New Faculty Is Announced By
Dr. Wells

According to an announcement by Dr. Wells, several new faculty members will be added next year.

Miss Mary Morgan will be Assistant Professor of Social Science.

Miss Corella Vaughan, of Manchester, has been appointed to the faculty of the Pebblego Training School.

Dr. W. T. Rogers, of the University of Arkansas, will be the new head of the department of the library.

Miss Virginia Satterfield, who has been away this year, will return.

Senior Present

Ennis Hall To Juniors

147 Degrees To Be Conferréd;
Hooper Is Principal Speaker

The academic procession at the commencement exercises on Monday will include more than a hundred and seventy persons and more than a hundred and eight sophomores who will be awarded degrees and diplomas during the exercises.

Faculty members in caps and gowns entered the auditorium in the traditional procession bringing in the seniors and the awarding of the diplomas.

The tentative list of prospective graduates to receive degrees includes prospective candidates for A.B. degrees.

Broaden Education Program
Provided By New Arrangement

An official announcement will be made some time this week by Dr. Sidney L. McRee, as president of the Music Department, concerning the Music Concert Association, nothing of the student body the new plans for bringing to Rosemont for a series of concerts similar to the program presented this year.

The Under the new set up season season tickets for the series of concerts will be sold at the students as well as to the town public, and will then be sold to active members of the local concert association. The association will provide a balance in entertainment, completely separated from the regular entertainment series annually offered by the college and sold for with the portion of student fees set aside for entertainment.

This circulating of the entertainment program will mean that next year on the campus there will be offered two distinct groups of entertainment features. The first for student fees which is a part of the college's college and will be offered by the Columbia Artists in conjunction with the Middlesex College Music Association.

The former will probably include features and some features of the college, and perhaps some musical numbers, while the Columbia Artists in conjunction with the Middlesex College Music Association.

CONCERTS
The announcement of the concert series for next year brings the assurance that G. S. C. will present the same type of entertainment annually during the fall semester. The concert is an academic project of the college, not a benefit for the student body; the expense of the art is a toll to be paid by every student who attends. The series includes a variety of concerts, including singer and instrumental groups, orchestras, choirs, etc.
