105 Students Will Graduate On July 19

Pool Is Officially Dedicated To Student Body June 25

POOL OPENED WITH FITTING CEREMONIES

Dr. Guy H. Wells, president of the college, dedicated the newly-conceived pool which was dedicated formally Tuesday afternoon.

L. C. Fowler, banker for the local woman's college, as the builder of the structure, presented the pool to Dr. Wells, who in turn presented it to the students.

Miss Ida Kittsey, head of the physical education department, made a short talk on the uses of and the benefits to be derived from the pool.

Miss Katherine Pittman and Roselette Burch assisted in the dedication exercises.

Following the formal dedication, the students at the college took part in an exhibition. Among these were Marion Mann Gordon, Charlotteville; Harriett Pfister, Albemarle; Laura Seabolt, Port Valley; Sadie Layne, Atlantic; Esther Mallin, Millidelberg; Katherine Walters, Mason; Elma Coven, Atlantic; Celia Little, Memphis; Beatz Reed. University Heads Honor Waiter at Dinner Here

"Professor in their praise of the work done during his tenure of office, the University Council Monday night honored Philip W. Waiter, dean of the board of regents who retired June 1, at a dinner at the Mansion, the official home of Dr. Guy H. Wells, president of the Georgia State College for Women, and of Mrs. Wells.

The University Council consists of the president and dean of the University System of Georgia.

Although it was thought that all of the members of the Board of Regents present and present, as well as the newly elected members would attend the dinner, the only one who was present was Miller Burnell, Millidelberg, because he was newly elected member of Board who will take office July 1.

Dr. E. V. Burnell, who until the time of his election was president of the University of Georgia, narrated Waiter at the head of the Board of Regents. He was toastmaster of the dinner.

Dr. Burnell pointed out that much of the present program is due to the foresight of people who lived long ago. He showed that although the titles and the offices have been changed, most of the place of the University Board had been formed by Abraham Baldwin more than a century ago. (Continued on page 2)

DETROIT FREE PRESS PRAISES DANIELS' WORK

Claiming Dr. Peters Peter Daniels as one of the most eminent men of his age, many of whom have taken residence in Georgia, the Detroit Free Press, one of the country's outstanding papers, pointed with great respectfulness to national and spiritual accomplishments like man who was a former resident and native of that state.

Dr. Daniels is professor of Latin at the Georgia College for Women. He is the author of the widely read and highly praised collection of poetry, continual in its praise, "The Golden Grove."

The complete article from the Detroit Free Press is published below.

DR. DANIELS' LIFE REFLECTED IN VARIOUS POEMS

Georgia as a place of residences seems to have a strong bias for eminent men of the past. Therefore, Dr. Daniels is a head of the Latin department at the Georgia (Continued on page 3)

Barbecue Will Be Given on July Fourth

A gala program is being planned for the Fourth of July by the college authorities, a link to the city in the early afternoon beginning the festivities. Supper will be served on the river banks at Trainor's plantation.

Classes will be dismissed in the afternoon in order for all students to participate in the activities which have been planned by Dr. Wells, Mr. L. E. Easter, Miss Angeline Kitchen and Miss Roselette Burch.

An afternoon of sports has been planned under the direction of Dr. Wininger and the members of the Recreation association executive board who are Donn Adams, Elizah Bollinger, Lola Dow, and Miss Layne.

Among the games which will be played are croquet and golf. The Annual picnic is due to the foresight of people who lived long ago. It is shown that although the titles and the offices have been changed, most of the place of the University Board had been formed by Abraham Baldwin more than a century ago. (Continued on page 2)

CITYSCAPE EMERGES FROM HER
HEB-VICTORIAN AGE

The Civic is well on its way to the mid-Victorian age; refreshments are being brought to all seats including the raised generation money management, which is a fundamental fact and should be taught to every child in every school together with reading, writing and arithmetic.

During the last twenty years, the Americans have enjoyed a national income of twelve hundred billion dollars. If they had been well spent, they would have enabled everyone to live in comfort and happiness despite the depression.

