Radio Program Will Feature Centennial

A Georgia Day program will be presented February 12, at 8:00 o'clock in the Auditorium.

The program will be broadcast by the Georgia Broadcasting Company, and will feature a variety of musical and dramatic performances.

The broadcast will be sponsored by the University of Georgia Alumni Association.

The broadcast is expected to attract a large audience, and will feature a number of well-known performers.

The program will conclude with a special segment featuring the Georgia Day Parade.

It is hoped that the broadcast will be a success, and that it will help to further the centennial celebrations.
