Fourth Annual Parents' Day Observed

Regent Smith To Introduce Rivers As Main Speaker

GRANDDAUGHTERS ARE AGAIN HOSTESSES FOR OCCASION

Over 1,000 guests are expected to come today, to the annual Parents' Day, sponsored by the Granddaughters club. Parents and friends are expected from all over Georgia and neighboring states.

Governor E. D. Rivers will give the main address at the candlelight dinner to be held today at the Parents' Day celebration. The chapel program will begin at 6:15.

Registration will take place during the morning, up to 11:45, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Maggie Johnson, director of activities for Parents' Day. There will be a place in front of each contributor for parents to register. According to custom, there will be a price given to the donor of the highest value.

A special invitation is extended to the campus for the chapel exercises at 15:30.

WELCOME, PARENTS!

Vol. XII

Georgia State College for Women, Milliganville, Ga., May 7, 1937.

NUMBER 25

The Colonnade

WELCOME, PARENTS!

Fourth Annual Parents' Day Observed

Rev. William Howard Will Deliver Baccalaureate Address

At Westover And Dinner At Mansion Placed For Guests

Marion Smith

HONORARY E. D. RIVERS

Credit Given For Courses At Burton

Rev. Stewart Will Visit on Campus

Religious Emphasis Week Will Be Observed Here

New Teachers Added To Summer Staff

Four teachers have been added recently to the Faculty for the Summer Sessions. In addition to those regular members of the College Staff who will offer the usual courses,

Dr. R. C. Gardner, school supervisor of Georgia, will teach pre-Columbian and other courses. Dr. Gardner, a native of Georgia, has been a frequent speaker at the College, and his courses will be offered in the new dining hall.

In addition to the usual classes, a course in the study of the social sciences will be offered.

Religious Emphasis Week will be observed here as usual, with special emphasis given to the study of the social sciences and the role of the individual in society.

WELCOME, PARENTS!
I peorchestr

- Y. Column

...whirlwind of stirring ideas... and put these ideas into practice...