Inflation, and not the florin's, is the solution to the management problem. We must overcome financial hysteria in our country.

America must put courses in money management into the schools. College and high school courses won’t suffice.

A. Lauren Brown
Urges Students to Invest Money

"Why didn't our scientific age prevent the universal suffering due to lack of savings, honors, equities, inventories and insurance as a result of the depression," asked A. Lauren Brown, Educational Director of the House of Tomorrow, Chicago during his address on Money Management at the chapel exercises on July 3.

By the use of colored slides, he showed in a most interesting way the method used at the Century of Progress Exposition to depict the contributions of science to human life and happiness in the last 100 years.

Mr. Brown has just completed 30,000 miles of riding 48 states and provinces of the United States and Canada in the interests of Economic education in the schools of the country. His visit to G. S. C. W. was made under the auspices of the home economics department.

Mr. Stuart Wootten introduced Dr. Brown to the summer school faculty and students.

Dr. Brown continued his talk by showing how science, applied to the problems of the world, has added many of them. He showed how science, applied to transportation, has transformed the covered wagon into the modern airplane; science applied to methods of communication has brought the radio into the living room; science applied to modern factory mass production has eradicated many of the diseases which have plagued the human race; science has been applied to death itself by providing death insurance.

"But when and where," asked Dr. Brown, "was science applied to the problem of depressions by providing living protection—the providing of positive security of the amount of money which they can protect their loved ones and their equities when depressions hit? At the moment when we are entering the latter part of a century of the application of science to human needs, we witness the greatest destruction of human savings in history. Conservative politicians estimate the losses one hundred and sixty billion dollars. This is thirteen times all the debts of the governments of the world owing to the United States.

Wells Announces New Faculty for 1935-1936 Term

The new faculty members for the coming year have been announced by Dr. Wells. Additional teachers will be added due to some of the regular faculty taking leave of absence for further study. Others have been added to take the place of those who are retiring or on part-time work.

Dr. Cameron Rogers, formerly of College college, S. C., will be added to the English department. Dr. Rup-pers as a P. D. of Cornell university. She will replace Miss Katherine Scott who will retire in a few weeks during the year to study at Columbia university.

W. C. Cupid of Sandor, N. C., will replace Professor Thaxton of his work in Soviet studies. Mr. Thaxton also plans to take the year off for further study. Mr. Cupid received his A. B. from Washington and Lee and his M. A. from Columbia university.

Miss Idi Pound of Atlanta will assist in the History department, replacing Margaret Burns. Miss Burns plans to complete the requirements for her master's degree.

Miss Pound received both her A.B. and her A.M. degrees from Columbia University.

The following people have been added as a result of some retirements.

Professor Miss H. M. joins the Music department. He has his Mus-ter's degree from Columbia university and has had extended experience as a member of the music department at Guilford college, N. C. Mr. Misch has already made a visit to the campus and was introduced as a member of the faculty this afternoon.

Miss Tucker will replace a recent emeritus and assist in voice instruction.

Miss Mildred English will become superintendents of the Pedestrian Police Department.

son college for Teachers and at present is completing the work for his doctorate. She has served as assistant librarian in the social sciences of Raleigh, N. C. Her present position will be as assistant librarian in the administration of the practice school.

Miss Burkitt will continue as director of the junior high school.

Miss Iona Chandler will take the place of one of the house mothers.

She will have the title of social diaector of the junior high school. Miss Chandler recently came to the college from G. S. C. W. in Valdosta where she has served. She has studied at Columbia university.

In addition to her work as social director, she will do some teaching in the freshman survey courses.

CITYSCAPE INSPECTED

Colonal John P. Thomas, Chairman of the Civic Board of Visitors, recently made an inspection of the area of the Infantry Barracks and the barracks of the Artillery Battalions. Colonel Thomas examines the Civic on the exact location of the Corps in general and particularly on the exceptional sensations of the hammers.
