WRITERS FROM 4 CLASSES WILL ENTER CONTEST

The editors and advisers of the 1952-1953 edition of the G. E. A. newspaper have announced an opening of the annual fall literary contest for members of all four classes, freshmen class in one group, and writers in all three upper classes in one other group. Competition will be in essay writing, short story, poetry writing, and poetry versification.

The purpose of the literary contest is to encourage interest in writing. Prizes consisting of cash awards will be distributed to the winners, as well as to the writers of the best poems and stories. The contest will conclude on November 1, and entries should be submitted to the G. E. A. newspaper office by that date.

Your To Share.

There is not for the first time, yours to share again.

We have moved the "think" around, translated the art, enriched the language, and given a different emphasis to the words. You will find them more fitting and of better quality than ever before. The result of much thought and much work in an attempt to give you something new, which we hope will be profitable to you.

The column is not only a means of sharing ideas and experiences, but also a means of creating a friendly atmosphere. We believe that it is important to share our thoughts and feelings with others, and that this sharing can be done in a positive and constructive way.

This column is not a place for just anyone to write, but rather a place for people who have something to say. We encourage you to contribute your own ideas and experiences, and we will do our best to ensure that they are shared in a way that is respectful and informative.

Thank you for reading this column, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.
