Notice

This notice has been published and posted on the bulletin boards several times during the fall quarter, but there is still some misunderstanding among some people on the campus in regard to the celebration of Thanksgiving.

The editors of the Colonade state, for the benefit of those persons who have misunderstood in the past:

The Colonade staff will not be held responsible for the leaving out of news items not handed to a member of the staff during regular office hours.

Any copy must be handed in between 8:00 and 11:00 a.m. to Colonialist editors before noon Thursday.

Any notice for the following week's Bulletin must be in Mrs. McCullar's office not later than Thursday of the preceding week.

Copy written by staff members is still needed, and those people who know that news events are wanted must be sure that information is placed in the office.

Hendrick's "Messiah" will be presented on Sunday afternoon, December 16, in the auditorium by the Millerville Community Choral Society under the direction of Mr. Max McWhorter.

The society is composed of two hundred persons, from the G. C. W., family of the G. C. W., faculty of the Millerville and several nearby communities who have worked with the group throughout the season from the first of October.

Praise has been made by Mr. Noah to have the privilege of singing the choruses as an annual event prior to the Christmas holidays. Each year new members and new programs will be added to those which will be sung this year.

The Messiah is used in the public schools of all times, and was presented last year for the first time in the G. C. W. C. with large choirs of students and Millerville residents.

Work on the program for the December 15 presentation was begun the first of October under the direction of Mr. Noah. Mrs. Wills, Mr. Hunsen Allen has been as assistant pianist.

Solicited are Mrs. Helen Granade Long, soprano; Mrs. Max McWhorter, contralto; Vaughan Green, tenor; Walter Hildebert, baritone; Mrs. Wiles, Homer Allen, basso; Miss Maggie Jenkins, mezzo.

Ville's Branch of A. A. U. W. Has Meeting

The Millerville Branch of the American Association of University Women met at the residence of Annette Benda on Thursday evening last with Mrs. Amanda Johnson, president; Mrs. Anna W. Miller, second vice president; Mrs. Anna C. Smith, third vice president; Mrs. Edward Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. Emma Johnson, treasurer.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 8:00 o'clock and a roll call was taken by Mrs. Sarah Johnson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved by all present.

It is customary to determine the size of the class at the beginning of the year and the course is then divided according to that size.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Sophomores to Give Christmas Play Saturday

The sophomore class will present its Christmas program as chapel Saturday, December 15.

The entire class is composed of junior and senior students who will be distributed through the choirs of Millerville to nearby families. The gifts will be in the form of clothing and clothing. All the packages will be wrapped in white and presented on the Christmas tree on the stage Saturday morning.

The program consists of a medley of Christmas carols played on the organ by Yville Wible and selections from the three under the direction of Yville Wible and Yville Burroughs.

The complete program is as follows:

1. "O Little Town of Bethleme"
2. "Silent Night"
3. "Angels We Have Heard On High"
4. "Weihnachtslied"
5. "Stille Nacht"
6. "Thanksgiving Hymn"

All the details for the rest of the program have not been compiled yet. They will be announced later.

The program committee included: Joan Butler, chairman; Margaret Gerrell, Grace Collier, Yville Wible, Burroughs, and Elizabeth Jackson.

The presentation of a white Christmas program is a custom established last year to be suggested by this class during its Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years.

NOTICE

The Colonade will not be published next week; due to the full quarter examination period which precedes the beginning of the Christmas holidays. The Colonade will not be published again until the winter quarter begins, January 1, when they were entirely finished and the printing schedule will be resumed.

Carola Goya, who completely charmed her audience last night with her first appearance in Millerville, presented a series of dances that thrilled every person who saw her.

She was escorted by Frank Burford, baritone, and Norman Hunsen, alto. Miss Goya, who Saturday evening gave the second part of the program, while Mr. Noah gave the first.

