Starting their tour of the state with a full week's program ahead, the members of the Middletown College Choir presented their second annual State Tour Sunday.

The choir is divided into two groups: the men's choir and the women's choir. The men's choir sings primarily in the lower registers, while the women's choir sings in the upper registers. The choir practices together, but each group has its own director.

One of the highlights of the tour is the performance of a well-known classical piece, the Mozart Requiem. The choir also performs a variety of modern and contemporary pieces, including works by American composers.

The choir's performance is accompanied by a live orchestra, which adds to the overall musical experience.

The tour is a great opportunity for the choir to share their love of music with others and to gain valuable performance experience. It is also a chance for the choir members to explore new places and cultures, and to make new friends along the way.

The choir is grateful for the support of their community and looks forward to continuing to perform and share their music with others.

Harry S. Edwards

To Speak Here

On March 10

Mr. Harry S. Edwards, the well known writer who lives at Holley House in Washington, will be the guest speaker on a program sponsored by the Georgia Student Government at chapel, Thursday, March 10th.

Mr. Edwards was famous in the "s niceties" of a mystery story which came first in a contest put on by The Chicago Tribune. The prize was $1,000. Mr. Edwards traveled the country with his book "Kermit Adriani" written about an old boy, who just after the war between the states, was instructed by his master with valuable secrets. Edwards was a keen and active man, keen on sports.

Harry S. Edwards, at 80 years of age, he declared that if he grew up to modern times he would be 'disably young.' He has been a constant visitor to our campus, always welcome. In turn, he has been held at his home at Holley House where groups of G. C. S. students have been frequently visited in the house.

On this occasion, Mr. Edwards will read from some of his works.
