10-9-1937

Colonnade October 9, 1937

Follow this and additional works at: http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation
http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/233

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.

Constitutional Celebration Plans Made Known

Shrine of Constitution Given Library at Dedication Service

Two Other Phases of Constitution Celebration Program Contain of Informational Talks, Demonstrations.

Probably the most outstanding of the year’s college activities will be the Constitutional Celebration, as well as the Constitution of the Formation of the Constitution, in which the college will collaborate with a local committee appointed by Mayor George Carpenter. The discussion will cover the history of the Constitution of the college to work on this celebration is as far as possible to avoid confusion.

The celebration will begin around Thanksgiving and will consist of the reading of the Constitution and a display of the Constitution as a document. The special program will be given by the President of the college, who will give an address on the Constitution as a text.

The celebration will be held in the library and will be open to the public. The presentation will be made by the President of the college, who will discuss the Constitution and its importance in American history.

The celebration will also feature a display of the Constitution and a special address by the President of the college. The celebration will be held in the library and will be open to the public. The presentation will be made by the President of the college, who will discuss the Constitution and its importance in American history.

Provincial Constitutional Celebration Plans Made Known

Shrine of Constitution Given Library at Dedication Service

Two Other Phases of Constitution Celebration Program Contain of Informational Talks, Demonstrations.

 Probably the most outstanding of the year’s college activities will be the Constitutional Celebration, as well as the Constitution of the Formation of the Constitution, in which the college will collaborate with a local committee appointed by Mayor George Carpenter. The discussion will cover the history of the Constitution of the college to work on this celebration is as far as possible to avoid confusion.

The celebration will begin around Thanksgiving and will consist of the reading of the Constitution and a display of the Constitution as a document. The special program will be given by the President of the college, who will give an address on the Constitution as a text.

The celebration will be held in the library and will be open to the public. The presentation will be made by the President of the college, who will discuss the Constitution and its importance in American history.

The celebration will also feature a display of the Constitution and a special address by the President of the college. The celebration will be held in the library and will be open to the public. The presentation will be made by the President of the college, who will discuss the Constitution and its importance in American history.
Robert Taylor and Elizabeth Powell

"BROADWAY MELODY"

Wednesday, Oct. 17th

"MUSIC FOR MADAME"

Thurs., Oct. 18th

Lavitta Young, Warner Baxter, Virginia Bruce, to

"DOCTOR AND NURSE"

Saturday, Oct. 20th

Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, William Powell, to

"MANHATTAN MELODRAMA"

Definitely promising to continue annual Literary Series and the 1937-38 program.

The Photop Book, narrated by Tom Wilson, will be at the Capitol—every day promises what is generally expected—a "dime piece" feature.

A new musical comedy, "Footlight" will be on the air this week.

The Big Nine tonight, at the Capitol—every day promises what is generally expected—a "dime piece" feature.

In November, "The Broadway Melodies of 1938" will be shown. June

In April, "The Girl From Missouri" will be shown at the Capitol.

In May, "The Girl From Missouri" will be shown at the Capitol.

"The Girl From Missouri" will be shown at the Capitol.

"The Girl From Missouri" will be shown at the Capitol.

CAMPUS

A MARVIN SCHOOL

Middletown, Ga.

FRANK D. ADAMS, Mr.

Mem.-Thurs., Oct. 15-18th

Robert Taylor and Elizabeth Powell

"BROADWAY MELODY"

Wednesday, Oct. 17th

"MUSIC FOR MADAME"

Thurs., Oct. 18th

Lavitta Young, Warner Baxter, Virginia Bruce, to

"DOCTOR AND NURSE"

Saturday, Oct. 20th

Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, William Powell, to

"MANHATTAN MELODRAMA"