Evelyn Aubry, Atlanta, was named editor of the Colonnade for next year at the staff elections held last week. Her associate will be Lucy Caldwell, Smyrna.

The business staff is headed by Thomas Daniel, Orleans; V. A. Aviona Alston, Macon, was unanimously re-elected as advertising manager. Ethel Vaught Burke, Atlanta, was re-elected exchange editor; Betty Blalock Griffith was named circulation manager; and Elizabeth Jones Reynolds, assistant manager.

Completing the editorial staff are Martin Alston, Alsemar, feature editor; Betty Holloway, Atlanta,アー; Zane Armson, Columbus, and Mary Rehfeldt, Deacor, news editors.

All the members of the editorial staff, with the exception of the editor, were added to the staff at various times during the year by "interview" reporters, an experiment carried on by the editors to allow freshmen to serve their internship before becoming full-fledged staff members.

Evelyn Aubry retired Betty Bland, Galaxville, with whom she has served as associate editor for three years; her associate position was that of news editor.

Senior's Present Annual Musical Comedy May 6

It was demonstrated following the presentation of the senior musical comedy, "The Southern Girl in Paris," Wednesday night that Atlanta College, as the performing mother and proud—too proud to admit that her noble home had "borrowed" from her husband's mustache-making ability, and Boss, on the second floor from the outside, with his beard stained, and red-nosed from nervousness, was as much pleased as the audience. It was a little girl, Della James from Brunswick, who broke the spell. The other in the cast who were all (Continued on page fifteen)

Staff Notes

For some weeks, we have been looking forward to this day: it's Presley Day and it has been very exciting to watch the preparations unfold. The theme for the day is "The Great Gatsby," and the mood is jubilant. The college is abuzz with excitement, and everyone is dressed up in their finest clothes. The Dorms are humming with activity, and the Whirligig is packed with people.

This is a special day for the college, and we want to make sure that everyone feels included and celebrated.
