Well-Known Celebrities Will Be Featured in Lyceum Numbers

Britain, Graves and Bauer To Present Program in November

Most of Books Given Are in Realm of English and American Literature

...Miss Wardell Crowell, professor in English at G. S. C. W. still has retirement in store for her. She presented the library with several hundred books and magazines.

During the time that Miss Crowell was at G. S. C. W. she served as both editor of the Library Committee, a post which in itself was a valuable contribution to the College.

One of the most important changes that will be made in the institution of the Lyceum number. There will be special attention given to the Library because the collection in this section of Literature has not been simple for consultation of students and faculty.

The purpose of Miss Crowell's presence in the Lyceum program of the fall season will be a smaller number of titles, more diversity in the form of various is so there will have to be a stronger emphasis on the collection of Literature.

Among the Short Stories in the collection are those by Leonard Brown of Syracuse University, A. J. S. and Henry S. Cent. of Yale University.

The periodicals that Miss Crowell presented to the Library are:

The periodicals that Miss Crowell presented to the Library are:

Dawson is Awarded His Doctor's Degree

Edward Dawson received final degree in Physical Science degree in Physical Science.

Dr. Dawson, number of the English, has received his A.B. and M.A.

This thesis was on Hawthorne, and in the research of which subject he discovered source of The Scarlet Letter.

Damsels' Domiciles As Delineated By Delator Description

Boozes, rooms, suites, regions, etc., are all of the same. It is likely that there is no more of the same.

Some even suggest that for the sake of their health, it might be best to avoid all but the finest hotels.

In the long run of course, it is better to be away from the city than to be in middle of a city. In the same way, it might be best to avoid all but the finest hotels.
The Colonnade

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Colonnade,

I submit this the campus council and the faculty and administration to discuss the impact of the current strike on our academic environment.

The strike has caused significant disruptions in our daily operations, and it is crucial that we address these issues.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

We all feel a great sense of responsibility to ensure the safety and well-being of our students and faculty.

It is essential that we work together to find a resolution to this situation.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

DRESS PARADE

Dress Parade is an event that celebrates the diversity of our student body and promotes unity.

We encourage everyone to participate and show their pride.

Music Appreciation

The music appreciation event features performances by various student groups and community organizations.

This is a great opportunity to enjoy the talents of our community.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

The Personnel Department is responsible for managing the HR policies and procedures.

We are committed to creating a positive and inclusive workplace for all employees.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
See'n The Cinemas

The Campus has three pictures this week which I imagine we all will go to see. Tomorrow is "Young at Heart," hand-kneaded and hard-boiled Pitt. O'Malley, and delicious Margaret Lindsay "See'd in Circulation!" And at a special attraction Tat Harry and his orchestra featuring Helen Lane, vocalist, are to be on the stage. All is to be on Monday, October 13.

But this is only the beginning, folks, only the beginning! For Tuesday, Oct. 14, is the biggest round-up in stars cast together in many a day. The name of the movie is "The Hill Parador" and the cast includes lovely Frances Langford, Paul Begley, who has been reared by Percy Grainger director of the music department of New York University, among the modern classical composers, Edith Eichen, Bert Reining, whose command of the upturned nose and dingleberries, the Voice of Broadcast, and many others who are definite favorites of the CAMPUS. "The Hill Parador" orchestra you hear over the radio every week also appears in "The Hill Parador" of Wednesday promises to be good entertainment—especially for the music lover.

Wednesday, October 12, you will find "The Jones Family in High Water" this hilarious comedy entertainment. The lure of book night should provide an hour and a half of entertainment.

Those who saw such pictures as "The Sin of Madison Claire," "The Memory Linger's on, and "Escape Me Never" will never forget the poignant drama of maternal love and devotion portrayed in each. "Water with Barbara Stanwyck, Jane Allen and Sterling Hayden are the above mentioned film's material, according to some critics, even surpass them. As "Stella Dallas," Barbara Stanwyck, the tragic heroine of Susan Glaspell's new motion picture, por-

CAMPUS NEWS

Monday, Oct. 13: Y SECRETARY SPEAKS TO STUDENT BODY

The reorganization of religion in education is a topic of interest to those who have been in the field of education for a number of years. Miss Jane Glisson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., is a talker to the student body of college Monday night.

Miss Glisson came to G. S. C. W. with Miss Eliza Doctore last year, Miss Glisson met her A. degree from William and Mary the same year. Miss Doctore's Kappa. Last year she was elected president of her master's degree.

"The music we live by itself, the music we are able to see in the world. The element of religion gives us this ability, continued Miss Glisson. All education in one sense is religious education. The process of living is a part of religious education. Religion has to be an inward personal experience but it can be taught to others by teaching history and philosophy of religion and realization of God, Miss Glisson told the students. She concluded her talk with a read-

SANITONE WITH SNOW

Sanitone with Snow

(Continued from page one)

The situation occurred the upper chamberman was again drawn in on the issue on behalf of their sister classes. The situation, in short, is semilurial to the prevailing Europe in just at the present time. Living, "The Joy of Life," by William James.

The local chapter of the American University of Charleston Professors held its first annual meeting on Monday night, October 6. The officers elected were: Dr. E. W. LeFeber, president; Dr. J. P. J. Broun, secretary. The club plans to sponsor this year, in cooperation with the student body administration as a whole, to program in order to improve the health education on the campus. A committee was appointed to work out plans for carrying out the program. The members also planned a day to secure additional members and are inviting all prospective members to attend the regular meetings.

The Best Hot Dogs In Town At CULVER & KIDD "Of Course"

HARBGMAN ROBBINS

This young lady gets a FREE milk set at Bell's Beauty Shop. Investigate the plan.

Eberhard Studio

Phone 915

PHONE 231

The Colonade, Saturday, October 14, 1939

New Member Elected To I. R. C. Club

Lib Domingen, president of the International Relations Club, announced this week that sixteen new names have been added to the organization. The I.R.C. will have a supper at Tus- sel's 200 West Main St. Tuesday, October 15, 4:30 P.M. The theme for this year for the club will be a study of the forms of governments of the world today.

The new members are Susan Frances Brown, Vivette, Brown, Dorothy Simpkin, Florence Phillips Margaret Weaver, Miss Nancy, Margaret Karen, Virginia Hudson, Sara C. Smith, Viola Hendrick, Blanche Blubake, Alabama Elliott, and Blanche Wells.

 träys the fierce, yowling woman of a woman ready to make any sacrifice for her husband. John Bole is superb in the role of the father's boastful, who is far superior to society. "Stella Dallas" is to be shown Thursday and Friday, October 25 and 26.

Y Secretary Speaks To Student Body

"The reorganization of religion in education is a topic of interest to those who have been in the field of education for a number of years. Miss Jane Glisson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., is a talker to the student body of college Monday night.

Miss Glisson came to G. S. C. W. with Miss Eliza Doctore last year, Miss Glisson met her A. degree from William and Mary the same year. Miss Doctore's Kappa. Last year she was elected president of her master's degree.

"The music we live by itself, the music we are able to see in the world. The element of religion gives us this ability, continued Miss Glisson. All education in one sense is religious education. The process of living is a part of religious education. Religion has to be an inward personal experience but it can be taught to others by teaching history and philosophy of religion and realization of God, Miss Glisson told the students. She concluded her talk with a read-

(NO AD)