Colonnade June 7, 1937

6-7-1937
156 Seniors Will Be Awarded Degrees

Publications Name Staff Members

131 Students to Receive Two-Year Certificates

Donnie and Bethel Head Staff of 1938 Spectrum

Buntine, Burge and Bethel was elected editor of the 1938 Spectrum at the elections held by the Faculty Publications Committee.

Ex-Spectrum Editors are Marion Simpson and Mary Rattigan. Robert Brown, with Art Place. June 7, 1937.

Donnie BURGE

Kethley Will Edit Corinthian; Bell Business Manager

Mary Kethley was elected editor of the Corinthian, literary magazine of the campus, at the faculty meeting last week. Mary is now university's only writer for the monthly. She is a bright, creative writing group for which she is well qualified to move in the position to which she has been elected. With her as editor, the Corinthian should continue, the staff, which has been so successful this year.

Other staff positions will be filled by Paul Meister, assistant editor; Elizabeth Hatcher, literary editor, Edna Bell, business manager, and Martha Lowe, assistant business manager.

Special Student Announcements

The deadline for the Corinthian is Friday, September 13, 1937. Business office will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Student Union.

Social Events Planned For Graduates

Social events will be held for the graduates of the University and for the university's students.

Students Give Ennis Key to Junior Class

Students will give Ennis, the class of 1938, a key to the student center.

Simpson Will Head Granddaughters Club

The Granddaughters Club elected at a recent meeting of the club, Mrs. Simpson, was chosen as president.

Myra Jenkins To Be Blue Ridge Leader

Myra Jenkins, 1938, will be the first woman leader of the Blue Ridge this year. She will be assisted by Dorothy C. and Bessie J. W. E., who are the next highest ranking women in the organization.

Editor of Spectrum

Editor of Corinthian

Senior Class President

Social Events Planned For Graduates

The deadline for the Corinthian is Friday, September 13, 1937. Business office will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Student Union.

JAMES BURNESS

Bishop W. A. Candler To Deliver Literary Address to Graduates

More than two hundred and fifty students will receive degrees and diplomas at the Commencement exercises on June 7, 1937, according to information received from the Registrar's Office. As previously announced, Bishop Warren Candler, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was to give the literary address at the graduation exercises.

Page numbers are not visible in the image.
OF SPECIAL INTEREST

For a specific amount of time, the college is offering a special deal for new members. The fee will be reduced by 20% for the first year. To qualify, new members must sign up by the end of this month. For more information, please contact the admissions office.

THE COLLEGE

Georgia State College for Women

Staff Directory

THE SENIORS

Every year is the chance to become the new call of the editor of a college newspaper. In previous years, there have been a few who have taken on this role, but this year, we need more.

TODAY'S ADVERTISERS

Continue from page 2

THE ROCHESTER COMMUNITY

THIRTEEN HONORED

By P. G. Mauger

P. G. Mauger, President of the College, announced that thirteen students have been honored for their outstanding achievements. These students have been selected based on their academic performance, leadership, and community service. The ceremony was held on Friday, May 1st, in the main auditorium.

DRESS PARADE

The annual dress parade was held on June 15th. Students dressed in their finest attire, showcasing their unique styles and personalities. The parade was led by the student council, and the audience was delighted by the creativity and diversity of the outfits.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The college offers a wide range of extracurricular activities to enhance students' experiences. These include sports teams, clubs, and community service projects. Students are encouraged to participate in these activities to develop their skills and interests.

COLUMNADE

The Columnade, Milwaukkee, Wis., June 7, 1977

Howard Will Head

"88 Commerce Club

This organization is dedicated to the promotion of commerce and business education. Their annual event, "88 Commerce Club," is a popular event that brings together current and former students.

SPECIAL INTEREST

Continued from page 3

CAMPUS LIFE

Campus life is vibrant and active. Students participate in various events and activities, including sports, music, and arts. These activities provide opportunities for students to connect with each other and express their interests.

DEPARTMENT HEADS

The following is a list of department heads for the college:

- Business Administration: Mr. John D. Smith
- Accounting: Mrs. Emily R. Brown
- Economics: Dr. Mary L. Anderson
- English: Prof. John T. Davis
- Mathematics: Dr. Susan M. Johnson
- Physics: Prof. Richard L. Wright

COLLEGIATE PRATTLE

Through the Week With The Y

"The Y" is the college's weekly newspaper, providing news and updates on campus events. Each issue includes articles on academic achievements, student life, and community events.
Play Production
Class Gives Plays

Members of the play production class presented four one-act plays on stage as the final class project of the year. On each night one comedy and one serious dramatic nature was presented.

On Thursday night "Expressed Desires," a one-act, by Ethel M. Less, was presented. Members of the cast included: Charles Conwell, Jean L. Kennedy, John Vickers, and Miss Mary Ewing. The evening was well attended.

On Friday night "The Lonely One," by William Shakespeare, was presented. Members of the cast included: Elyse Scott, Margaret Scott, Miss Ida N. Newcomb, and Miss Margaret Core. The evening was well attended.

Committee of Five Visits Camp Burton

A committee from two hundred by Miss Mildred Burton over the weekend on a tour of inspection. The committee included Miss Margaret Core, Miss Margaret S. Green, Miss Margaret Scott, Miss Margaret Core, and Miss Margaret Core.

They left the camp on Friday night and arrived at the camp on Friday morning. The committee stayed until Saturday morning.

Miss Ennis reports that the camp was in excellent condition. The weather in the country was very nice and the committee were well satisfied. Saturday night. While they were there they tried out the lake and decided that it could not be improved for swimming. They also took a short excursion to the local town, with the Camp staff.

The committee left Burton on Saturday morning and returned to the camp late Saturday afternoon. The entire committee was enthusiastic in their approval of the newly finished buildings and the progress of the summer in conjunction with summer school.

Myra Jenkins

(Continued from page 1)

A young English woman, with her friend, Miss Jenkins, has already been selected.

The first English woman to be selected, Miss Jenkins, will be the first English woman to be selected for the position of housekeeper.

The committee of five members, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Jenkins, have already been selected.

The committee of five members, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Jenkins, have already been selected.

Monthly Broadcast

(Continued from page 1)

The committee of five members, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Jenkins, have already been selected.

The committee of five members, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Jenkins, have already been selected.

COMMENTS OF L. D. SMITH'S STORE

Re: Ivey-Turner Restaurant

And the Chimes Plank and Bank

Square Dance

We plan to hold a square dance at the Chimes Plank and Bank next Thursday night.

Monthly Broadcast

(Continued from page 1)

The committee of five members, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Jenkins, have already been selected.

The committee of five members, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Jenkins, have already been selected.