11-19-1934

Colonnade November 19, 1934
Allen Pays Tribute on Armistice Day

Defend Nation Against War, Says Speaker Urging For World Peace

Mr. DeLacy Allen, state commander of the American Legion, was the principal speaker on the program given in the auditorium on Monday, November 11, in honor of those brave soldiers who gave their lives overseas in hope of a future free from terrorism.

The day's program was under the direction of Dr. George Harris Tucker, the G. M. C. hand played a series of patriotic tunes of war.

A feature of the program was a poignant display by the cadets from Moore, in which Columbia, the American flag, and the star, sword, and horn of the World War were represented. Proceeding the roll call of the dead, taps were sounded by the G. M. C. cadet, and as the names of each soldier who died for the cause was called, a medal was blown out and a light appeared on the Cross.

Addressing the day, Mr. DeLacy Allen, state commander of the American Legion, was introduced by Col. Edwin Stibby. Declaring that the American Legion's associations, in which America is represented and demonstrated, are those who have prepared the way into the future.

"There is not one man, woman, or child in the audience who would not be proud to have the honor bestowed on them," declared Mr. Allen. "Let us base our congress of men and women to our children will be kept prepared to defend themselves in case of war."

In Memoriam

There was one who served large and faithfully students at G. S. C. W. Those whom he loved knew him. Those who loved him respected him. Those who knew him, loved him. He was ready to help solve problems for the students. And he cannot find to be of service to his fellow student.

For he was a student even if his school days were over. He was always learning and trying to help others learn. This man was Dr. George Harris Webber.

House Party Will Honor Day Students

Attendees, everybody! Final! The biggest news scoop of the season. G. S. C. W. is giving a house-party and birthday party October 23rd afternoon and evening through Sunday. The college girls will have their party on the campus. This occasion is to be the outstanding event of the quarter. Not only will it be enjoyable to the girls, but the facilities will be used in a way that every girl will enjoy the event.

Saturday afternoon they will have their choice of a variety of entertainments which have been planned for them. Saturday night they will have an opportunity to be entertained by the theater, and there will be a special entertainment to accompany the play. A picture show.

They may spend Saturday night in any theater, with any girl they wish. Sunday will also be devoted to the colleges.

This house party is being given in appreciation of the campus girls and the day students may become acquainted with, and to show them that we are a definite part of G. S. C. W.

Pittman Talks to Students

"Difference in Attitude Toward Life Is Difference in Individuals," Says Speaker

Dr. M. S. Pittman, president of the State College Teachers College, Spartanburg, was the guest speaker of G. S. C. W., at an all-school meeting Wednesday, November 7. Another visitor on the chapel program was Mr. E. R. sedan, a member of the Board of Regents of the University system, who spoke a few words to the students by reading the plan for the construction of a student apartment house and a swimming pool in the near future.

Dr. Pittman spoke on the change of our attitude toward the betterment of a man's world. "Two men looking at the same rose may see one put out and the other a new star."

"What they saw was not due to the place where they were but it was due to the devotion in which they were looking. The difference in what they saw was due to what they were and what they had lived. The great difference in individuals is the difference in each individual's attitude toward life."

Today we have changed our attitude on political affiliations which above we have become politically independent. Varieties of political voting that are practiced today have changed. The American is no longer the same person that he was once."

"We are also, accepted today (Continued on page 3)

Senior's to be Feted By the Alumnae At Formal Tea

Locally, the estate of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hatcher, will have one of the largest of the New Year social affairs where the G. S. C. C. of Baldwin county entertained the members of the Senior class at the Georgia State College for Women. In the assembly, Miss Lynne Smith, president of the club; Mrs. George Estall, vice-president; Miss Mary Ann Jones, secretary; and Miss O. M. Woodruff, treasurer; Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Withers, Mrs. W. H. Hatcher, Mrs. W. B. Tapp, Miss Ethel Adams, dean of women; Miss Mary Louise Anderson, alumnus president.

The girls were transported there, which appeared at the only, under the direction of Miss Roselle Barnett.

Committees appointed by Mrs. R. B. Hatcher are to be in charge of the reception facilities of the room, and any Millard Milling girl who aid all attended G. S. C. W. are certainly urged to be present.

A special program for the tea was arranged by a committee head- by Mrs. John Overstreet.

Dr. Webber Honored At Commencement

Several national Educational journals have recently carried arti-

Dr. George Harris Webber

Education Journal Publishes Articles By FacultyMember

Glenville Players' Play Receives First Lyceum Attraction

Gillette Parker

The first week of the year will be presented in the college auditorium at 8:00 P. M. on November 1, Local. The Glenville Players' will present the comedy drama, "The Street of New York." These plays have been picking up the interest of the United States, having played at Princeton, Wayzata, Smyrna, and other college campuses in the United States. Their performances have been very well received by the audience present at the college auditorium.

All Students Will Take Tuberculin Test

Dr. Carl B. Barratt, of the state board of health, will come to G. S. C. W. on November 15, to give a tuberculin test to all stu-

(Continued on page 5)
Concerning Dress

"Let's dress for dinner, tonight."—Do you agree? The spectators of the many a season on a sturdy G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.

Let's Debate

Defining a meaningful victory in the G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.

Let's Debate

Defining a meaningful victory in the G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.

Let's Debate

Defining a meaningful victory in the G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.

Let's Debate

Defining a meaningful victory in the G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.

Let's Debate

Defining a meaningful victory in the G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.

Let's Debate

Defining a meaningful victory in the G. C. W. student, which was heard for the first time in the arena, have been impressed by the developing and practicing of the second term. The school and the school's faculty members have been impressed by the dress. The fashion show was held at the Waldorf Astoria, which was attended by the students of the school. The students were well-dressed and the fashion show was a success.
Historic Gowms Showed to Students By the Faculty

Miss Katherine Scott and Mrs. Alice C. Cummins, editors of the school newspaper, "The Columbus" green, announced a special meeting of the Choral Society in the gymnasium on Monday evening. A total of 100 students and faculty members were present.

The meeting was called to order by President John Smith, who served as temporary chairman. The program included a presentation of the school's history, followed by a question-and-answer session with Mr. Smith.

Education Journal Has Faculty Article

The Columbus High School faculty has been the subject of a recent journal article. The article, published in the School Administrator, focuses on the importance of faculty involvement in school decisions. The article highlights the role of faculty in promoting a positive school culture and improving student outcomes.

Georgia Cherokees Make Formal Debut

The Georgia Cherokees made their formal debut on Saturday night. The team, composed of students from various schools in the region, impressed the crowd with their skills and teamwork. The event was a great success, and the Cherokees are expected to continue their winning streak.

National Student Exchange Program

A new program, the National Student Exchange Program, has been established to facilitate student exchanges between schools across the country. The program aims to promote cultural understanding and academic collaboration among students.

Georgia Teacher Receives Award

Mrs. Linda Johnson, a dedicated teacher at Columbus High School, has been awarded the prestigious Teacher of the Year award. Mrs. Johnson has been recognized for her commitment to her students and her innovative teaching methods.

The Little COUNTRY STORE

Across the Bridge Goes "CANADA" ALWAYS

YOUSKIE

Pecony Beach has been named the winner of the 2023 Pecony Beach volleyball tournament, held in honor of the late Mary MacKinnon. The tournament, which took place on the Pecony Beach volleyball court, featured 16 teams from across the country. The event was a great success, and the Pecony Beach community is looking forward to next year's tournament.