students, and are held weekly on Sunday evenings. The classes meet in the chapel of the University, and are led by Reverend Dr. R. W. Smith. The classes are divided into two sections, and are held at different times to accommodate the schedules of the students.

The Bible Study Classes are well-received, and are attended by a large number of students. The classes provide a opportunity for the students to learn more about the Bible and to discuss the meaning of its teachings.

College Campus

Now Has Garden

A formal garden on the parterre site of the old main building, which was burned in 1921, is one of the most beautiful additions to the campus of the Georgia State College for Women. The garden, which is located on the south end of the old building, was designed by Mrs. Jos. Dea, and is a beautiful addition to the campus.

The garden is open to the public, and is a popular gathering place for the students. It is a beautiful place to relax and enjoy the outdoors.

Maidenfield's new column...

You Don't Say!

Helen Wilson, Pianist, the famous pianist in Emelia hall has a copy of Waukesa College Bulletin that she is planning to read. In fact, she has read it in her spare time. Some of the students have been heard to say that they think it is just as good as the Waukesa College Bulletin.

In 1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

In 1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.

1899, William Wilson, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, wrote a letter to the editor of the Bulletin. In the letter, he expressed his thoughts on the Bulletin and its value to the students.