Goya is one of the most agreeable figures in the dance world today; she is complete mistress of the technique, of the music, and the art of her art; but she also obviously feels the music of each dance, and her personality, her music, are so well put together that it is easy to feel it as well. In her last recital last night, Goya made a series of memorable dramatic pictures.

La Goya opened her program with the lovely "Bella Diana," the theme of which is the first traditional dance of a program in Spain.

The second part of the program was opened by a dance of Danseuse called "Dinorah." The Vajenldea women are noted for the distinction and delicacy of their costumes, and the dress worn by the young artistian compete with the loveliness of the province. Her dress was of white silk shot through with a variegated pattern, and there was a spray of silver as a crown. She was added to the guest list of noble ladies and silver sequins. Her presence was of fine grace to the eye. On her head she wore a handsome hat of antique color worn as the accent of her performance. La Goya presented as her second part of this number, the program of the dance of Miss Joanna of the Vajenldea.

This was another of the traditional Spanish dances, and was de-
This is Necessary?
We have been told that a golf course is being built at Nebbed, next year, for we have been told that the college association would not permit any one to make up one of the golf courses.

What is It Necessary for?
We have improved and taken to the effect that the expense of the association is at the expense of the students at the expense of the Camps

For all you agle who have the C. B. or "team" worries, the Re- creation Department is conducting a course, the result of which should be realized by you who may do your work's duties on a dormitory swimming class for this whole week. Follow the trend on the day that your dormitory is scheduled and you will feel you're more like swimming Schedule is as follows: Monday—Adams.

Tuesday—Revelle Fraper & "A" Wednesday—Mason & Rubin.

Thursday—Pratt & Bell Annex

This doesn't mean that you can't use up days other than your dorm, is scheduled, but you will have to be here that day or be excused by your head. It will be all the better by your cooperation on your special day.

The吸收 games made it possible that the freshmen can take it. It was a cold and heavy day when these lads got out on the field cheered on by the enthusiastic "C" girls. The upperclassmen had clanked all night. All day there was no freemasonry. Friday morning. They thought they had beaten us out of their more gory quota. Uniform Chervons were found for up above the top of the store, merry field. The upperclassmen pushed a little harder and broke the enemy in the last half, winning by a score.

Now that the season of soccer has ended and volleyball will be closed the season also, we think it appropriate to broadcast laurels on Frances Barnes and Robert Bob- erson for their good work as managers of these two wholesome sports. Or at least some of the majority of them were freshmen.—You can't call to these freshmen just about now this school around here, but they're here.

Monday the class volley ball tournament starts off with a bang the Junior vs. the seniors. Tuesday, the sophomores vs. freshman. Wednesday the hours of these games will play and Thursday brings the final game to see who is the champion of the college. All the games will start promptly at 5:30 p.m. on the terraces to hear the sound of the foot on the field. We go to give students at least two line of each class, but that doesn't mean any team who are eligible. To brighten a bit more that at least six hours during the val- uable hour.

Senior Team—Booth, F. Stand, K. Smith, J. Hart; 2nd, B. Mooney, K. Hofer, J. Redmond.

"Winter Fountains of Georgia" was written in 1933, in celebration of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the state. Only a limited number of copies of this book were printed. The book is very attractive, and is personalized and autographed by the author and by the illustrator, Comedia Curnings. Mr. Hicky's newest publication, "Candian Strays," was released from the press in September. Last winter he was invited by the New York Society to read selections from the book, which is receiving much praise.

Following the recital in the auditorium, Mr. Hicky was honored at an informal reception in the bathroom of the library. Guests included faculty members and the members of the Literary Guild.

The new recitation list included Dr. Wynn, Mr. Hicky, Miss Risby, president of the Guild; Mr. Guy W. Wells, Mrs. J. L. Brown, and Mr. Ethel Adams.

Amusing in entertaining were the Dean, Eleanor Sparkman, Mmiria Ann Irwin, Sara Jane Beck, Elizabeth Stuart, and Hazel Rhyll.
