ers the major issues of the day.

At all morning Regents me

The major issues of the day will be the main topics of the meeting. The Regents will hear reports on the progress of the University System of Georgia, as well as on the state of higher education in Georgia as a whole.

The issues to be discussed at the meeting include:

1. The status of the University System of Georgia and its impact on the state's economy.
2. The need for increased funding for higher education.
3. The role of the Regents in the governance of the University System of Georgia.
4. The importance of student involvement in the decision-making process.

The meeting will be held on the campus of the University of Georgia in Athens. The meeting is open to the public, and the Regents will welcome questions and comments from attendees.

The meeting will conclude with a reception for the Regents and their guests.
It Looks From Here

A Certain City

A method of the efficient work of the editor of the Sentinel was to devote the early part of the day to the preparation of the paper and the late part to the enjoyment of nature's bounty. The editor was a man of good health and a love of outdoor sport. He was a man of action, and his every word was full of vitality. His face was tan, his hair was gray, and his eyes were blue. He was a man of many interests, and his knowledge of the world was broad. He was a man of high ideals, and his every word was spoken with a purpose.

It was a day of recreation, and the editor was enjoying the sunshine and the fresh air. He was a man of the people, and he knew them well. He was a man of great sympathy, and his heart was full of love for the human race. He was a man of great power, and his words were listened to with respect.

The editor was a man of great energy, and he was always ready for a task. He was a man of great strength, and he could lift heavy weights. He was a man of great courage, and he never flinched at danger. He was a man of great wisdom, and his every word was studied and analyzed.

FIFTH CELEBRATION OF PARENT’S DAY OBSERVED

One of G. S. W. W’s best beloved traditions is its celebration of Parents’ Day. This event is sponsored by the student group known as Unique Club and takes place during the month of April in the G. S. W. W. Student Union.

The purpose of the event is to honor the parents of students and to show appreciation for their support and encouragement. A banquet is held on the evening before the main event, where parents are invited to attend.

The main event is a program that includes speeches, music, and presentations by students. The program is designed to recognize the contributions of parents to the students’ education and personal growth.

Parents’ Day is an opportunity for students to express their gratitude and to celebrate the important role that parents play in their lives. It is a special day that brings families and the university community together in a spirit of unity and appreciation.

Twelve Girls Named In Who’s Who

For the fifth year, G. S. W. W. W. has named twelve girls to Who’s Who, an organization that recognizes outstanding students and their contributions to the university community. These girls were chosen based on their academic achievements, leadership qualities, and involvement in campus activities.

The selection process includes nominations from students, faculty, and staff, followed by a review of the candidates’ accomplishments and character. The twelve girls selected for this year are:

1. Sarah Johnson
2. Emily Brown
3. Rachel Smith
4. Jessica Davis
5. Samantha Wilson
6. Madison Rodriguez
7. Emily Torres
8. Jordan Williams
9. Sophia Green
10. Emily White
11. Sarah Martinez
12. Jessica Martinez

These girls have demonstrated exceptional abilities and have made significant contributions to the university and their respective fields.

Best Sellers Added to Rental Library

The Rental Library has recently added a number of new books to its collection. These books are available for students to rent and include a variety of genres and topics. The selection includes:

1. “The Great Gatsby” by F. Scott Fitzgerald
2. “To Kill a Mockingbird” by Harper Lee
3. “1984” by George Orwell
4. “The Catcher in the Rye” by J.D. Salinger
5. “The Foundation Series” by Isaac Asimov

These books have been popular among students and are expected to be in high demand.
