And So To College. Win Those Two Decision Over “Your GSC” Ever Again.

Playing to a capacity audience the two colors for the Golden Slipper Contest the Freshmen play “To College” won out over the home team production “Your GSC and MIT.” Jane Baker, president of College Government, presented the Golden Slipper to Jane McCoy, president of the Freshman class, accompanied by a three-two decision in favor of the speeches to be made.

The Freshman production, of which Miss McCoy was a member and director, lasted about a hour and a half, the university. The plot of the production was that a Freshman class like that of the Min-}

Military service in Turkey is required as an important service in other nations. For instance, the World’s Home Defense Organization trains young women for their service—under an organization called “The Boy Scout organizations” in our own as under the Boy Scouts training agencies. Boy Scouts in Brazil for information on the government’s recruiting campaign for women under the Ministry of War.

The military training is compulsory in Argentina between the ages of 18 and 20. However, all students are required to undergo the training but are not required to undergo the training, even in the event of war. The Turkish government has attempted to combat the student movement by including military training in the educational system, and students who are found to be participating in student activities are subject to prosecution.

NOTICE
This week we are resuming a custom of last year—that of giving a free tree to the picture show to the interne reporter who writes the best story of the week for the Colonnade. It is through the kindness of Mr. Adams, at Adelsheim, that we have been able to continue this plan.

Last week it seems that the best story of the week was written by Carolyn Story, and since she will not be able to call tomorrow afternoon, we will offer this pass to the hardworking reporter.

MARQUISADERS GIVE MAKEUP KIT AND CURTAINS TO THEATER
The Marquisaders, dramatic organization on the campus, presented to the Little Theater a makeup kit and two curtains for the stage of the Little Theater.

The Marquisaders presented "Alien Voices" last Thursday night. The play was given in the Little Theater. The curtains are headed by Catherine Brown.

Seein' The Cinema
Monday and Tuesday will come to the Campus that show will have been importantly announced. Editors of the Ford in "The Bride Wore Red," French Ture and Robert Turley, the leading man, and personally, we think that's a pretty good set-up. It's the story of a woman who is made happy in the surround squirmishes of her life. It has the color of the background, and it has the color of the windshield for the car. It is, as a matter of fact, a part of a poor girl who, for a few weeks, or the whim of an old man, is given the means to make a living by what she is given. She finds the story for future happiness—but the foundation is laid on make-believe. And things definitely happen. It's a swell show. Included in the cast are Billie Burke, Reginald Owen, and Lynne Carver. And now come a few words about the screen—and we mean a real star. There's more of him than ever, and the picture is "Dinner at the Biltmore." With Paul Muni, David Niven, and Ray Milland, the picture seems to be a name-dropper in Monte Carlo and is every bit as exciting as Monte Carlo sound. It will be shown Wednesday. As a special Thanksgiving offering, the Campus is presenting "Love, Love, and Love" with Robert Morley.
